Religious Liberty in Spain—Another Conference of Chancellors—The Bodies of the Consuls Still Unburied—Fearful State of Affairs in Turkey—Sunday Law in Ireland—Prospect of the Surrender of Winslow.

MADRID, May 13, 1876.—Congress has passed clause eleven of the Constitution providing for religious liberty, by a vote of 220 to 94.

BERLIN, May 13.—The Imperial Chancellors had a second conference to-day. Count Andrassy and Prince Gortschokoff had previously conferred for four hours. It is stated that Prince Gortschokoff will not accompany the Czar to Ems to-morrow, but will remain in Berlin a few days longer.

A dispatch to the Reichsanzeiger confirms the report that the bodies of the murdered consuls at Salonica are still unburied. The excitement of the Mohammedan population is so great that it would be dangerous to attempt the funeral until the arrival reinforcements for the troops and additional men-of-war.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 12.—Mehmed Pasha has been appointed grand Vizier, and Hussian Ari Pasha, Minister of War.

LONDON, May 13.—A resolution in favor of closing public houses in Ireland throughout Sunday, passed 224 to 167. The government opposed the resolution. The Liberals cheered vociferously on the announcement of the result of the division.

A correspondent of the Times telegraphs from Constantinople: "A general panic prevails here. The low classes of Mohammedans are purchasing daggers and revolvers with money supplied by persons who are plotting the overthrow of the Sultan and the governing of the Christians. The Mohammedans in Sultana threaten the Greeks and Americans, bidding them prepare for immediate death. Travellers are leaving en masse. The European residents are sending their families away. The presence of European squadrons and the organization of volunteer European military companies, is alarming."

The Bulgarian insurrection is extending. Disorders are apprehended at Rostchuk.

BOTSWAN, May 13.—A London special of the 12th says: "It appears to-night from what information I am able to gather at the foreign office and the American Legation, that the chances for the surrender of Winslow to the United States officials under the extradition treaty, are improving. It is impossible to ascertain the precise terms of the reply sent by the British Government last Saturday to Secretary Fish's note on the subject, but there is little doubt that it conceded the justice of the Secretary's argument, and the strength of his position though of course it is not directly so stated, and that England will oppose the demand of Winslow and his counsel for his discharge."

LONDON, May 13.—The ten days for which Winslow was recommitted having expired, application for his release was renewed this morning. It was again opposed by the Government and he was recommitted for ten days longer. Attorney General Haller said that if Secretary Fish's answer to Lord Derby's note had not been received, the Government would not raise any further objections to his release.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

WATER IRREGULARITIES.

WASHINGTON, May 13. For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, rising barometer, cooler northerly to easterly winds and partly cloudy weather will prevail, with light rains along the South Atlantic coast.

FOREIGN.

A Battle in Turkey.

RAGUSA, May 13.—Salonica advices report that a battle was fought yesterday near Birses in which 700 Turks and 100 Insurgents were killed. The Turks at Scutari celebrated the Salonica murders.

PENNSYLVANIA.

List of Southern Centennial Judges.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—Among the American Judges selected by the Centennial Commissioners, are: E. H. Harrison of St. Louis; C. M. Chaffat, of South Carolina; Col. J. R. Radford, of Florida; J. M. Bennett, of West Virginia; Hugh Waddell, of Georgia; Col. E. D. Richardson, of Miss.; Dr. B. Hazleton, of Missouri; H. F. Bryon, of Maryland; Gen. Imboden, of Virginia; J. A. Anderson, of Kentucky; Dr. C. B. Whitley, of New Orleans; Jas. B. Eads, of Miss.; Dan'l C. Gilmore, of Md.; Prof. W. C. Kerr, of North Carolina.

WASHINGTON.

