LOCAL RIPPLES.
Jack Frost has left his photograph on the elm trees in the streets.
Next to Indiana and Ohio, the dust is the most popular topic.
Cols Steele and Poik spoke to a large and enthusiastic crowd at Monroe Tuesday.
Newspaper men and telegraph operators ought to be the best natured people in the world, especially at election times.
Twenty-seven cotton wagons were visible around the cotton platform at one time, yesterday. It still comes in notwithstanding the low prices.
Mr. R. P. Terry, formerly with the firm of Wade & Pegrans, announces in a card elsewhere that he is now with W. L. Boyd, on Trade street, where he will be glad to see his friends.
Let all who are able and have any State pride attend our State Fair at Raleigh. It will no doubt be the grandest exhibition of industrial articles ever before seen in the State.

Anything? Nothing definite! and the anxious inquirer, after the election news, would give us a scowl and walk away to button-hole the next man whom he thought ought to be omniscient.
The bridge across the A., T. & O. Railroad, at Mint street, which was reported in a bad condition several days ago, has been repaired and inspected by the Mayor, and pronounced in a good condition.
Another Tilden and Vance Club.
The Democrats of Iron Station, Lincoln county, met last Saturday, the 7th inst., and organized a T. and V. Club, with fifty-five members. That fine old gentleman, Capt. R. A. Brevard, was elected President. The club begins under the most favorable auspices, and with the prospects of being largely increased before the election.

A Noble Charity.
We received, yesterday morning, from a well known lady in this city, one who, though not specially blessed in this world's goods, never fails to make a liberal response to the demands of charity, the sum of $20, to be sent to the sufferers from yellow fever in Savannah and elsewhere. Such liberality will certainly be rewarded, and should put to shame many in our midst who are far more able to give than she. The amount has already been sent as directed.

and See to It.
Three other white men went to the registration books, yesterday, and failed to find their names on them. Experience has proven that it is the duty of every voter to go and see that his name is duly registered. Three times as many negroes as whites have visited the offices. The registrars give it as their firm conviction that unless the Democrats attend to this matter better than they have done heretofore, a number of them will not get a vote.

A Dastardly Act.
In our advertising columns this morning Mr. McD Arledge, offers a reward of twenty-five dollars for evidence to convict, before a court of law, the person who deliberately and wilfully committed deprivations on his lot in the city cemetery.
We admire an open and avowed enemy. We always know where to find him. He always strikes breast high, but the man who sneaks in the dark to do a man an injury, through the desecration of the last resting place of a dead, is unworthy the name of a man, and in this instance we hope the perpetrator will be discovered.

For Rock Hill.
The special train for Rock Hill today, leaves the C., C. & A. Depot at 2 o'clock p. m., and will arrive at its destination at 3:30, which will be about the time that Hampton arrives from Lancaster with his escort of 400 mounted men. Returning, the train will leave at 12 o'clock at night, after the torch light procession, speaking, etc., is over. There will probably not be as large a crowd from this city as was at first anticipated, but it is thought that a number of persons from the country will go.

Attempt at Robbery—Negro Stabbed.
A gentleman just returned from Gaston, reports an attempt at robbery near Garibaldi on the Air Line Road, all the particulars of which he was unable to learn. Three negro men followed a man who was known to be drinking out of the village, and when he was unable to proceed farther by reason of the whisky and laid down on the road side for rest, they took hold of him, and he began to rifle his pockets. Becoming aware of their object, he drew a knife and stabbed one of the negroes, inflicting a serious wound. The other parties immediately fled.

A Decision of the Supreme Court.
The following is the digest of the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the State vs. Ellwood for murder, committed in Cleveland, but moved to this county and tried about a year ago: (We are indebted to the Raleigh News for the digest.) A was indicted for murder, convicted and sentenced to be hanged; he appealed, and the judgment was affirmed. Subsequently, he was pardoned; HELD that the court below had no power to amend the original judgment, by adding that the cost of the indictment be taxed against the defendant by the clerk; and that the defendant be in custody until the costs were paid.

The Elections.
These have, of course, been the all-absorbing topics on the streets from Tuesday night at sun down till late last night. Nothing could induce a man to talk about anything else, and if any individual who was supposed to know anything appeared, he was immediately collared and made to deliver. Our office and the telegraph office was besieged "from early morn till dewy eve." In consequence of the large number of private telegrams passing over the wires, the associated despatches arrived very slowly. So great was the desire to get positive and reliable, that numbers of telegrams were sent to various parties in Indiana and Ohio, Washington, New York and even to Atlanta. John Morrissey, in New York, was called upon to tell what he knew about it, and other distinguished individuals in the North and elsewhere, but most of them for some reason, failed to reply. None of the telegrams, however, failed to state that returns were coming in slowly.

Nearly all the interest manifested was by Democrats. Occasionally a Republican would appear with an interrogation mark on his countenance, but as a general thing, they assumed an indifferent air. Numerous hats and cigars were bet on the result, but little or no money.

