PRICES REDUCED

TO SUIT THE TIMES!

Owing to the GREAT DEPRESSION in business, I am able to buy many Goods in my line at GREATLY

REDUCED RATES,

THE REASON

Why I undersell all others, is simply because I buy in such large quantities for cash, that I make in the buying what other dealers make in the selling.

The constant increase in my trade for the last ten months, is conclusive to me that the efforts I have made to please my customers, have been fully appreciated and have proved a great success.

Many persons entertain a wrong impression when they think they must pay high prices in order to get first-class Goods. I can assure them that all who favor me with their patronage, will find the best assortment of Goods, and guarantee every article to prove as represented and give entire satisfaction, or the Goods can be returned and the money refunded.

RESPECTFULLY,
M. KOPPEL.

The Turkish War.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—A special dispatch to the Standard, dated, Paratohin Aug 6th, says: "The fall of Saitchar is confirmed. The Turks who fought at Gurgusoratz advanced down the valley of Timok, driving the Servians before them. They carried the heights South of Saitchar commanding the town and pass of Viatarnia, and opened fire at 5 yesterday afternoon, and before sunset the Turks were in possession of the town. The roads from Saitchar, Gurgusoratz and Alexinat to Paratohin are crowded with Servians, who with their wives, children, cattle and household goods are flying before the invaders, spreading panic everywhere. The authorities show courage, and deny that Saitchar has fallen; they say that the peasants are terror stricken because the Turks fired some villages on their march. The country around Gurgusoratz is depopulated and the villages have been burned.

The Servians now build hopes on the expected attack of Tchernayeff on Nisch. The fact that the pick of the Serbian army has not yet been engaged, inspires confidence. Tchernayeff has fortified the passes of Klisura. The country is mountainous, and military operations are difficult.

A Vienna special reports the Servians throwing up fortifications at Banja. A guerilla warfare will be carried on in Southern and Eastern Serbia. Of the whole Serbian army, only 60,000 men are serviceable. Tchernayeff quarreled with Prince Milan and asked that his resignation be accepted unless he was given command in chief. The Prince yielded to his demand.

The Paris Spectateur says: "It is believed in German military circles that war will end in a fortnight. It is stated that Bismarck declared lately that Germany would not abandon Russia and if necessary would follow her into the battle-field.

The Courier Belgrade reports that the Serbian premier Beshigi had an interview with the British Consul at Belgrade, and negotiations for an armistice opened.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—An official journal announces that the question between France and the Porte arising out of the outrage committed at Salonica has been definitely settled.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 9.—The Independence Belge publishes a special dispatch from Paris, stating that the Turkish ambassador there denies the statement telegraphed to Letemps from Vienna, that the Porte will accept mediation of powers regarding Montenegro. The ambassador admitted that it was probably accurate that the Porte had declined to negotiate with Prince Milan considering that he had forfeited his rights, and ought to be dethroned; that the integrity of Serbia should be respected, but that the Porte would probably occupy Belgrade and Kragujevatz. The ambassador thought intervention of powers at this time would be premature.

RAGUSA, Aug. 9.—The correspondent of the Milan newspapers "Il Fungolo," was arrested yesterday in the Montenegrin camp at Drieno. An Italian has made representations to obtain his release, but as yet without effect.

WASHINGTON.

Florida—Conover's Chances—Who is Harrison?

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9.—Conover, Purman and Gleason with a large Florida delegation leave homeward today. They expect to effect a compromise on the gubernatorial question. The National Republican Executive Committee have had the matter under consideration, and have made suggestions which they say will undoubtedly be adopted, leaving the field free to Senator Conover.

SENATE.—During the morning hour were passed a number of bills on the calendar not objected to Mr. Windham from the Conference Committee on the Legislative Executive Judicial Appropriation Bill, reported that the Committee had been unable to agree, and addressed the Senate at length in regard to the condition of the bill, stating that the Committee had agreed upon every point except as to the compensation of the President of the United States, and of Representatives and Senators in Congress. He moved that the new Conference be authorized and expressed an opinion that the Committee would be able to agree finally. Conger and Carrall of Philadelphia, have concluded to make a monthly report on New Orleans Federal officers. They will be ready to report to-morrow.

The House Bill allowing steamships of the Pacific S. S. Company to carry the mail from San Francisco to China, passed.

