Radical Display in Paris—London Failures—New Prussian Ministry—The Situation on the Mexican Border—Business in London, &c.

PARIS, April 26.—There was a great radical demonstration over the funeral of Madame Blanc, 200,000 people lined the route. Hugo, Rospal, Bardsdale and Gambetta, attended the funeral.

LONDON, April 26.—A G Robinson, steam packet agent, has failed for half a million.

BERLIN, April 26.—Delbruck's revolt caused by his opposition to Prince Bismarck's railroad scheme, will make a new organization of the Imperial Ministry necessary.

New York, April 27.—A dispatch dated Brownsville, 25th, says the revolutionists moved out of Matamoros this morning, 1,000 strong, under command of Diaz, en route for Monterey. Gen Gonselles remains in command. A great many desertions from the National Guard is taking place, the deserters escaping to this side of the river. Last night a squad of cavalry remained in the saddle for the purpose of enforcing the neutrality laws, it having been reported that contrabands of war would be crossed the river for Diaz. They are doing their best to prevent it. The movement of Diaz is regarded as little more than the usual outbreak that takes place in Mexico during the Presidential election, and it is not anticipated that any fighting will take place here.

A band of counterfeiters were arrested at Ringgold barracks yesterday. Affairs in Camargo, on the opposite side of the river from that place, are reported quiet.

LONDON, April 26.—The Times today in its financial article says the discount business is very great, rates being fairly a matter of arrangement. The Dowager Countess of Derby, is dead.

Important Emma Mine Documents—The Committee Favors Spencer—The Irrepressible Pacific Railroad Question—Blaine Don't Satisfy Everybody.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26.—The Foreign Affairs Committee has received important Emma Mine documents from Europe. The contents will be kept secret until Schenck has an opportunity to explain.

The Elections Committee took final action on the Spencer-Morry contest, from Louisiana, this morning. There will be three reports; the majority of six are for seating Spencer, of the minority three for retaining Morry in his seat, and Baker for declaring the seat vacant and referring the election back to the people.

The Pacific Railroad Committee agreed to report favorably on the Senate bill extending the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad eight years. In the Senate, Morton is speaking in favor of his resolution to establish a government in the District of Columbia, to be elected by the people. Echoes from Blaine's explanation, indicate that it is not entirely satisfactory to all the people.

MASSACHUSETTS. The Republican Convention—Strong Arrangement of the Party by the Chairman.

BOSTON, April 26.—The Republican State Convention assembled here today. John S. Sanford was permanent Chairman. In his speech he said no one who has watched the current of recent political events has failed to see a wide spread dissatisfaction with the management of national affairs; and as a consequence, there have been large and significant defections from our ranks. We have seen the Republican party routed in its strongholds, and the National House of Representatives occupied by our opponents. It is idle to disguise the fact that there have been periods within the last four years, when a national election would have brought imminent hazard of a Democratic restoration. Have you any longer a doubt as to the causes which have wrought this change in our fortune? Surely we have not abjured our creed. Our distinctive policy and aims were never more clearly affirmed; our traditions and the names of our great leaders never more reverently held. No; the protest is not against the record or creed, but against the methods of administration; against the dominant influences and tendencies that have debased the character and tone of the public service; against a leadership that has wended power and patronage for its own ends, and not for the pub-

CALIFORNIA. Dom Pedro Shuns Display—The Bonanza Mines Pronounced Still Valuable.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—Dom Pedro to-day arrived at the Palace Hotel. He avoided the crowd and music at Oakland by going in advance of the regular train. The Stock Report publishes an interview with J C Flood, in which the latter emphatically denies the report recently circulated that the bonanza mines are petering out, asserting that they never looked better, and would continue to pay dividends right along. He says that all reports to the contrary are false and malicious.

General Ingalls was before the Clymer Committee to-day on the Moth question. His statement exculpated himself from any unlawful connection with the Moth contracts. He pronounced the statement of Don Piatt that he was inimical to the Cowles process, and all the insinuations he had made, unqualifiedly false. The Secretary of War told witness, that Cowles' contract had been stopped by reason of the charges made by Don Piatt. Don Piatt took the stand. He said all he knew of the good or bad character of Gen Ingalls came through his client, Mr. Cowles. H G Faut, financial agent for Cowles & Brega, from March, '72, to January, '74, testified that there had passed through his hands on account of the firm, over $400,000, of which Don Piatt had received nearly $23,000.

The friends of Mr Bristow consider that they have secured a majority of the four delegates. It is stated that Mr Dana and President Chadbourn are out spoken in his favor and that Forbes although previously mentioned on the unpledged ticket, may be considered a Bristow man.