An Editor Brought Before the Magistrate's Court by Radicals—Charges Refuted—A Dirty Trick.
In our yesterday's issue there was an account of a speech made at the Court House Tuesday night, by W. B. Scott, colored, editor of the Maryville (Tenn.) Republican, in which he advised the negroes to vote for Vanoe for Governor, &c. This of course was unwelcome advice to the leaders, and yesterday a plan was concocted by which an attempt was made to injure his character and thereby destroy any effect which his speech may have produced. Of course this will be denied, but the facts go to prove it. They are as follows:

Scott came here about two weeks ago and remained several days. He then went to South Carolina and returned this week remaining one day or more in the city before he made his speech, but was not molested. The day after his speech a number of negroes among whom was John Schenck, the chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of this county, sued out a warrant against Scott, for obtaining money under false pretenses, alleging that several years ago he came here representing himself to be an editor, and obtained money as subscription for his paper and that the papers were not sent. It was proven to the satisfaction of the Magistrate (Messrs Davidson and Severs) that he was an editor, and that the paper was received here, whereupon the defendant was dismissed and his prosecutors made to pay the cost.

The trick is as this as it is dirty, but will have the desired effect. The news has been carried to Hiram that the colored man who spoke to them and told them to vote for Vanoe was up in the courts and they'll never be told that he was cleared.
We know nothing of Scott, and therefore can say nothing of his character, but repeat that the treatment received at the hands of his brethren, has all the appearances of a mean contemptible Radical trick.

Pardoned.
About two weeks ago a petition was gotten up in this city and signed, it was said, by some of the leading citizens asking for the pardon of Susie Williams, who was convicted by the Superior Court of this county of keeping a disorderly house and sentenced to leave the city by the 1st of October. The tender heart of the bachelor Governor was touched by the cry of women in distress, he hesitated, but finally yielded as we are informed by the Raleigh News, and on Monday issued an unconditional pardon.

Salisbury Fair.
Frank Brown, Esq., of Salisbury, has been appointed Chief Marshal of the coming Fair to be held in that place. A better selection could not have been made anywhere in the State. Mr. Brown is polite, accommodating, energetic, and visitors may safely rely upon the kindest and most courteous treatment at his hands, at the hands of the efficient assistants he will no doubt appoint.

We acknowledge the receipt of a special invitation to attend the Fair, and we shall certainly avail ourselves of the opportunity and try to carry over a good delegation of the Charlotte people to that hospitable town.
One of a "Higher Order."
Mr. J. L. Bailey fears that from the report given of the negro meeting in Court House, on Saturday, in which allusions were made to youthful Radicals, young orators, etc., some one may think that he was among them, in fact he had already been asked if he was among the number. He wishes it known that he did not attend the meeting, because it was a negro meeting, and not a meeting of the party, and he did not wish to put himself on a social equality with negroes by going. He says that, although a Republican, he is one of a little higher order than some people. It will prove, we fear, a very difficult undertaking for Bailey to keep up on the "high order" and remain a Republican; he will be so lonely and cut off. The only way to get out of these troubles, "Johnny," is to come out of the party. We are informed that he has already declared his opposition to Bill Smith.

Be Watchful.
Remember that continual vigilance is the price of liberty, and unless we are always upon the guard those liberties may slip from our grasp. Reports have just reached us that the negroes who are largely on the side of Republicans are registering in this town in large numbers. Many of them are tramps and strangers who no doubt register illegally, and it is the duty of the friends of reform to be on the alert and expose all the frauds that are sought to be perpetuated upon them. The Democrats of this county are peaceable and law abiding citizens and expect to obey the statutes of the country, and carry the county by legal means. It is then the bounden duty of every patriot however humble to report all suspicious characters to the proper authorities, in order that the Superior Court—that dread of perjurers and thieves, may determine whether they be just or unjust, or whether they be bona fide residents or illegal tramps. Remember illegal voters the fearful punishment the law proscribes for conspiracy and perjury.

COMMUNICATIONS.
A Card.
LINCOLNTON, N. C., Oct. 10, '76.
MESSRS. EDITORS:—
If "Republican," of your city, who so freely uses my name in an article in The Daily Constitution, of Raleigh, N. C., October 4th, will give the public his name and the names of his "authorities" in our town, I will answer his article. In his article of said date, he says "I can give the best of authority for my statements, and if necessary and demanded, their names and mine too, will be given to the public." Now, I demand Republican's name and those of his authority. The public has my name, and let it have that of my opponent.
I hope Republican will not "take water" at this place. If he does, I shall claim that he is afraid of the facts in this case. Let him come out from behind his false name, and he shall be fairly met.
My object, Mr. Editor, in publishing this article in your paper instead of the Democrat, where my first article appeared is, that yours is a daily, while the Democrat is a weekly.
J. T. HARRIS.
