Matters Across the Waters.

SAN FRANCISCO, June, 7 .- The steamer Coleman, from Austria, reports that an American whaler rescued a gang of Fenians from Western Austria. The colonial steamer Gingette, has been armed and ordered in pursuit.

VIENNA, June 7.- In consequence of the remonstrance of the powers, all danger of a breach of the peace by Ser-yia, has been removed for the present. Paris, June 7 .- The Sultan's proposition of a six week's armistice, is subject to the movements necessary to maintain a concentration of troops and the revictualing of Nicsic.

BERLIN, June 7 .- Prince Harson, son of the Khedive of Egypt, has resigned his commission in the Prussian army and gene to Egypt, where he will be Minister of War.

Paris, June 7.—Estefette reports the Russian army marching to the frontier. When it arrives at Ruth, Servia will commence hostilities.

NEW YORK, June 7.-Intelligence reached here, yesterday of the escape of Fenian prisoners confined in West. ern Australia. It seems the plan for their escape was organized here where the necessary money was raised and an agent sent out to manage the affair. The escape is stated to have been affected in an American ship. There were only seven men in actual confinement, but there were nine others living in Western Australia on tickets of which verified Mr. Hunton's represen-to the Times says the united efforts of the powers might still succeed in makwas concluded with the insurgents. Prince Gortschokoff's recent telegram, cautioning Prince Milan, of Servia, seems to be without effect.

Istok, the organ of the Servian Cabinet, declares that war is unavoidable now that Turkey has triumphed and the programme of the Northers powers has been rejected. The official Russian Juralide says the insurgents are not likely to accept an armistice.

Paris, June 7 .- The health of M Casimer Berier is improving. The state of George Sands' health is precarious. LONDON, June 7 .- The King of Greece, who was sick at Copenhagen with a severe attack of gastric fever, has recovered.

Queen Dowager Josephine, of Sweden, is dead.

Lord Northbrook, late Governor General of India, has been created an Earl.

LONDON, June 7.- Special dispatches from Berlin to the Standard and Tele graph, say that considerable uneasiness has been created there by the sudden return of Prince Bismarck from Laurenberg from protracted conference with the Emperor. The unessiness is increased by the announcement that the Emperor's departure for Ems, has been postponed. The Standard's special says rumor connects these events with certain exaggerated claims made on Germany for support by Russia in her Eastern policy, which Prince Bismarck, it is reported, is not inclined to sanction. The Post prints extracts from the Cologne Gazette and Berlin Tribune, deprecating too close adherence to the yiews of Russia.

RAGUSA, June 7,-Intelligence reciev ed here from Sclavenic sources, states that Prince Karageoraic's legion de feated the Turks in the vicinity of Carkoake, in Bosnia, on the 3rd of June, killing 160 men. On the following day, 1,300 Turks capitulated. Many insurgents have petitioned Austria to grant them an asylum, alleging that of starvation.

WASHINGTON.

Proceedings in Congress and Committees.

WASHINGTON, June 7,-In the Senate, the resolution of Sherman, proposing a common unit of money and accounts between the United States and Great Britian was discussed during the morning hour. In the sub-committee, Mr. Blaine and Mr. Knott are making explanations in the committee room. They have no bearing on the questions

In the sub-Judiciary Committee, ex-Senator Rice testified that some shares in the Little Rock Rallroad were assigned to him-he did not know by whom-that he might become a director. He had no knowledge of any transactions in reference to the Pacific Railroad receiving subsidies from the government. Nathaniel S Howe late Commissioner of the Little Rock Road, knew nothing of the bonds that went to the Union Pacific Road. Quite a uumber of statements were made, leave. Whether all escaped or not, is tation in the House. The history of the telegram seems to be, that Mr. Rangoon, June 7 .- Messrs Grosvenor | Knott found it at his house. It was and Baber will start for Simla imme- headed "London." When Mr. Knott came to the capitol he showed it to LONDON, June 7.—A Vienna dispatch Judge Lynde and Mr. McMahon and others. Before and after the receipt of the dispatch. Knott and Hunton ing Servia respect an armistice if one had made ineffectual efforts to obtain Caldwell's address. Judge Lynde advised Knott that the dispatch had a suspicious look, and was not evidence. It was Knott's intentions to submit it A Berlin dispatch to the Times says; to the Judiciary Committee, to dispose of it as they pleased, but exciting eyents had prevented it. There were many fierce looks exchanged, and nothing but Mr. Hunton's cool manner of enforcing the rules and decorum of

will be discussed to-night. SENATE. - The merchants of Charleston and Nashyille petition for the repeal of the bankrupt act. The District Committee reported adversely on the bill to incorporate a Nation Surgical Institute. Gordon presented a petition of planters and others, of Savannah, Ga., against the passage of the bill to carry the Hawaiian treaty into effect. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. Morry's resolution to inquire into the issue of bonds, predicated on conditional grants of lands to railroads in Indian Territory, was referred to the Committee on Railroads. Sherman's concerrent resolutions, proposing a common unit of money for the United States and Great Britian, passed. The Executive, Leg. islative and Judicial Appropriation Bill, passed, and goes to the House for concurrence; vote 33 to 7, Messrs. Barnum, Cockrell, Eaton, McCreery, Macy, Stevenson and Whyte voting in the negative. The Fortification Appropriation Bill passed without amendment and goes to the President. It appropriates $315,000. The estimates were for 31 million. The consideration of Sherman's silver bill was resumed. Adjourned;

sul to Cariff.

The Judiciary Committee commenced the examination of T A Green. Mr Blaine desired that J B Stewart be summoned. Green commenced the history of the manner in which J B Stewart distributed over a quarter of a million worth of bonds, but was interrupted by the personal explanations.

Gen Harry Heth to be Southern Centennial Commander.

CHARLESTON, June 7 .- The Southern commands of the Centennial Legion to-day, unanimously confirmed their increasing easterly winds, warmer compliment to the State of Virginia partly cloudy weather will prevail, and by electing Gen Harry Heth, as field possibly occasional local storms with officer in place of Gen Fitzhugh Lee, who was compelled by engagements to decline.

A friend writing us from Washington City last week says; "I think Hancock's chances for the nomination at St. Louis are superior to those of any other aspirant just at this time, and, here, he is considered the most available man."-Blue Ridge Blade.

THE WITNESS AGAINST MR. KERR .-The New York Herald gives a terrible account of Lewis Harney, the witness against Speaker Kerr. It says he has been th associate of the lowest character, the brother-in-law of a bank robber and a sneak-thief, and indicates that these and other matters to his great discredit will be brought before the committee in investigating the charge against Speaker Kerr.

Antoinette Polk, a daughter of the soldier bishop, is the belle par excellence of Roman society this winter. She unites in herself as many attractions wealth sufficient for worldly needs, and the beauty of perfect features, and grand classic style, she has the world at her feet, and it is rumored that the Prince Doris is among her suitors.
