Servian Won't Have Peace—Russia's Relations With Servia Denounced as Self-Interested—The Porte's Answer to the Powers—Another Massacre at Salonica.

MANCHESTER, Oct. 3.—John Bright, while addressing the reform club said: I thought a meeting of Parliament desirable, as it would result in a new policy of the country with a solemn decision, that English treasure and blood never again be wasted in behalf of the Ottoman Empire. Turkey should be left to the fate, which providence decreed for her corruption and tyrannies.

QUEBEC, Oct. 3.—A subscription list has been opened in aid of the Georgia sufferers from yellow fever; donations are coming in freely.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A Reuter telegram from Constantinople, of the 2nd says: The Porte's answer is expected hourly.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—The correspondence between the Czar and Francis Joseph is preliminary, the declaration that the application and enforcement of the reforms proposed by the powers cannot be entrusted to Turkey; therefore the powers are invited to come to an understanding about the guarantees to be demanded to secure the application of the reforms promised.

The Times in a leader says: "Russia cannot too emphatically be warned that in proposing the occupation of Bulgaria, the Czar has misread the mind of Europe. The scheme of the Russian troops in marching to Bulgaria is a master piece of boldness and audacity. Bulgaria is the key of Turkey. Should the government of the Czar insist on its occupation, it will lay itself open to the darkest suspicion. Every country in Europe would say that its ardent championship of the christian subjects of the Porte, was a cover for designs of conquest, and dreams of Pan Slavism would spread general alarm."

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—A dispatch to the Daily News says: The Free Press hears that Russia and the United States concluded a treaty last August, by which the former cedes the Ports of Okhatak in Siberia, and adjacent territory on the sea shore, in exchange for iron clads, and the sum of sixteen million roubles, and that a Russian crew has already left for America.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The steamer Idaho, reported yesterday returning to Liverpool with her machinery disabled, has arrived there.

The Daily News publishes a special dispatch from Bucharest, which states that it is rumored there that Mr Abbott, brother of Henry Abbott, the German courier at Salonica who was assassinated last May, has been massacred together with his family, near Salonica.

The Reuter Telegram Company have a dispatch from Paris, saying: It is stated here that the Porte's reply to the proposals of the powers, offers a suspension of hostilities, but not an armistice. The Porte does not greet the autonomy which was demanded for certain provinces, but promises reforms throughout the empire which will render autonomy unnecessary.

BELGRADE, Oct. 3.—Doubts having been expressed at St. Petersburg, concerning the intelligence that the Servian government had rejected the peace proposals made by the powers to the Porte, and resolved to continue the war a l'antrance, so it is now officially confirmed that the Servian government will only yield to foreign military intervention, and will not entertain peace conditions, unless they are first submitted to Servia.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The Le Temps publishes a communication from the Russian embassy in the city, in which it is stated that the Czar is still in favor of peace. If Russia should eventually intervene, it would only be with the entire agreement of the powers, and that intervention in any case would be preceded by a conference.

YOKAHAMA, Sept. 14.—The United States flag ship Tennessee sailed on the 9th of Sept for Chefoo, and the Keisage for Vladivostok.

The attempt by the Chinese merchants to establish a line of steamers between Shanghai and Japanese ports has failed, and the enterprise has been abandoned.

FLASHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Commander D W Mullen ordered an executive officer to receiving the ship Wortester & Norfolk.

Chandler is detained by important business until tomorrow or Thursday. Col P B Frank, is dead.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 3.—Total interments to-day 30, of which 23 were from yellow fever. Of burials, nine were colored persons.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.

For the South Atlantic States, falling followed by rising barometer, southerly winds, veering to westerly, and warmer clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail.

COLORADO.

The Election Claimed by the Republicans As Well as Democrats.

DENVER, Oct. 3.—Two reports have been received from different points, and both indicate a peaceful election. The vote will be the largest ever cast in Colorado. Reports from principal points at 3 p. m, indicate heavy Republican gains everywhere, over the election of 1874. The chairman of the Republican State Committee claims the State by 20,000 majority, and the Legislature by a majority of 40 on joint ballot.

[We are disposed to doubt this, as no result could possibly be known as early as three o'clock p. m.—Ed.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—There is conflict in opinion upon functions of the Colorado Legislature elected to-day, as regards presidential electors. It appears they are by language of law to provide for their appointment. This morning's World has the following on Colorado election: The Republicans have counted with confidence on carrying the State and re-inforcing their decreasing majority in the Senate. They have been however rent with conflicts over the prospects of the spoils. The Democrats can count largely on the stock men, most of whom are Texans and Missourians. The solid Catholic Mexican population in the Southeast of the mountains, the Irish miners of Sanguan Central Canon, &c., and the Grazers on the West side of the range, Denver, Colorado Springs, Grady, &c., will go Republican, unless some new element has been introduced into the situation. A Democratic victory may be expected after a hot fight. The Legislature apportionment seems to favor the Republicans. No prospect of further news until quite late.

