CANDID CONFESSIONS

The Raleigh Constitution in defending Goy. Brogden for not demanding the fugitives, Cowles and Carson, from the authorities of Alabama, comes out and states plainly his true reason for sheltering these thieves. It exclaimes, in heart-rending tones, pitiable to hear, Carson and Cowles are Republithe Alabama Legislature, and if they were assested and convicted of their crimes, the Republican representation in that body would be diminished! Yes, because forsooth, the punishment of two notorious furtives, would injure the Republican party, they shall go unwhipped of justice! There need be no niggardly restraint, but in some way the first esson for childhood should be that of earning its pleasures. To get whatever it craves as soon as it asks for it, is the worst training a child can have.

Altitude Fascination.

Jumping from points of elevation is fashion of suicide. To stand on an elevated site exercises a singular fascination, over some people, leading them to jump into the air. It causes others to sweat and tremble with fear. Last summer I talked with the guar-Strasburg on this subject, and he informed me that few visitors were free from the feeling of fright on reaching the first terrace, which is of great altitude, and that it was so pronounced not free from a vague dread in looking out over the immense reach of landscape which this view takes in, although there was no danger, the mined to overcome his fright, and
