A SINGULAR CEMETERY-IN MEMORIAM.

There is a new and curious cemetery in the City of Washington and over its gate hangs this strange and striking inscription: "Within these walls, lie all that is mortal of those who aspired to the Presidency for the year 1876." Being eager to inspect the grounds and ascertain the meaning of the remarkable sentence that arrested our eye, we obtained a passport from the keeper of this solemn repository of the dead and commenced our ob servations. We had not gone far before our attention was attracted by a large tomb-stone, and we paused to read the letters and see who was the distinguished occupant whose virtues it was designed to commemorate. This simple inscription was all that we half of the country he loved so well. While looking after the interest of the government in the Post Traderships far away upon the Western Frontier, he ventured too far into a treacherous Marsh and was drowned before assistance could reach him." With pro found sorrow for his sad end, we moved on, the next and read these lines "Here lies the lamented GEO. H. PEN-DLETON. He was a lawyer of great eminence and acted as both the Presi dent and Attorney of a large railroad in Kentucky. He had just gained the largest fee of his life, but while on the off the track and he was taken out lifeless from the wreck." ### THE RALLIGH SENTINEL AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

10 B A 10 10 10 10 10 The Raleigh Sentinel a few days ago copied an article from the Weldon News, which strongly opposed the nomination of the Hon. Z. B. Vance as our gubernatorial standard bearer n the coming campaign. Mr. Turner gine that Governor Vance has laid them upon the shelf, whom we have no idea would support him for any office; in the State, who could arouse so much enthusiasm among the masses who do the voting. It ill becomes Mr. Turner to give the Democratic party any advice upon the subject, since by his silence a few years ago he deserted the party and encouraged and upheld the bolters who defeated that gentleman for the United States Senate. An editor who will sympathise with a few bolters and Radicals in defeating the nominee of his party, need not expect h's advice to have much weight afterwards. When Gov. Vance was nominated for the United States Senate, Mr. pect their papers discontinued at the expiration of the time paid for. Our mailing clerk knows nobody, and his instructions the party, was as dumb as an oyster and never so much as urged the members in a single issue of his paper to support the nominee of the party! The verdict of the people of the State we cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's

We cannot, under any circumstances, return rejected communications, nor can we
