A GREAT SAVING

CAN BE MADE!

PRICES REDUCED

TO SUIT THE TIMES!

Owing to the GREAT DEPRESSION in business, I am enabled to buy many Goods in my line at GREATLY REDUCED RATES.

THE REASON

WHY I Undersell all others, is simply because I buy in such large quantities for Cash, that I make in the buying what other dealers make in the selling.

The constant increase in my trade for the last ten months, is conclusive to me that the efforts I have made to please my customers, have been fully appreciated and have proved a great success.

Many persons entertain a wrong impression when they think they must pay high prices in order to get first-class Goods. I can assure them that all who favor me with their patronage, will find the best assortment of Goods, and guarantee every article to prove as represented and give entire satisfaction, or the Goods can be returned and the money refunded.

RESPECTFULLY,

M. KOPPEL.

Sherman Thinks He Managed Le Better Than it is Being Done Now—Changes in the Postal Service.

WASHINGTON, D C, July 22.—Gen. Sherman, in a letter to Tappan, one of the Indian Commissioners of 1868, calls attention to his frequent exertions in behalf of the Indians by their settlement on the reservations, notably in the settlement of the Navagoes in Arizona and the Cheyennes, Kiawas, Arapahoes and Comanches on the Canadian and Cinnamon Rivers, Indian Territory. The General states that he has never favored wanton destruction of human life in any instance, nor has that been the wish of any officer or soldier in the army. At the same time, he believes in compelling these Indians to remain upon the reservations set apart for them. He states that at no time were the Indians kept in more wholesome subjection or in better protection than during the brief period of the partial administration by the army.

All postal agents on the special or fast trains are withdrawn. The service in other respects remains as at present. Mr. Vail, Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, says the Department is not crippled as much as was generally supposed. From New York to St. Louis and the Southwest, the mail leaves at 5:55 p m, over the Pennsylvania Railroad. Mails from the Southwest will be forwarded East by way of Toledo and Cleveland, Ohio, and the Southwest will hardly notice the change. Except to New England, no changes are noted on the Southern Atlantic Coast or Middle South routes.

General News—Alternate Servian and Turkish Victories—The Sultan's Condition Serious and His Abdication Imminent—Professional Oarsmen Coming Over.

VERSAILLES, July 22.—The bill restoring to the State the sole right of conferring degrees, failed in the Senate by a vote of 144 to 139. It was a government measure. The rejection was effected by an alliance between the Bonapartists and the Right. The result produced a sensation.

BELGRADE, July 22.—The Turks are assuming the offensive everywhere. Attempting with ten battalions to drive General Olympic across the Drina, they were repulsed with heavy loss. The grounds was covered with Turkish dead. There is heavy fighting at Granada, East of Alexinitz. After ten hours fighting, the Turks were reinforced and, pushing the fight, were repulsed.

LONDON, July 22.—A despatch to the Standard from Constantinople says: "Notwithstanding anything you may read to the contrary, the Sultan's condition is very serious and his abdication is imminent."

Four well known Thames professional oarsmen are going to the United States to participate in the September regattas at Philadelphia; namely, Spencer, of Chelsea, Thomas, of Hammersmith, Higgins, of Shadwell, Green of Hammersmith.

The merchants' shipping bill has passed the House of Lords.

ROGUSA, July 22.—Intelligence from Slavonic sources announces that the Servians were defeated near Belina, Thursday. Mustapho D Jolaldin Pasha and Sablizki Pasha, with seven battalions of infantry, four companies of cavalry and eight guns, attacked the Servians in their entrenchments at Raaka before Belina, and after a four hours' sanguinary combat, the Servians fled. The Turks captured four guns and four small forts.

PARIS, July 22.—The Journal Des Debats publishes a special from Semter which affirms that the Servians were defeated before Belina and the Servian General Olympic's line of retreat cut off. The news of the Servian General Tchernajeff's defeat at Nissa, and his withdrawal to Alexinitz, is confirmed.

The Libs. Called on to Ratify Hayes—Inquest Report—Specie, Import and Death Statement.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The Liberal Republicans have called a meeting of their party at Saratoga, August 23d, to endorse Hayes.

The discontinuance of the fast mail costs 150 employees.

The jury empannelled to investigate the circumstances of the loss of life by the capsizing of the yacht Mohawk, today, after hearing the testimony of a number of witnesses, returned a verdict that the victims came to their death by drowning, but that Capt Rawlins is not guilty of any criminal negligence. He was discharged.

