MISSOURI.
The Present Outlook—Tilden's Supporters Confident—Old Politicians Look for a Repetition of Cincinnati With Hancock as the Dark Horse.
St. Louis, June 26.—The following is the count of votes for Tilden on the first ballot, as made by his friends at Tilden's headquarters: It might, from its source, be supposed to represent the extreme view of his hopes, but it omits several States that it is believed will give him some votes: Alabama 16; Arkansas 12; California 8; Colorado 6; Connecticut 6; Florida 3; Georgia 10; Illinois 32; Iowa 22; Kentucky 24; Maine 14; Massachusetts 26; Michigan 20; Minnesota 10; Mississippi 16; Missouri 14; Nebraska 6; Nevada 6; New Hampshire 10; New York 70; North Carolina 10; Oregon 6; Rhode Island 8; South Carolina 12; Texas 16; Vermont 10; Virginia 22; Wisconsin 18. Mr Tilden's opponents naturally take a different view of his count from almost every State, and deny him many that his friends claim. Their computation is as follows: Arkansas 12; California 8; Colorado 6; Connecticut 10; Illinois 10; Kentucky 12; Maine 14; Maryland 8; Minnesota 12; Mississippi 16; Missouri 10; Nebraska 6; Nevada 6; New Hampshire 10; New York 70; Massachusetts 26; Oregon 4; Rhode Island 6; Vermont 10; Virginia 10. The full vote, counting one vote for each delegate, is 728. The anti-Tilden men give the following as Hancock's vote: Alabama 20; California 4; Illinois 4; Indiana 30; Iowa 22; Kansas 10; Kentucky 12; Maryland 4; Michigan 22; Missouri 10; North Carolina 20; Oregon 21; Tennessee 24; Texas 10; Virginia 12; West Virginia 10; Wisconsin 10. Old and experienced politicians who are seldom wrong in their calculations, but whose judgment may be a little shaken now by the strong anti-Tilden feeling, say they expect in this Convention an exact repetition of that at Cincinnati. They look to see Gov Tilden lead in the balloting just as Mr Blaine did, and to see the prize go to General Hancock, just as it went to Gov Hayes.

WASHINGTON.

The Bounty Bill on the Calendar.
WASHINGTON, June 26.—In the Senate, Logan, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported with amendments, the House bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers who served in the late war for the Union. It was placed on the calendar.

FOREIGN.

Russia Encouraging War—England Trying to Restrain Milan—The Situation Critical—Preparations in View of War.
LONDON, June 26.—Russian representatives at Belgrade are privately encouraging the war party. England is endeavoring to restrain Prince Milan, who, however, considers his only choice revolution or war. Reports concerning Serbia are exceedingly contradictory. A Catalonia dispatch of Saturday, says: "Information from a usually well informed quarter, represents that Serbia will enter the field on Sunday and Montenegro on Monday." A dispatch dated Celestene, Sunday, pronounces the information received at Catalonia exaggerated, but admits that the situation is critical. The Southern frontier of Montenegro is blocked.

PARIS.

Paris, June 29.—The newspapers here say the powers are against exercising pressure at Belgrade to induce Serbia to abandon its warlike attitude.

RAGUSA.

RAGUSA, June 26.—Intelligence received here from Slavonic sources states that the Herzegovinian chiefs will assemble at Bagnani on the 27th of July, to agree with Montenegro about their operations in case Serbia commences hostilities against Turkey.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.
WASHINGTON, June 26.
For the South Atlantic States, stationary temperature and pressure, partly cloudy weather and southwest winds will prevail.

VIRGINIA.

The Mexican Veterans of Norfolk Will Go to Philadelphia on the Fourth of July.
NORFOLK, June 25.—The Norfolk and Portsmouth Mexican Veteran Association, sixty strong, commanded by Maj. Jas F Milligan, President of the Association, leave here Saturday next, for Baltimore, where they propose joining the Maryland delegation and in company with that organization, proceed to Philadelphia, to take part in the celebration, of the 4th.

WASHINGTON.

