Noon Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

News and Views from Across the Waters. LONDON, March 21.—The title bill passed the committee. It is said to be certain that the Queen would not assume the title of Empress in England under the circumstances.

Russian entrance into Cever is re-asserted. MADRID, March 21.—14,000 strangers are in the city. There are 30 triumphal arches.

ROME, March 21.—Prince Doria is dead. LONDON, March 21.—Col. Charles Chesny is dead.

The News has the following details from Madrid: King Alfonso was received with much enthusiasm on leaving the Church of Atocha. He reviewed the troops as they marched past. This occupied six hours. The procession, with banners inscribed "Catholic Unity," was prevented from entering Puerta del Sol, and the prohibition was much applauded.

PARIS, March 21.—The Chamber of Deputies has announced the election of W. Molarte from the Department of Haute-Loire, because of the miscount of an election officer. This is the first election that has been annulled.

It is stated that the Congregation of Rites has reported against the canonization of Joan of Arc.

The office of the Republique Francaise has been broken into by burglars and robbed of 55,000 francs.

LONDON, March 21.—A Times Paris telegram says it is stated that the amnesty proposal only obtained the adherence of 8 senators and 27 deputies. Of 350 provincial papers, only 3 approve of unqualified amnesty. The Post learns that the Carlist refugees in France will possibly form a foreign legion for service in Algeria.

The Times Vienna special says the joint action of the powers seem to have produced its effect at Belgrade. Olympus, the Serbian negotiator, has been recalled from Montenegro.

WASHINGTON.

Congress—Report Adverse to Dana—Butler Before the War Expense Committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—SENATE.—The Committee of Conference asked on the West Point appropriation, presented a large petition against the sale of liquor in the district.

The diplomatic bill was reported with a number of amendments. It is stated that the Senate Foreign Committee has agreed to report adversely to Dana. Butler was before the War Expenditures Committee, to relieve Smith from his pledges. Butler knew nothing, but had carried on an investigation on his private account for his own purposes. He had his suspicions, but had nothing tangible; thought it strange that Pendleton should have his fee cut up and the amount received by Mrs. Bowers should fit one of the parts. He left the committee with the impression that he knew something which they had not shrewdness to elicit, however important.

BLOOD.

A Chapter of Murders—Snow. WASHINGTON, March 21.—John W. Perriman to-day killed his brother at Greenville, Illinois. A negro killed another at Madison county, Illinois. Coke Wood killed Guryville at Oakland, Mississippi. Smith killed Owens at Mount Sterling, Kentucky.

There are nine inches of snow at Washington.

ARKANSAS.

Heavy Snow—Railroad Submerged. LITTLE ROCK, March 21.—The heaviest snow of the season prevails throughout our county. The wharf houses have been destroyed. Three schooners are ashore at Pascagoula. A man was lost from one schooner. Lake Ponchartraine is higher than since '71. 20 miles of the New Orleans & Mobile road are submerged.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Montgomery Moses Found Guilty—Solicitor Butts Impeached.

COLUMBIA, March 21.—In the State Senate to-day, Montgomery Moses, Judge of the Seventh Circuit, was found guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors and formally dismissed. Of the committee of three, to investigate C. W. Butts, Solicitor of the Charleston Circuit, the majority reports him guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, and recommend his impeachment. The House meets to-night to act upon the reports. It is thought that Butts' friends are too strong to permit of its adoption.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, March 21.

For the South Atlantic States, clear or fair weather, with rising barometer, northerly to westerly winds, and during Wednesday, stationary or slight change in temperature.

NEW YORK.

Ugly Rumors About a Judge.

New York, March 21.—Rumors are in circulation that ex-Judge Wm. C. Barrett, who sailed for Europe on Saturday, has committed forgeries to the amount of $300,000. His law partners and friends deny that he has committed any crime, but admit that he is insolvent. He has been prominent, socially and politically, in New York, and was believed to be very wealthy.

WASHINGTON.

Congressional Proceedings—Booth's Bonanza—Evans Substantiating Marsh, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.—SENATE.—Gordon presented a petition from Brunswick and Macon, Ga., for harbor improvement. A bill for the relief of the heirs of Gen. James Har-iston, passed. Counting the electoral vote was resumed, but no action was taken. Executive session. Adjourned.

The Committee on Foreign Relations reported adversely on Dana as Minister to England.

HOUSE.—The Committee on Expenditures in the Treasury Department, was instructed to enquire into the management and disposition of captured and abandoned property. A bill amending the laws regulating commerce, navigation and steamboats, was made special order for Tuesday. A bill authorizing the transfer of cases from the Circuit Court of the United States, for the District of Alabama, at Mobile, to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Middle and Northern District of Alabama, at Montgomery and Huntsville, passed.

The House went into Committee on the Judicial, Executive and Legislative Appropriation Bill.

There was a full Cabinet to-day. Three members of Congress have permission by resolution of the House, to appear before the Grand Jury in a real estate pool case.

Edwin Booth realized $52,000 by his Southern tour.

Gen. Butler has given confidentially the names of certain parties who are now in New Orleans, who claim to know about Mrs. Bowers' receiving money from Pendleton. The Star says it is generally believed that they are Mrs. Gen. Roddy and Mrs. Bennett.

Evans, the Post Trader at Fort Sill, generally substantiates Marsh. Evans paid General Rice $1,000 for an introduction to Belknap. Rice wanted $1,500. Ex-Senator Stewart's evidence to-day is mainly narrative and preliminary. He contradicts some of Lyons' statement.

FLASHES.

NEW YORK, March 21.—G. M. Rollins has sued the Herald for libel in $10,000.

BOSTON, March 21.—The Supreme Court overruled the exceptions in the case of Thomas Piper, who was convicted of the murder of Mabel Young in the belfry of Warren Avenue Church, and sentenced.
