A Batch of News About the Eastern War.

ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—The Egyptian troops are starting for Turkey. It is rumored that 12,000 men are under orders for the Turkish service.

LONDON, July 11.—It is reported that Tchernajeff is retreating to the Serbian frontier. His army is demoralized and Tchernajeff has been dismissed.

A party of newspaper correspondents on the frontier, taken for spies, have been fired on by the Servians. One was killed and two wounded. Among them was a representative of a British journal.

BERLIN, July 11.—The rate of discount at the Imperial Bank has been raised to 4 per cent.

LONDON, July 11.—The Paris correspondent of the News reviewing the Eastern situation says: It is the opinion of competent men that nothing decisive has yet occurred. All that is now transpiring must be considered as a mere series of attempts of the Servians to join the Montenegrans, and such junction, when effected, will be the real beginning of the war.

A Ragusa special to the Times says the Montenegrin operations were delayed in order to give the insurgents time to re-organize and arm. This work being completed, the Montenegrans resumed the pursuit of the Turkish army in Herzegovina.

PARIS, July 11.—Several journals here publish intelligence that the Turks have captured Zaitchar and that the Serbian General Tchernajeff is hemmed in between two Turkish armies, marching from Weddin and Sophia. Intelligence received at Gemlin, States, that the position of the Serbian General Antich, near Nonibazar, is threatened.

It is stated that the Turks have 40,000 men in and around Nessa. Fresh forces are being constantly dispatched from Constantinople. These troops are full of enthusiasm and fanaticism. Guns and stores of all kinds, continue to be sent to the frontier. The fanatical feelings of the Turks against the Servians are fully aroused, and they must expect no mercy if beaten. The Servians are drawing all their forces to the Acherinajeff's army. The latest reports say that fighting is now going on around Nissa. There are rumors of an attack on Belgrade by the Turkish flotilla. During July and August, the Danubian navigation company use boats drawing only three feet of water, and with these the passage is dangerous. There is no chance for a Turkish coup de main with a flotilla. A conflict between Austria and Russia is apprehended, growing out of Andrassey's hatred of the Slavics.

Turkish authorities pronounce the war news, unless officially furnished, bogus, or at all events incorrect. The government has had no advices to furnish within two days.

Death from Heat—Jewell Asked to Resign—Rumors of Taft's Resignation Because of Dyer's Removal.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—There were 4 deaths here yesterday from heat; 42 in New York, 14 in Baltimore.

Recently Post Master General Jewell authorized the statement that he had no other expectations than to remain in office until the Fourth of March.

Yesterday the Post Master General called on the President on business and was informed that his resignation would be acceptable. He immediately wrote it.

The Senate proceeded with the impeachment trial to-day, immediately after being called to order.

It is reported that Taft has resigned because Grant removed District Attorney Dyer, of Missouri, without consulting the Attorney General.

Judge J. N. Tyner, now Second Assistant Post Master General, will succeed Jewell.

Blaine Better—His Investigation Postponed—Taft Not to Resign—Pratt Resigned—Convention of Jews—Nominations—Jewell Just Kicked Out—Political Expediency the Cause of the Change.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Navy and Post Office Department was not represented in the Cabinet to-day.

Blaine's friends here have advised that his doctors hope for a speedy and permanent restoration.

The Judiciary Committee have decided to postpone the Blaine investigation until next Fall.

The President has had Judge Taft's concurrence in everything he has done. Taft has no intention of resigning.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Pratt has resigned.

Don Carlos has gone northward.

Don Esquino confirms the story about the forty million francs legacy.

The convention of Israelites assembled at Willard Hotel this morning. 100 delegates were present, a majority of whom arrived last night.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Loth, President of the Council. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Lessing, of Peoria.

Mr. L. Sberman, of Chicago, was appointed temporary chairman. Mr. Swartz, of Selma, temporary Secretary.

A committee on credentials and on permanent organization was appointed, and reported 73 congregations represented.

S. Wolfe, of this city, was elected President of the Convention, L. L. Levy, of Cincinnati, Secretary.

Committees were appointed and the Convention adjourned to 9 o'clock tomorrow.

SENATE.—There was no legislative or executive business. The impeachment occupied the day.

HOUSE.—No session.

Nominations: Jas N. Tyner, of Indiana, Post Master General; Jas Haffecker, District Attorney for Delaware, vice Fisher withdrawn; P. M. Ray, Jr., Postmaster at Monroe, La.

Jewell was before the Committee on Post Offices and Post Routes to-day. He had turned over all cases of violations of law in his department to the Attorney General for prosecution.

He was disappointed at the small result of the prosecutions, and regretted that there were so few convictions, but was powerless beyond turning the cases and the proper evidence over to the authorities.

Jewell would decline giving conversations with cabinet officers or reasons for removals, beyond general ones.

Question—Was your resignation forced or voluntary?

Answer—Well, the President notified me that my resignation would be accepted and I tendered it.

Were any charges preferred against you?

Answer—No, sir; not that I am aware of.

It has transpired that changes in the Cabinet were made for political reasons. It was supposed that it would strengthen the Republicans in Indiana to have a citizen of that State in the Cabinet, while nothing was to be gained in Connecticut by retaining Mr. Jewell. The change was in accordance with Morton's views.

Mr. Morton had a long interview with the President yesterday, and the new Post Master General had a conference with him to-day, after the Cabinet meeting.

Pratt's resignation as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, takes effect the first of August. The President had intimated to Pratt a desire to make a change in the Commissionership, hence the resignation.

The lines of Goods I propose offering at these REDUCED RATES are as follows: MILLINERY AND FANCY GOODS. All articles in that line; HATS, trimmed and untrimmed; PLUMES, FLOWERS, BOWS; Kid, Silk and Lisle Thread GLOVES, all to be sold at reductions of from 10 to 50 per cent.

At the same time we expect and intend to protect our regular customers who have running accounts with us by selling to them at the lowest possible rates. These Goods will be placed on Bargain Counters, one hundred and fifty feet in length, with the price marked on each article. As these sales may give rise to the belief that I intend closing business entirely, I hereby make this announcement, that I shall continue in business, but am only trying to reduce my hitherto very large volume.

WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT.—I am also desirous of reducing this Department, and will offer special inducements to cash buyers.

S. WITKOWSKY, SURVIVING PARTNER OF WITKOWSKY & KINTZ.
