Russians at Tchernayeff's Headquarters—Turks Short of Provisions—Austria Mediating in favor of Montenegro.

LONDON, September 21.-The Standard's dispatch from Constantinople says: Early changes of Ministers is expected. The new Sultan is liberal, intelligent, and willing to support any measures for the welfare of his subjects. He desires to largely extend the freedom of the press, and prevent the purchase of slaves from Havana, and to promote the education of Turkish women. He meets much opposition.

A Times' Belgrade despatch says: Deligrade is becoming more Russian every hour. The neighborhood of Tcherneff's headquarters swarms with Russian officers. The proclamation of Prince Milan as King is regarded as purely a Russian movement, is avowedly intended as a defiance to Turkey, with the growing Russian power in the camp, and the antipathy to England is openly manifested.

A Times' Berlin despatch says: The tone of the Russian statesmen and journals is as war-like as possible.

PARIS, September 21.—The Le Temps to-day says: The Duc De Caus, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the Turkish ambassador had an interview yesterday. Communications were then exchanged, which seem to show that the chances for early peace are very substantial. There is evrey evidence of good will on all sides.

LONDON, September 21.—A Deligrade correspondent of the News telegraps that journal as follows: If the armistice were for a fortnight, I should not be surprised if starvation compelled the Turks to evacuate their position.

A despatch to the Daily Times from Vienna, says: The Austrian embassador at Constantinople is negotiating relative to the conditions of peace between the Porte and Montenegro, in the hope of obtaining a cession of the ports of Spitza to Montenegro.

NEW YORK.

Another Proof of Tilden's Innocence—The Situation in Servia—Prospects of Victory Growing Bright—Tweed and Sharkey to Come from Spain to the United States in the Same Ship.

NEW YORK, Sept 21.—A Madrid dispatch dated the 20th says: "Learning that the commander of the United States ship Franklin, homeward bound, consents to deliver Wm M Tweed to the American authorities, instead of sending him back to General Jovellar, the order for Tweed's departure from Cornna has been countermanded. The Franklin is now at Gibralter, and proceeds to Vigo to take Tweed, who is now closly confined in the fortress Castello del Castro, on board.

The Sun says arrangements have been made by the New York authorities for the return of Wm J Sharkey the condemned murderer, in the ship that is to bring Tweed to this city. The police of Espana for several weeks have been shadowing Sharkey, and all his movements are known to them.—He is fully aware that he is to be returned to the New York tombs, but thus far has been unable to escape from Spain.

At nine minutes to 3 on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24th, fifty thousand or more pounds of explosives packed in the mine beneath the rocks of hell gate will be fired. The tide will at that moment be at its highest, and it is thought the river is less crowded by vessels on their way out into the sound than at any other time,

Judge James P Smith, law clerk of Gov Tilden in 1862, has written a letter to Abraham S Hewitt, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, in reply to the charges of the New York Times, concerning Governor Tilden's income tax. He states that out of the thirteen pretended items of income, amounting to $110,000. Eleven items amounting to $84,000 are ficticious.—The other two amounting to about $26,000 are only partially true. He adds that for what income accrued prior to January, 1862, at which date the income tax went into operation. Gov Tilden was in nowise liable to be taxed. He declares after careful examination, the Times' statement to be false in every important particular.

The New United States four and a half per cent funded loan, is quoted at ½ to 1 per cent prime. A correspondent of the Times at Belgrade, in a dispatch to that paper, says he doubts whether it is possible to ignore Prince Milan's proclamation.

The priests and masses of the population ride with Gen Tchernayeff and the Russians.

The correspondent also says, Servia now believes in victory, and I must say this belief is not surprising. The Servian Morava army occupies a strong position, forming a semi-circle from Alexenatz and Deligrade around to Djunis and Vilixi. The Turkish army is more concentrated, but as it is in a valley, between the left and right of the Servian positions. The Turks would not have much chance of advancing further, and it is also asserted that the Turks lack food. Deserters assert that when changing their camping grounds, the Turks burn their tents. The Seryians believe that this is in consequence of the appearance of the plague.

OHIO.

Meeting of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Society.

CLEVELAND, September 21.—The Irish Catholic Benevolent Union of the United States, assembled in convention at Globe Theatre, in this city, yesterday. Hon. A. M. Kieleck, of Richmond, Va., was President, and the Right Rev. Bishop of Gillear, in behalf of the clergy and laity, extended a cordial welcome to the delegates, and urged them especially to clear whatever there seemed to be of a misunderstanding in regard to their previous utterances upon the public school question, as it related to Catholics.