The Mississippi Committee to Leave Soon—Centennial Goods—Bad Outlook for the Crooked Men—A Doorkeeper's Troubles, &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—Boutwell and the Committee to investigate the alleged political outrages in Mississippi, leave for South as soon as the Senate decides the question of jurisdiction in the Belknap case, which is expected next Wednesday. The Committee have examined Ames and Mr Dalton, recently confirmed District Attorney, for the Northern District of Mississippi, but will examine no other witnesses here.

The United States steamer Supply has arrived in Philadelphia, with centennial exhibits.

The Government will bid for the Harpers Ferry property, which will be offered for sale on the 20th July.

District Attorney General Dyer replies unfavorably to the letter from the Attorney General regarding the pardon for McKee and Maguire. Pierpont refused to see Maguire, today, sending him word that the only way to communicate with him, was through his counsel, Judge Treat; and Attorney General Dyer also declined to interfere in behalf of Avery.

House.—The Judiciary Committee was discharged from further consideration of the charges made by Albert Grant against Judge Wylie, of the District Court. Luttrell introduced a joint resolution authorizing the appointment of commissioners to ascertain on what terms a commercial treaty can be arranged with Mexico. Referred.

The troubles of Col Fitzhugh, doorkeeper, culminated to-day in a number of personal explanations. The sense of the House was marked as the to propriety of demanding a resignation, but as some serious charges were involved, it was due to Fitzhugh that he have a hearing, and the whole matter was referred to the Committee on Rules.

The Post Office Appropriations was resumed, and salaries discussed. Adjourned.

VIRGINIA.

Proceedings of the Southern Baptist Convention.

RICHMOND, May 13.—In the Southern Baptist Convention to-day, Rev Dr Twinkler, of Alabama, presented a report on women's work in foreign lands, and urged that the policy of the board should be to multiply their services as far as possible. The report sketches some important work being done by the female Missionary Societies of the churches, urges some practical suggestions for their management. Rev Dr S S Helm, of Kentucky, read the report of the Committee on Indian Missions. The report earnestly urges that past success and present demands require that the Indian Mission work should be prosecuted and greatly enlarged. It speaks of the importance of schools among the Indians and urges the prompt establishment of schools among them by the board of this Convention. Dr Helm sustained the report in an earnest address. Rev Dr Dawson, of South Carolina one of the most venerable ministers of the body, recalled some pleasant reminiscences of Mr Monroe's Indian policy, and made an earnest appeal to the whites to give the gospel to those whose hunting grounds they possess. Rev Dr Buckner, the veteran missionary of the Convention among the Indians, gave some very interesting facts to show that christianity is a better police force among the red men than the United States cavalry, and that the tribes which have been christianized are peaceable and law-abiding. He brought out the great necessity of schools among the Indians and went into interesting details to show the entire practicability of at once proceeding to re-establishing a manual labor school among the Creeks. The reports were unanimously adopted.

NEW YORK.

The Liberals to Remain Inactive—Justice Downing Dead—Wont Hear Bowen—Colored Episcopalians Refused Admission to the Convention.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The meeting of the Executive Committee of the Liberal Republican State Committee to-day, adopted a preamble and resolutions that they fail to recognize the organized existence of the Liberal Republicans of the country, and advise the Liberal Republicans of New York to await the action of the Cincinnati and St. Louis Conventions, with the purpose of supporting any unobjectionable candidate thereby presented, or in default thereof, participating with others in an independent election in whatever possible movement shall promise the delivery of the National Government from the range of corruption.

Police Justice Joseph Downing is dead. Rev Dr Taylor peremptorily refuses to hear Bowen's private story about Beecher. Emanuel Eirreig, rectifier, was arrested to-day, and bailed in $10,000. The question of the admission of colored Protestant Episcopal congregations to representation, which had agitated the South Carolina Diocese for two or three years past, was settled last night, after a warm discussion in the Diocesan Convention by the rejection of the application of St Mark's Church for admission to that body. The majority of the clergy favored the application which was rejected by the vote of lay delegates.
