NEW YORK

Conference of Boards of Charities—

Gov. Tilden Delivers the Address of Welcome—Indian News—Scott

Lord Re-nominated.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The Conference of the Board of Charities, representing States and many cities, was held here to-day. Charles L. Hoyt, Secretary of the New York Board, presided. Gov.

Tilden made the address of welcome.

He paid an eloquent tribute to the objects which had brought the members of the boards together; reviewed the field of their labors; pointed out the "advances" made in social science, and declared that no more important object of investigation could be presented to the human mind. The application of scientific methods to study pauperism, crime, and insanity, would no doubt confer great benefactions upon the country. He warned them against extravagance and waste of resources in the practical work of charity; to which the principles of prudence, economy and frugality should be ever applied. In conclusion he bid them

God speed.

New York, Sept. 6.—A Bismarck D

T dispatch says: When Capt. Johnson took charge of the Standing Rocks agency, after the suspension of the Agent by Gen. Custer, he had a council with the chiefs and leading men, in all numbering about 100. The council was a strong one, and much loud and impatient talk indulged in on the part of the Indians, and each strong expression made against the whites, or in defiance of the troops, were received with loud grunts of approval, and "haw haws." Indian expression of unqualified endorsement. This was particularly the case with Grass, chief of the Black Feet, who has ever been considered friendly to the whites.

Capt. Johnson in a short address informed the Indians that the Great father had appointed him their agent to look after them and take care of them. He hoped they would get along well together and have no trouble; he would see that they received all that the Great Father sent them; but that he should issue rations or goods only to those Indians actually at the agency to receive them; and that in order to do so correctly, he should in a few days send some one into their camps to count them. They would be required to give up all Indians that came in from the hostiles, who must give up their arms and become prisoners.

He desired that all those Indians on the west side of the river should move up near the post, where they could be properly looked after. Grass intimated that their agent had been in the habit of telling them to go about as they pleased, but now they were obliged to go up and be treated as slaves, and intimated pretty plainly that they should continue doing as they had been in the past; that is, as they pleased.

Whether they will continue to assume this attitude, the future will decide. There is sufficient force to quell any outbreak, the Indians may make—with the prospect of three additional companies can. The only trouble would arise from a lack of a mounted force. Three companies of the 11th Infantry are now en route to the agency, making the garrison nine companies strong. The great cause of trouble at Standing Rock, is the fact that the Indians have been short of supplies every winter, and appropriations were so delayed this Summer, that they become absolutely destitute, and an Indian to be good must have a full stomach.

NOTE.—This agent was suspended, because it was believed he had secret interviews with King Eagle, one of the hostile chiefs; and subsequently issued 250 head of cattle, most of which has gone to the hostile camp.

ROME, Sept. 6.—Scott Lord, Democratic, was re-nominated for Congress yesterday.

Turko-Serbian War—Turks Crossed

the Morava—Heavy Fighting—

Fierce Battle in Montenegro.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Several trade failures in the provinces are announced to-day with liabilities aggregating $1,000,000.

No further news has been received from Tchernayeff, or the Serbian army has not had a word from Tchernayeff since the 1st day. It is reported, that a Turkish force is marching directly upon Kragujevatz, the former Serbian capital, where there are important government works.

An official Serbian dispatch dated yesterday evening, reports that the Turks have crossed the Morava between Aleksinat and Deligrado. It claims however, that the Serbian positions are maintained. Both Turkish and Serbian bulletins announce a battle on the other side of Novibazar.

The Serbians say the army of Zavar, under Col Antich repulsed the Turks last week.

Fireman Parades.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—The Fireman's parade, 80 companies in line, of whom the majority are visiting organizations.

Most of the visitors are fully equipped and have their apparatus with them.

The hose carriages and engines are handsomely decorated with flowers, flags and ribbons. The line is divided into 12 divisions, each headed by an chief, the last seven divisions being aided by companies of visiting com-
