Excitement Still Prevalent—Buckner Dead—Negro Torch Light Procession on Tapis—Combahee Strikers Quieted.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 8.—The city has been in a ferment all day. Last night Capt Hudrick with a squad of 30 police, succeeded by persistent efforts in dispersing the rioters.

All night colored militia and white clubs remained at their places of rendezvous under arms; but the night wore away without any serious collision.

By the intervention of Congressman Smalls, the Combahee strikers have been induced to disperse.

NEW YORK.

News from Terry—No Indians Yet—Troops likely to Encamp before Indians are Overtaken.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A despatch dated Terry's Camp, on Deer Creek, August 30th via Bismarck, Dakota Territory, Sept. 6, 1876, says: "Gen. Terry's command, after crossing the Yellow Stone on the afternoon of the 27th, made a short halt on the north bank, and then marched in a northerly direction about six miles by the light of the moon, making day camp about 6 o'clock."

On the morning of the 29th, the column marched toward the north, then toward the east, and finally southeast, making some seventeen and a half miles. So far, very little indications of the presence of Indians have been found, but it was hoped that on account of the presence of buffalo, we were about to fall in with the Indians.

MINNESOTA.

An Escaped Prisoner Tells about the Custer Massacre—Horrible Tortures—Sitting Bull Alive.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 8.—The Pioneer Press and Tribune publishes an interview with an old trapper named Redgely, who was for a long time in Yellowstone country, and claims to have witnessed the Custer massacre, being a prisoner in Sitting Bull's camp and seeing every movement of the troops.

The Indian camp was divided by a bluff, a point of which ran toward the Rosebud and in the direction of one of the available fords of the river to the camp. By this ford Custer followed their trail down to the water's edge.

Custer began the fight in a rayne near the ford and fully half of his command seemed to be unhorsed at the first fire. Then the soldiers retreated towards the hills in the rear and were shot down with astonishing rapidity.

So we are unable to state who they were. One was noticeable from his small size and gray hair and whiskers. Reno killed more Indians than Custer; 2 Captains believed to be Yates and Keoge, were the last to die.
