CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

Blaine Stock Weakening—No Ballot Yet—Union of Opposition to Him—The Spencer Delegation Excluded—Few Spectators—Woman Suffragists on the Floor—A Bogus Vote Reported—Rules for the Ballot.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—The wires are so occupied with specials that the Cincinnati gossip did not reach here until early this morning. The summary compiled at 2 o'clock is as follows: Blaine has weakened, but the defections from him do not centre on any particular candidate...

CINCINNATI, June 15.—The Committee on Credentials had a considerable discussion before excluding the Spencer delegation from Alabama. The vote was 24 to 17. Bristow's friends are rejoicing over this gain of 20 votes.

Geo. T. Hoar, of Massachusetts, presented a memorial of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, and moved that Mrs. Saylor I. Spencer be heard ten minutes. [Applause.] At the conclusion of her speech the Committee on Rules reported.

The Atlantic & Pacific Company have the first ballot bulletined as follows: Conkling 135, Blaine 281, Bristow 140, Morton 121, Hayes 50, Hart-rant 52. This must be bogus, as the Western Union have a wire running into the Convention hall and report no ballot yet.

By the rules, the States were called alphabetically; next the Territories and the District of Columbia. The Territories have 2 votes. The vote of each delegation will be reported by its chairman. The report on credentials will be disposed of before the Platform Committee report.

FOREIGN.

Letter From Jeff Davis—Continued Riots in Antwerp—Winslow Released—Failures in Great Britain.

LONDON, June 15.—A letter from Jefferson Davis was read at a meeting at the residence of Earl Shrewsbury, for the furtherance of Church and University education in the Southern States.

The disturbances have been renewed at Antwerp. Thousands are marching through the streets, crying: "Down with the ministry!" The Catholic institute has been wrecked. There are disturbances at Ghent. M. Relande & Co., importers of provisions, Havana, have failed. Liabilities half a million in the Island.

Justice Sir John Miller has granted an order for the release of Winslow. He will be liberated this afternoon. The failures are announced of Malcome, Sons & Co., Belfast, Port, Law and Waterford, Ireland, linen manufacturers; liabilities a million, to a million and a half pound; Johnson, Farie & Co., yarn merchants, of Glasgow, Scotland; liabilities, 80,000 pounds; Henry Garbutt, colliery, Darlington; liabilities, 170,000 pounds.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, June 15. For the South Atlantic and Eastern Gulf States, falling followed by rising barometer, stationary temperatures, South and East winds, cloudy weather and local rains, possibly followed by westerly winds and clearing weather.

CINCINNATI.

No Ballotting Until To-Day—Jewell, Morton, Bristow, Blaine and Conkling, Put in Nomination—Immense Enthusiasm Over Blaine's Name—The Platform Adopted—Inclination Toward Specie—Hot Speech from Ingersoll.

CINCINNATI, June 15.—There was a minority report in the Alabama contest; the vote on the adoption of the minority report was yeas 354, nays 375—rejected. Hawley, of Connecticut, from the Committee on resolutions, reported. The report opened with congratulations on the part of Republican party, since under Providence it was called upon to purge the country of slavery and establish the government by the people for the people.

CINCINNATI, June 15.—The Committee on Credentials had a considerable discussion before excluding the Spencer delegation from Alabama. The vote was 24 to 17. Bristow's friends are rejoicing over this gain of 20 votes.

Davis, of Texas, from the committee on resolutions, reported a substitute resolution declaring distinctly that there shall be no further postponement of specie resumption beyond the date already fixed by law for such resumption. He thought the resolution of the committee too indefinite, and in effect only retimed the question involved to the domain of promise.

Hawley replied that he thought that in declaring the principles to govern a great party during four years, it was better to confine ourselves to declaring the fundamental principles without going down to the specific details, but leaving the latter to be adjusted in accordance with events. [Applause.] When he said "resumption at the earliest practicable moment," he meant it. [Applause.]

The resolution was voted down. The resolution reported was adopted and the whole platform was also adopted. The Chair announced that the next business was the nominations. A movement to adjourn was voted down. Kellogg, of Connecticut, nominated Marshall Jewell, and briefly stated his record.

R. W. Thompson, of Indiana, nominated Oliver P. Morton. He gave him a fine record and denied physical unfitness for position. [Great applause.] Pinchback seconded the nomination. Gen. Harlan nominated Bristow. [Great applause.] Judge Poland, of Vermont seconded the nomination. Curtis also seconded the nomination.

Richard H. Dana, of Massachusetts, also seconded the nomination. He knew no one so sure of carrying Massachusetts. [Applause] and hisses. Blaine was called up in a scene of the wildest enthusiasm, the delegates and spectators rising to their feet, waving hats, fans, cheering long and loud dying away only to be renewed, and closed with three cheers for Blaine.

Mr. Ingersoll, of Illinois, took the platform. He said he, too, was satisfied with the loyalty of Mr. Bristow, but if Massachusetts cannot carry any nominee of this Convention, he was not satisfied with the loyalty of Massachusetts. If they cannot carry it by 76,000, they better sell out Emanuel Hall for a Democratic hall, [applause] and remove the monument from Bunker Hill. He urged that the party demand now for President, a reformer after as before the election; a man of political estate, a man experienced, [applause] a man of integrity, one who knew enough to know that the national debt must be paid through the prosperity of the American people. That money must be made not by law but by labor. Nothing could be more effective and impressive than the speaker's statement of the requirements of the people, and the Republican party growing out of the necessities of the hour. Each sentence was forcibly epigrammatic, and elicited its round of applause, especially when he said the party demands a candidate of spotless purity, but does not demand that he shall present a certificate of character from the Confederate Congress.

Frye followed in support of the nomination of Maine's ideal son.

Mr. Woodford nominated Conkling. He presented the honored name of Roscoe Conkling. [Great applause.] He said: "Broad in culture, eloquent in debate, wise in counsel, fearless in leadership, true to the old Republican party as the needle to the pole, he needs neither defense or eulogy."

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Convention adjourned after the nominations, without proceeding to take a ballot.

A Convention of Southern colored men is to be held in Augusta, Ga., on the 20th of June, the purpose of which, as announced in a circular inviting attendance, is "to confirm a final departure from the republican party, with its loathsome corruption, and forever hereafter cast our vote for better men and a better party." It is not likely, however, that such a movement will gain much headway, for the present at least, as the republican managers may be expected to hold their colored forces well in hand throughout the South during the approaching campaign.

TEXAS PROGRESSING.—Who shall say that Texas is not progressing, when it is known that a bill providing that no man shall act as a jurymen, unless he can read and write the English language, has passed the Senate with but five dissenting votes. Let it pass both houses and be approved by the Governor. It isn't good republican radicalism, it is true, which puts the ignorant freedmen of the South not only on juries, but on the Bench, but it is common sense and decency, and that is enough.—Baltimore Sun.

Disraeli is writing a new novel, a continuation of "Lothair." In it, it is understood, Lothair and Corisande quarrel like cat and dog, and after being divorced from her and married in rapid succession to several American widows, Fenian sympathizers, Pan-Hellenists, gypsies, countesses, &c., the hero goes to Constantinople, buys Turkey at auction from the executors of the late Abdul Aziz, and amid 1,200 wives finds peace at last.