DAKOTA.

Indians Obstinate.

FORT SULLY, Sept 21.—Bull Eagle when called upon to surrender his arms and ponies, sent word to General Buell that he would do no such thing. He wants all the soldiers to cross to the east bank, and keep their rations; the Indians will take care of themselves.

FLASHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 21—Sherman and Cameron have arrived.

BISMARCK, Sept 21-Terry and staff are now enroute for St. Paul. The dash of the Seventh Calvary and a batallion of the Sixth Infantry failed in preventing the Uncapapa Indians from reaching British Territory.

GEORGIA.

Quarantine Against Charleston.

AUGUSTA, Sept 21.—The Board of Health has established stringent 30 days quarantine against Charleston. Violations of the quarantine will be punished.

NOMINATIONS.

MARSHAL, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—Culbertson is nominated for Congress.

DES MOINES, IOWA. Sept. 21.—The Greenbackers nominated a full State ticket.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.

For the South Atlantic States, easterly winds, cooler, cloudy and rainy weather with rising followed by falling barometer will prevail.

WASHINGTON.

The Conspirators Ask for Troops for South Carolina—Their Disappointment Probable.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 21.—The Star says that the Attorney General did not leave for Ohio last evening as was intended, but will go this evening if possible. Senator Patterson of South Carolina, had an interview with him yesterday, in which he pictured the bad condition of affairs in South Carolina. He was of the opinion that the Republican party is in desperate straits in that State, and he fears for the safety of certain persons. He said he would call on the Attorney General again to-day in company with Gov Chamberlain and the U. S. District Attorney of South Carolina. It is their intentions, he said, if possible, to have a sufficient number of troops sent to South Carolina to secure the peace. Up to half past 2 o'clock this afternoon these gentlemen had not called on Judge Taft. In the absence of other prominent officials the question will probably be left to Judge Taft. He is of the opinion that there is no necessity for any more troops in the South, in addition to those already ordered there.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Tilden and Grant at the Centennial—Largest Day of the Season--Fatal Cattle Disease.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 21.-Admittance exceeds any previous day; one hundred thousand admissions up to noon, Grant is present. A delegation of 593 of New York police paraded on the ground and was followed by other New York delegations. Gov Tilden was at the New York State Building and had a reception. An immense multitude congregated in the vicinity and paid their respects to the Governor of New York.

MILFORD, Sept 21.—A strange and fatal disease has appeared among the cattle in Wayne county, causing great alarm. A singular tick bores deep into the flesh, inflamstion and death following in a few hours. Thirty head died at Hawley's to-day.

GEORGIA.

All Quiet in Aiken—Yellow Fever in Savannah and Charleston—Quarantine at Augusta.

SAVANNAH, Sept 21.—Total interments 21; yellow fever 16. Among the deaths to day was E W Marsh.

AUGUSTA, Sept 21.—There is nothing new from the riot in Aiken county. Federal troops are on the ground.—Armed bodies of whites and blacks are reported to have dispersed. There is no truth in the report that the train from Savannah was stopped by a body of armed negroes in consequence of a few sposadic cases of yellow fever at Charleston. The authorities of Augusta have established quarantine regulations against passengers from that city. Quarantine went into effect today.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Survivors of the Clyde Disaster.

WILMINGTON, Sept 21.—The survivors of the Clyde disaster reached here today. They give thrilling accounts of the fearful scene through which they passed, but no material facts in addition to those already telegraphed.

REPUBLICAN RULE!

DOWN TRODDEN SOUTH CAROLINA UNDER SCOTT. MOSES AND CHAMBERLAIN!

Senator Patterson, of South Carolina, stated not many months ago that there was still five years of good stealing in the State, which he misrepresents in the Senate of the United States. The following figures taken from the books of the State Auditor, in Columbia, and which have not been published hitherto, shows how well Senator Patterson's art has been carried on in our sister State, since the carpet baggers got into power. North Carolinians, read it and ponder over your fate, if by a neglect of duty in the coming election your old State should once more fall into the clutches of the harpies:

Year.	Printing.	Arms & Ammu'n	Organiza'n of Military	Legislative Expense