The specie shipments of the past week were $262,000; imports 110,651; weekly deaths 997; decrease 301 from last Saturday's report.

The Silver Bill not Signed—Nominations—Political Debate—Ethan Allen Acting Without Authority.

WASHINGTON, D C, July 22.—The Star says the President has not yet signed the Silver Bill. A Treasury official says the section of the bill authorizing the exchange of ten million silver for a like amount of legal tender notes, will be practically inoperative, from the fact that the Treasurer has not the silver on hand, and the amount being coined is only sufficient for the redemption of fractional currency.

Nominations; G F Talbot, of Maine, Solicitor of the Treasury, Thos S Brady, of Indiana, Second Assistant Post Master General; C C Sheats, of Alabama, Appraiser of Merchandise at Mobile; Col Benj Alford, Paymaster General, with the rank of Brigadier General, G Andrews, Attorney for the Middle District of Tennessee.

SENATE.—The bill appropriating $100,000 toward completing Washington Monument, passed. The political debate was renewed by Edmunds. As an illustration of character of debate Mr. Edmunds is quoted: "On one occasion it was necessary to recall the troops from the seat of war and encamp them on the public squares of New York City." Toward the conclusion of his speech, he read at length from Greeley's history of the rebellion, and argued that the Democracy of the North as a party organization, were in sympathy with the rebellion. The Senate at 9 o'clock is still in session.

A very prominent Liberal Republican, supposed to be the author of the resolution on which Ethan Allen bases his action, is quoted thus: "The announcement by Ethan Allen in which he commits the Liberal Republicans to the support of Hayes and Wheeler, published in the Tribune, of the 21st inst., was made without authorization. Allen's instructions under the resolution adopted by the Liberal Republican Committee at their meeting in New York were simply on a certain contingency to announce that the Liberal Republican organization would not hold a Convention to make a Presidential nomination; that contingency arose in the nominations made at St. Louis, and Allen went beyond the resolutions in his announcement."

Tervian Defeats—The Extradition Treaty—Explanation of the Thunderer Disaster, &c.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The Turkish Minister has received the following:

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 21.—Yesterday seven battalions of infantry, with 2,000 Mulesians, under command of Mustapha Djelaldin and Peick Pasha, attacked the enemy in the neighborhood of Belina. The Servians were entirely defeated, and abandoned to our victorious troops their entrenchments and four cannons. They retired to the Island at Heraza, where they are exposed to our artillery fire.

LONDON, July 22.—The special correspondent of the Daily News, at Prince Milan's headquarters, at Parakin, telegraphs by way of Semlin, July 19, as follows: "The affair of yesterday at Isror, means defeat to and confession of weakness on the part of the Servians. Knowing that the Turks had their column at Widdin, and could draw troops thence, it is a reasonable belief that Gen Lischjanin, attacked the Turks with all his available strength but why did he attack at all. It is hard to anticipate, the Turkish attack on Sailer, because he did not wait for the promised co-operation of General Tchernajeff, who either is delayed en route or has to fight his way on his own account. He may expect a speedy renewal of the Turkish attack on Sailer, and much gloom prevails here while the Turks continue thus to persistently assail the Eastern flank of the Servians, and while the Servians cannot do more than hold their own with difficulty, active operations in the Southwest where they were chiefly entrenched, are manifestly impossible. More fighting in the same quarter is momentarily expected." The News' Parakin specials are not worthy, because that paper openly sympathizes with the Slavonians.

LONDON, July 22.—The agent of the New York Associated Press here had an interview with Pierrepont yesterday in regard to the extradition treaty. Pierrepont's statements are negative. The inferences of the "Standard" from Earl Derby's language in the House of Lords, is that there is a prospect of negotiations for a renewal of the extradition treaty on a more satisfactory basis. He said nothing had occurred in any wise altering the situation. The "Times" has a dispatch from Plymouth, saying a few days before the disastrous trial trip the Thunderer, the boilers were tested by hydraulic pressure. This necessitated the wedging down of the safety and all other relief valves. It has been discovered that the wedges on the exploded boiler had never been removed. The communication valve was also closed, and no steam was able to escape even to the engines.

FLASHES.

St Louis, July 22.—Among a dozen heat deaths, within the last two days, was that of Capt James Lowry, ex-Mayor of Pittsburg.

NEW YORK, July 22.—2,500 packages of white and colored flannel blankets sold yesterday 25 per cent. lower than the auction sales of July 5th.