FOREIGN.

What Will Russia Do?—Capture of Massowah.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A Berlin correspondent of the Times comments upon excited tone of the Russian and Hungarian press. He says: "Its interesting to notice that the organs of both the Russian and Austrian governments are exchanging threats of war. The Strasburg Galas replied that Russia will not be stopped even if she had no allies. The tone of many of the leading organs of Germany is strongly opposed to the supposed ambitious designs of Russia. The Allgemeine Zeitung says, it is convinced that no German government will support Russia's selfish designs. It thinks Russia would recede from war if Austria and Turkey accepted her challenge.

The Times correspondent remarks: "This opinion was very general here some time ago, but recent events have somewhat modified it. It is now thought that Russia after her repeated threats of war might, if challenged, deem it incompatible with her honor to remain at peace.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 3.—It is low certain the reported capture of Massowah by Abyssinians is untrue.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Wm. Sampson, formerly financial editor of the Times, is dead.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A Reuter telegram from Constantinople, says: The Porte yesterday communicated to the ambassadors of the Powers a plan applicable to the whole empire, including the removal of all disabilities from Christians. This plan is drawn up so as to imply that autonomy for Bosnia Bulgaria and Herzegovina would be useless, although it does not formally refuse autonomy.

WASHINGTON.

The Russian Treaty for the Ports of Okhatak a Myth—Americans in Constantinople in Need of Protection.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The reports from Vienna that Russia and the United States have concluded a treaty by which the former cedes the ports of Okhatak to the latter, is news to the department of State, which never heard of such a treaty, excepting through the newspapers.

A Herald special from Constantinople says: The Herald correspondent at Constantinople telegraphs the situation there is really very critical, and is rendered so by the incendiary character of articles in the public prints. He thinks it urgent that an American fleet be sent to the Bosphorus to protect the lives and property of Americans.

CONNECTICUT.

Municipal Election—Slight Republican Gains.

HARTFORD, Oct. 3.—The Republicans elect the first selectman, an assessor, and three constables; the rest are Democrats. The town election in this vicinity as far as heard from, show gains for the Republicans.

THE FIRST REMOVAL FROM THE CENTENNIAL.—By the special permission of the director-general, which is required by the regulations of the Centennial, Messrs Tiffany & Co, of New York, have removed from the main building almost their entire exhibit of precious stone ornaments. The articles taken away are valued at $147,800. This is the first removal of any importance from the exposition.

BABCOCK'S CASE.—Babcock will be acquitted. There is scarcely a reasonable doubt of it. The jury was so artistically arranged and the facts have conspired so harmoniously in the General's interests that a verdict of "Not guilty" is sure to come. So much for the force of a trial before the District law court. But that is not enough. Babcock has been "vindicated" at St Louis and will be at Washington. Now let him have a chance for vindication before his brother army officers. It is due to him and to them to ascertain whether in all these years he has done anything "unbecoming" that curious compound, "an officer and a gentleman."—Baltimore Gazette.

The Baltimore Sun says: The business prospect continues encouraging. Better prices are expected for American grain because of the short crop in England. The domestic market shows the effect already, but happily there is no wild speculation started, and the improvement in prices promises to be of a substantial character, in nearly all branches of trade the merchants and manufacturers now hold that bottom has been touched, and from that point recovery, however gradual, is assured. The encouraging fact is that while rapid or speculative movements are not to be expected, and as regards the latter are not to be desired, yet the general movement is in the direction of improvement. The merchants of Baltimore generally are doing a better trade this fall than for the past two seasons, and feel encouraged by the reports from their customers in the interior. The stocks on hand now are good, and can be offered at advantageous prices to purchasers.

A SOCKDOLAGER.—At a Republican meeting in Portsmouth, Tuesday night, Hon. Joseph Segar was introduced as one of the speakers. The Enterprise thus reports his speech: "My friends, I must apologize for not making a speech to-night on account of the wind. I have got to speak in Suffolk to-morrow, and at other places during the canvass, and if I speak to-night I will not be able to make another speech during the canvass, and I had rather go to prison for six months than not to do my duty in a flower basket. But (pointing to a thank the fair hand that made this beautiful bouquet." Some one in the crowd sang out, "It wasn't a fair hand, it was a colored one." This took Mr. Segar back, and with the remark, "The ferry-boat is waiting for me," he left the stage for Norfolk.
