Essayist Dead—Boat Capsized—Curious Reports About Royalty—Reward Offered, &c., &c.

LONDON, June 11.—The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says E P Hingston, the English essayist, died on Friday.

Same correspondent says it is reported that Albert Grant has sold his newspaper, the Echo.

A pleasure boat was capsized at East Bourne and 17 persons were drowned.

A telegram from Calcutta indicates that in the enquiry into the murder of Margary Fulton it is not likely the report will be published while the present complications exist.

La France, a Paris paper hostile to Turkey, publishes a dispatch that the elder son and mother of the late Sultan are murdered.

The Post's Berlin dispatch says the insurgent leaders have accepted an armistice and appointed Wesseltzke to arrange guarantees with Northern powers.

A Vienna special to the Daily News reports that the Turkish government of Herzegovina has offered 2,000 florins reward for the capture of the Russian organizer of the insurgent forces.

The Faufulla newspaper of Rome intimates that the temporary retirement of Prince Gortschakoff is probable.

WASHINGTON.

Blaine Improving—Measures for His Comfort—The House Won't Adjourn for the Cincinnati Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Mr. Blaine slept well during the night and continues to improve. Repes are stretched across the streets leading to his residence to prevent his being disturbed by the noise of passing vehicles, and men are stationed at the door who deny admission to all persons.

In the Senate, a motion to adjourn over to Thursday next on account of the Cincinnati Convention, was defeated; yeas 16, nays 23.

Proceedings regarding Blaine, both in the House and Committee, were postponed on account of his sickness. The House is very thin. The Republican benches were nearly vacant. At one o'clock, Mr. Blaine was still improving, and had freely taken nourishment. The doctors say he will recover and be as strong as ever.

Bristow Disavows Saying it, and Blaine Disavows Believing that He Said it—Hill's Petition—Army Appropriation—Triumphant Exoneration of Speaker Kerr—Colored Catholic Church Dedicated—Kerr and Blaine Both Better, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Geo Dennison publishes the details of an interview, Saturday evening, sought by Bristow with Blaine, for the purpose of disavowing that Bristow had instigated the investigation. Blaine disavowed having entertained any belief in the rumors to this effect.

SENATE.—The President vetoed the bill for the relief of Michael W Brock, late private of Co. D, 10th Tennessee Volunteers.

Merrimon presented a petition of D H Hill, for the removal of his disabilities. A quorum was obtained with difficulty, and the Senate adjourned to Thursday.

HOUSE.—The Army Appropriation Bill was reported. It appropriates $23,000,000, which is $10,000,000 less than the estimate. The joint resolution proposing to modify the treaty with China, giving each government reciprocal control of immigration, except for commercial pursuits, passed. Clymer, of Pennsylvania, from the Committee on Expenditures in the War Department made a report in the case of the charge against Speaker Kerr. The report states that after a full inquiry into the facts, and after a thorough examination of Laurence Harney, the only witness making the charge, also of Augustus B Green and divers other witnesses, it appears that in 1866, while a member of the House of Representatives of the 39th Congress, Mr Kerr did, in the exercise of his right of privilege, nominate Green for an appointment in the regular army. The Committee, however, had found no difficulty in reaching the conclusion that the charge as to the payment of money to Mr Kerr, was unqualifiedly false, and that Mr Kerr stood fully exonerated from all implication affecting his personal honor or official integrity. The committee had found nothing in the whole progress of the investigation to impair or detract from the well established reputation of Mr Kerr for unquestioned personal integrity and unsullied purity. Clymer remarked that the conclusion reached was the unanimous judgment, not only of the committee but of the House and the country.

Danford, of Ohio, a Republican member of the committee, said that it afforded him real pleasure to be able to subscribe to the report, not because of the unfortunate illness of Mr Kerr, but because it was an act of simple justice to that gentleman. He spoke of the unfortunate circumstance that pressed itself against the threshold of the inquiry as to Mr Kerr, a Democrat from Indiana, giving the nomination to Green, a Republican from New York, and said that had it not been for that circumstance, the committee would not have deemed it worth while to even enter on the investigation. He was happy to say, however, that he had no idea that so far as the corruption of Mr Kerr was concerned, there was a single scintilla of truth in Harney's testimony; it was a falsehood taken advantage of by a bad man for the purpose of attempting to blacken the reputation of a good man. [Applause.] He spoke of these investigations used by bad men like Harney, as being the very worst instrument that can be used in a country like this. The testimony of Harney was but the natural outgrowth of these investigations. Committees of the House had been seen this session, mousing around and dragging the public life and private correspondence of citizens into publicity, publishing even the bank accounts of officials without charges and without specifications. Mr. Danforth continued, at great length, and concluded: "I am glad here to be able from the heart to say that whatever shadow this momentary imputation might have cast on the days of the distinguished gentleman, the Speaker of this House, 'days which come of time are numbered already.' It is the unanimous voice of the people, through their Representatives that the acts of a long and honorable life has protected him from the envenomed shaft of malice, that the cloud is removed and that if his sun goes down it shall go down in full honor and in the esteem of all honorable men of whatever class or political feeling." [Applause on both sides of the House.]