The Harrison running for Governor of Indiana, is a cousin to the Harrison who kept the Blaine secret so long.

WASHINGTON.

The President Arrived—Speeches of Hoar and Hooker.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9.—The President is preparing a statement respecting Bluford Wilson's testimony. Lt. M T Marshall, engineer of corps is ordered to Chattanooga. Concrete is to be used for paving Pennsylvania Avenue.

Nomination: Henry W. Hawes, appraiser of merchandise, Louisville, Gen. Sherman returned. His views of recent peace proposition from friendly Indians is that hostiles do not desire peace and if they did, experience shows it is not safe to trust them. Dispatches from Gen Crook about due, will bring news of a desperate fight.

The House Bill giving $30 a month to the wife of Capt Yates, killed with Custer, passed. Political debate was resumed. Hoar, of Massachusetts, commenced by commenting on Mr. Lamar's speech, which he said, however covered in philosophy guise or however concealed by calmness or apparent impartiality was in full accord with the uniform tone of the Democratic press North and South in full accord with the uniform current of the speeches, that prevailed among that gentleman's colleagues whenever questions relating to the position of the South had arisen. That speech he said was a bitter invective against the government under which the gentleman lived, and of whose magnanimity that gentleman was a conspicuous instance. He trusted that the people of the North would read that speech and would judge by it of the expediency of committing the government to the Democratic party. In proof of the public corruption during the administration of Washington, John Adams and Jefferson, he cited some illustrious instances.

Hooker, of Mississippi, followed in a speech which was much praised. He said that he had yet to hear one man, woman or child in Mississippi express a desire that the condition of the colored race should again be changed. The people of the South accepted that result with the frankness and sincerity which results of the war. They had imperilled all to save their honor. They had lost all when the war ceased, but they were prepared to stand by the result, while Republican politicians who shouldered no musket and drew no sword wanted to keep alive animosity, the bloodshed, the rankling, and the bitter spirit of the war for the purpose stirring up animosity between the Southern whites and blacks for political purposes. They attempted to do so by sending emissaries there, who instead of knocking at the front door and asking acquaintance, stole in at the back gate, and at mid-night held their meetings with the colored race and told them they would again be thrown back into slavery if they voted the Democratic ticket, but now things were changing and the colored men were beginning to find out who were their friends, and they had helped to roll up a Democratic majority of 30,000 in Alabama. There was no friend of the colored race truer or more honest than their old masters.

Smalls, of South Carolina—That's not so.

Hooker—That is your opinion. I never expected that any white politician would acknowledge it.

Smalls—If you keep the klu klux back, not one will vote the Democratic ticket.

Hooker—They have voted it in my State and will do it again.

Smalls—If you withdraw the klu klux they will not.

Hooker—That is all nonsense and the country knows it is nonsense [Laughter.] He went on to say that there was no such thing as intimidation anywhere in Mississippi, and that in many counties of that State there were colored Democratic clubs. When any outrage did occur, every good citizen in the South reproached as clearly and as unequivocally and as boldly as any Northern man did. Gentlemen on the Republican side said there was no common feeling of humanity in the South. If that were so the mere question of interest would forbid Southern men taking their shot guns and shooting the colored men down. It was a slander on both races. If they were left alone as in Alabama and Georgia, the relations of the two races would adjust themselves on a just foundation. Any party which undertook to use one race for the oppression of the other, was guilty of an inhumanity fouler and more stigmatizing than any which were committed in any Southern community. [Applause.]

The Legislative Conference reported their inability to agree.

Randall offered a resolution for the employment of counsel to defend the Speaker and officers of the House in the suit brought against them by Hal-let Kilbourne; adopted. Adjourned.

FLASHES.

MONTGOMERY, Aug 9.—In forty counties Houston's majority is 27,101. The remaining 24 counties in 1874, gave him a majority of 17,000, and it is not thought that there will be any fall behind on that vote.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Col. D G Schofield & Co., stock brokers and members of the Pacific Board have failed for $700,000. It is feared the failure will involve many members of both Boards.

MILFORD, Pa., Aug. 9.—Molly Maguires' beat Chas Krause, sewing machine manufacturer, while driving through a piece of woods, and took his watch and money. Krause will probably die.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—B F Butler is a candidate of the 7th Massachusetts District. He places himself on the Republican platform.
