A Royal Death-The Late Turkish Murders-The Plague in Turkey.

LONDON, June 21.-Duke George, of Mecklenburg-Sterlitz, is dead.

The New Free Press asserts that there is no doubt that the mother of the late Sultan instigated Hassan to assassinate Anni Pasha.

Dr. E. D. Dickson, physician of the British embassy at Constantinople, writes to the Times from that city, under date of the 13th inst., as follows:

"Undoubtedly the disease which is prevailing in Mesopotamia, is the real plague. Since the beginning of June, with a rise of temperature to above 104 degrees, another character and type of the plague has been exhibited in a rapidly diminished number of attacks and deaths. The scourge will doubtless close entirely during the great heat of the Summer. During the month of May, the number of attacks at Bagdad was 2,099 and deaths 1,222."

The Kitchen Organ Indignant at Great Britain-The Prospects of the Indian Appropriation Bill-Morrill Nominated, Sure Enough-Tie in the Committee on the Repeal of the Resumption Act.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 21.-The National Republican discussing the extradition matters and the release of Winslow and others, says: "This conduct should be met with an indignant refusal to continue diplomatic relations with Great Britain until an ample apology for this insult is made and received."

The indications from last night's debate are that after striking out the clause of the Indian Appropriation Bill, transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department, the Senate will pass the House Bill.

Lot M Morrill was today nominated Secretary of the Treasury, and the Senate is in executive session on the nomination.

The Committee on Banking and Currency voted on the repeal of the Resumption Act in '70, and stood five to five, with Gibson, of Louisiana, absent.

The House is in Committee on the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

NEW YORK.

Meeting of the Managers of the New Missionary Society.

NEW YORK, June 21.-The first meeting of the Board of Managers of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, appointed at the Baltimore Conference, was held here yesterday.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President - Bishop E. S. Jones; Vice-Presidents - Bishops Scott, Simpson, Ames, Bowman, Harris, Foster, Wiley, Murrill, Andrews, Haven and Peck, and the Hon. Enos L. Fancher, the Rev. M. D. Crawford, James H. Taft, Oliver Hoyt, the Rev. D. Curry and H. M. Forrester; Honorary Secretaries - John P. Devellin, D. D. Recording Secretaries - Robert L. Dashed and John M. Reed, Treasurer - Reuben Nelson; Assistant Treasurer - Luke Hitchcock.

Fourteen standing committees were appointed. The Treasurer submitted a report showing a net indebtedness of $134,279, and said that by next March they would probably amount to $35,000. It was decided to refer the matter to the Finance Committee, and that six members be appointed by the chair to devise a plan to pay the debt.

Indian News-Pratt Not Resigned-Blaine to Rise-Real Estate Pool-Investigations - Denunciation of the Freedman's Bank-The Exchange of Money Bill Passed-Morrill Confirmed-Dispatches Delivered - Morrill Undetermined-Meeting of Bankers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.-Advices from Crook's command, June 15th, says that two hundred and fifty-six friendly Indians had reached Crook's camp. Gen. Gibbons lost a number of horses in attempting to cross the Yellow Stone River. The Indians stole the ponies of his Indian scouts. A fighting column, with Indian auxiliaries, 1,500 strong, has commenced a rapid march for the Sioux.

The report of the resignation of Commissioner Pratt is untrue. It is supposed that the government will appoint Blaine for the balance of Morrill's term, which expires on the 4th of March.

There is no progress in the conference on the Legislative Appropriations. Several meetings, have, been held. The clerk of the telegraph office at Philadelphia, examined the person who filed the "Favo" dispatch. He refused to give the name or address.

The investigations of the Real Estate Pool, it is said, show that the Sergeant-at-Arms and Captain of Police Blackford, of the last House, retained part of the salaries of employees. All the testimony before the Real Estate Pool Committee, connecting General Young, of Georgia, with the pool, was given by himself, from which it appears that some 18 months before the formation of the pool he gave Mr. Huntington some money to invest. After Huntington's death, Young received his money without interest. It had never been invested in his name or for his benefit. He knew nothing of the ring.

House.-In Committee, Stringer, of Pennsylvania, spoke in bitter denunciation of the managers of the Freedman's Bank. He showed that the negro depositors will lose two million dollars. Cook, of Georgia, addressed the House on the subject of grievances in the South, and in advocacy of refunding the cotton tax. Night session.

SENATE.-The President's Winslow message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. The Committee on Privileges and Elections, was directed to inquire what legislation is necessary to secure telegraph messages from seizure by unauthorized persons. The Committee on Indian Affairs reported House bill transferring the Indian Bureau, with the recommendation that it be postponed till December. Ingalls asked that the bill be laid on the table for the present; so ordered. The bill issuing ten million of silver for legal tenders, passed with the following amendments: Providing that the trade dollar shall not hereafter be a legal tender, and authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to limit the coinage thereof to such amount as he may deem sufficient to meet the export demand for the same.

Nomination: Lot M Morrill, Secretary of the Treasury. Confirmed. The Indian Appropriation Bill was resumed. The debate occupied several hours when a motion prevailed to take up House bill transferring the Bureau, 20 to 17. Recess for night session.

Heifer Robinson, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office, after the usual protest, delivered the originals of the three dispatches already testified to. The one signed "Scott," came to the office by Col. Scott's messenger. The dispatch telling "Favo" to telegraph the Judiciary Committee, was brought by a gentleman who replied when asked for his address, that it was not necessary. He paid $57 in gold for the message. When again asked for his address, he smilingly said "John Smith."

Morrill has not concluded to accept the Secretaryship of the Treasury. He thinks himself more useful where he is. He will in any event remain in the Senate until the pending appropriation bills pass.

The Bankers Convention met to-day at Willard's Hotel. G. F. Dorsey, President of the Citizens' National Bank of Piqua, Ohio, presided. The preamble sets forth that the depression in trade makes the present taxation on banks unbearable, and if not immediately repealed, must lead to the dissolution of a large number of institutions. It was resolved to appear before the Committees of Banking and Currency and Ways and Means, and that the President and Secretary of the Convention lay the whole matter before the committees.

MR. BRISTOW'S RESIGNATION. He Declines to Explain his Motives for Stepping Down and Out. [Special to the Baltimore Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 18.-Secretary Bristow formally resigned yesterday. He called upon the President and had a final talk with him. I called upon Bristow this morning at his house on K Street. The Secretary came down at once and showed an unusual acerbity in his manner, directly contradictory to his usual polite and genial manner. He was evidently very much disturbed and showed a sensitiveness to questioning that indicated that he was anything but pleased with the situation.

He said it was true, as reported, that he had resigned, and that was all he knew about it. He added that it would take effect next Tuesday. Being asked if he would be pleased to give the reasons governing this movement, he replied that it did not now concern the public; that they would care nothing for it, as he would soon no longer be a public man. He graciously added that if any one was heard inquiring as to his reasons, they might be informed that it was because he wanted to. He had nothing more to give. He said the newspapers would not tell the truth about it any way. Being informed that should he give a statement of facts in relation thereto that it would be published just as given he said: "Not so; it would be perverted." He added again: "I resign because I want to; because my business demands it, and I ought to. I would have resigned long since, but for the past five months could not do so without a political significance being attached to it that it did warrant." He was tired of public life. He was tired of public life. He was going to return to Louisville and practice law. Saying this, the amiable Secretary said he was going to dinner, and so closed the interview.