Garfield, of Ohio, suggested that the vote on the report should be taken by the members rising. The suggestion was adopted, and all the members, 210 in number, rose in the affirmative; none in the negative. Garfield then asked that it be entered on the record that the report was adopted unanimously. The Speaker pro tem directed the clerk to let it be recorded on the record as the unanimous vote of the House.

Leavenworth, of Ohio, suggested as highly proper, that the House should furnish to Mr. Kerr, in the most formal manner, a certified copy of the proceedings. The clerk was instructed accordingly. Adjourned.

St. Augustine's Church, colored Catholic, was dedicated yesterday. Arch Bishop Bayley, of Baltimore, conducted the ceremonies. Sixteen acolytes, all colored, attended within the sanctuary.

The 10th of September has been fixed for the trial of the safe burglary conspirators.

Mr. Kerr received visitors to-day, and ate a hearty dinner. The hourly bulletins have ceased. Blaine continues to improve, and his appetite is good.

NEW YORK.

Railroad Rates to the West.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Erie, Pennsylvania Central, New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Grand Trunk Railroads, to-day reduced rates for West bound freight from 75 cents to 25 cents per 100 pounds to Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Buffalo, and proportionate reduction to all Western points. Rates, both coast and West bound, for freight and passengers, are now cut terribly. The Grand Trunk and Baltimore & Ohio lines claim differential rates. The prospect is that the war will be long and bitter.

The Prospects of Candidates Unchanged—The North Carolina Delegation Arrived.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Blaine's sickness has caused great anxiety, and appears to have worked against him, in winning the doubtful delegates to his support. There seems no break in the original strength of the several parties, or change in the figures for the first ballot or progress in the combinations.

The North Carolina delegation has arrived at the Grand Hotel.

DEATH OF A THIRTY-SIX-YEAR-OLD HORSE.—Doc, the property and faithful servant of James F. Stewart, of Greene township, Clarke county, Ohio, died June 1. He was purchased by Mr. Stewart in the spring of 1844, thirty-two years ago; he was four years old at that time, making him thirty-six years old this spring. Doc was a dark dapple dun with black legs, he was of medium size, fine form, good style, and an eye that did not seem to dim with age, spirited, yet of a docile position, and had few equals in speed and strength. This remarkable horse never was sick an hour, never missed a feed for loss of appetite, never had a puff or blemish on his limbs, was supple and had good use of himself always. Mr. Stewart retired him several years ago with a life pension, of good pasture in summer and warm stable with abundant food in winter, and well he deserved this humane treatment from his kind and grateful master.

Egyptian women have the prettiest hands in the world, and both American and Parisian ladies are noted for the beauty of their hands and feet. The latter, who are exquisitely nice in every detail regarding the adornment of their person, give particular attention to their fingers and nails. Those who are able to afford it have a person called a manicure prepare their hands every day. The process takes something like half an hour, and the result gives the soft skin, handsome almond-shaped nails, and the white half moon which is outlined on the lower part of the nail next to the skin. From twelve to thirty dollars a month is earned by an experienced manicure, and about six hundred persons, both men and women, are said to follow that profession in Paris alone.

Some old fraud says, "Get up with the sun if you want to be healthy and wise." It is easy enough to follow this advice in the winter, when the sun acts sensibly, and doesn't get up until seven o'clock; but when he commences to get up at four o'clock, we have observed that the wisest men give him about two hours start, and let their wives accumulate health and wisdom.

MAYOR'S OFFICE. Charlotte, N. C., June 12, 1876.

AS the heat of Summer is upon us, causing the rapid decomposition of animal and vegetable matter, which eliminates elements obnoxious to health and life, and as the City Charter creates an official duty to cause all alleys, lots, cellars, privies, stables, and other places of like character to be cleaned and purified at the expense of the owner or occupier, and many lots are represented to be in bad condition, all citizens are respectfully requested to so clean and purify their respective lots within the next five days, that they may avoid being reported for maintaining, escape the penalty therefor, and have the same removed at their expense.

And all persons, including railroad corporations, are requested to remove all stagnant water from their premises, and to destroy the Scotch thistles, and all sorts of trees of Paradise, on their respective lots or in the streets. WM JOHNSTON, Mayor.

Removal.

MISS LOU STEWART, has removed her business to the house on Tryon Street, near the Charlotte Hotel, lately occupied by Dr Higgins, where she will continue to receive and work over, in the most fashionable styles, all old hair, braids, combings, &c.