Grant Back—Commodore Gratton Dead—Present to Randall—The Army Changes—Congressional Proceedings, &c.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.—The President has returned. Commodore Edward Gratton is dead. The payment of the July interest commences on the 27th without rebate. The Democratic members of the House of Representatives presented Sam'l J Randall's fine set of silver today, in honor of the 27th anniversary of his marriage. The Committee on Conference make no progress whatever with the appropriation bill. The details of the army order recently telegraphed are as follows: First, Major Gen J M Schofield will relieve Col T H Ruger, Brevet Maj Gen as Superintendent of the U S Military Academy at West Point, New York by the first of September, 1876. 2d. Major Gen Irvin McDowell is assigned to the command of the military Division of the Pacific, in place of Maj Gen'l Schofield and will assume command July 1st. 3d. Military Division of the North is detached and the Department of the South is annexed to the Division of the Atlantic. The State of Alabama and the parts of Kentucky and Tennessee, lying West of the Tennessee River, will be embraced within the Department of the Gulf. Military Post on the Gulf within Florida, will be included within the Department of the South. 4th. Col Thomas Ruger, of the 18th Infantry, is assigned to the command of the Department of the South, according to his Brevet of Major General. The next senior General, Col P Packer, will temporarily have charge of the Department until the arrival of Col Ruger. SENATE.—The message of the President recommending the continuance of the appropriations into next year, was referred to the Appropriations Committee. The Army Appropriation Bill was taken up. The amendment proposed by the committee to strike out the eighth section to re-organize the army, reducing pay, &c., was agreed to; yeas 24, nays 18. Mr. Mazy voting with the Republicans in the affirmative. The bill passed. Executive session. Adjourned. HOUSE.—Saylor in the chair. A number of bills were introduced and referred. The Conference Committee on the Legislative Appropriation Bill, reported unable to agree several; efforts to get a vote on the repeal of the re-emption act, failed. Sampson moved to suspend the rules and pass the joint resolution suggested by the President in his message of last week, to continue the appropriations for the next fiscal year on the same basis as the appropriation for the fiscal year about to expire. The motion was rejected, yeas 57, nays 112—party vote. Smalls, of South Carolina, offered a resolution in regard to the government paying rent for the use of the Citadel property in Charleston. Adopted. Adjourned.

Hendrick's Men More Confident—Hunting One Stronger Than Tilden—Tilden Men Sangstine—Expressions From States—North Carolina Talks Right—The Pacific Slope Wants a Chinese Plank, &c.
St. Louis, June 26.—Soft money Democrats elect Richard Schell of New York, President. At a meeting held to determine a course of action, 21 States were represented. Tom Ewing of Ohio was the most prominent speaker. They will ask a resolution from the Convention calling for repeal of the re-emption act. The Hendricks men feel more confident. Gen Manson who is managing for Hendricks has assurances of support from a State not yet counted. The ballot makes decided gains for Hendricks. A band is parading the streets. Anti-Tilden leaders are seeking somebody strong enough to carry Ohio, Indiana and New York. There was a conference at the parlor of the Southern Hotel by delegates. The delegations opposed to Tilden were addressed by Roger A Pryor, Jno Kelly and others. The object was to see what could be done. They report a sufficient strength to beat Tilden, but indications are that Louisiana, Massachusetts and Wisconsin will vote solid for Tilden—an important gain. The Tilden managers express increasing confidence and ultimate success in spite of Tammany. It is now believed that the two thirds rule will stand, none of the managers seem to have courage to attack it. The Louisiana delegation elected Gov R C Wickliffe, Chairman. They express themselves partially in favor of Tilden. The Michigan delegation is solid for Tilden. Maryland strongly prefers Bayard. North Carolina favors no particular man. They come here to follow not to lead. Will support any man who seems best able to carry the party to victory. This feeling is entertained by most Southern delegations. Cornell Jewett who represents the Independents published an address in the "Evening Dispatch," advocating a promise on the financial question. He favors a Southern man for Vice President and a postponement of the financial plank until after the nomination. Jewett represents the Peter Cooper ticket and states with authority that it will be withdrawn if the Democrats favor greenbacks. Several State delegations met and organized this morning. Among them the following: Pennsylvania, W A Wallace, Chairman; The unit question was discussed by this delegation, but nothing was done. A majority, however, seems to favor carrying out the instructions of their State Convention. California, J P Hager, Chairman. This delegation will move for an emphatic expression on the Chinese question. They say they are for the whole Pacific slope for the Democracy if they can get from the Convention an acknowledgment that their people are right on this subject. No action was taken regarding how this delegation would vote, but it is understood that a majority are for Tilden and the vote will probably be cast as a unit. North Carolina, W T Dorich, Chairman. Although the matter was talked about, no action was taken as to the vote of this State. The Oregon delegation stands on the same ground as California on the Chinese question. The Alabama delegation is divided, and they have decided to vote as they please. They refuse to give any definite information as to their preferences. Indiana, Jno T Williams is Chairman; Georgia, Gov James M Smith, Chairman.
