Decline of Russian Securities—Rumors of War Growing Numerous and Threatening.

VIENNA, Oct. 18.—A courier has just arrived with a second letter from the Czar to Francis Joseph.

Letters from Odessa reports that five thousand men have arrived from the interior of Russia, to work on the fortifications there.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Times' correspondents at Vienna learn that England, France and Italy, have accepted the five months' armistice.

The Times speaking of the situation says: The involving of England's interests is less immediate than that of Germany, Austria and France, and we may await with equanimity even the outbreak of war, but there may be a point at which our regard for the well being and reputation of the British Empire would necessitate a resolute attitude.

The Times' De'grade dispatch says: Germany's attitude is not understood by diplomats. Bismarck is supposed to be siding his time, with the view of assisting, if opportunity offers, in a disruption of the Austrian empire.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—12:20 P. M.—At this hour, the Stock Exchange is greatly excited, and it is almost impossible to give accurate quotations. Russian securities have declined 7, making a fall of nearly 20 within the past week.

The funded loan being only American, the stock is much dealt in and the influence of the prevailing depression, and is now quoted at 105 1/2 to 106.

A special dispatch to the Times from Buenos Aires says: The Spanish pilgrims to Rome, who have been ordered to depart from the city, are preparing to depart for Genoa.

The Daily News has a special from Rome, announcing that the committee which superintended the reception of the pilgrims by the Pope on Monday, and who were principally carlists refused to admit the Spanish ambassador to Italy, and his attaches, although they were duly provided with tickets.

A Reuter dispatch from Bilbao says: The civil government of Biscay has been suspended. Fresh arrests have been made, causing great uneasiness. General Quesada is expected here.

A special dispatch to the Daily News from Testa says: Intelligence received here from Vienna, states that England considers all diplomatic action at Constantinople at an end. This statement have produced the very gloomy feeling here that war is considered unavoidable. The same journal has a dispatch from Vienna reporting, that an agreement has been concluded between Roumania and Russia for placing Roumanian troops under Russian officers in case of war.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—The Bier publishes the following: A Semlin correspondent telegraphs that he has had an interview with M. Ristic, the Serbian prime minister, in which the latter stated, that a resumption of hostilities in which Russia will participate, is certain.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—A Paris correspondent of the News says, he learns that all Russians in Paris under the age of 40 years, have been ordered to return home.

A special from Berlin to the Times, announces that the Russian Iron Clad Forte the Great, is to leave Cronstadt immediately for the Mediterranean.

A correspondent of the Standard at Belgrade, telegraphs as follows: "I have just received information that Russia has issued a circular note announcing that in the interests of humanity she feels bound to march troops in Bulgaria and Armenia. I cannot vouch for the truth of this, but it is not improbable. There are 82,000 men at camp in Bender, and 64,000 around Tiflis." A dispatch to the Reuter's Telegram Company from Vienna to day, confirms from official sources the statement that Austria's Eastern policy will conform to that of Russia and Germany.

FOREIGN.

War Imminent.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—This afternoon, the Globe in a financial article says: A complete panic prevails on the Stock Exchange. The news of Russia's apparent determination to make war upon Turkey has confirmed the fears which for several days have depressed the market, and culminated to-day in an indiscriminate pressure of sales of all descriptions of stock, not only by speculators, stimulating panic fears, but by bona fide holders of securities, especially foreign. There was at the opening, further serious declines in quotations, and it was difficult to obtain prices at which bargains could be effected, fluctuations being so great and frequent. Changes include a reduction of five in Hungarian 14, in Turkish, 3 in Egyptian, 3 in Italian, and a less, but a considerable decline in all stocks.

The Times' article says: The hopes we have so anxiously cherished, must we fear be abandoned, and we must recognize the fact that negotiations are at an end, and that the two belligerents are now face to face in European Turkey, must be left to the consequences of their acts. Another twenty-four hours brought no relief to the tension, under which we are laboring, and events are evidently moving too fast on the Danube to be arrested by the slow progress of even telegraphic diplomacy.

VIENNA, Oct. 18.—It is stated that a convention is concluded by Russia with the Roumanian Railway Company, by which the latter engages to make preparations for transporting altogether 250,000 troops, at the rate of at least 25,000 daily.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Daily Telegraph in a leading article, says: "England, as usual, she loves and desires peace, and will war from the end to the end of the world, rather than permit the Austrian flag to be hoisted at Constantinople."

WASHINGTON.

Five Troops for South Carolina— Rifle Clubs Chartered by the Laws of South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18.—General Sherman's order to Sherman, reached him at the theatre last night. He immediately reported to the telegraph office and gave the necessary orders to Gen Hancock, commanding the Department of the Atlantic. The order was a complete surprise to every one outside of the War office people.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 18.—General Barry received a telegraphic instruction from Washington this morning, to send four companies of artillery from this post at once to Columbia, S. C., to report to Major General Ruger, commanding the department. Company I Fourth Artillery, Capt R Lodes; Company G First Artillery, Capt Sam'l S. Elder; Company A, Third Artillery, Capt L Larkin; and Company C, Fifth Artillery, Capt Wallace F Randolph, were designated. They leave for that place to-morrow morning. This leaves only one company for duty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—An examination of the laws of South Carolina shows that the rifle clubs, which Gov Chamberlain denounces as illegal, and strictly forbidden by the laws of the State, are regularly chartered by the Legislature, under the name of rifle clubs. There are a large number of colored companies chartered in the same way.

The statue of General McPherson was unveiled to-day. A fine military display, and a vast multitude witnessed the ceremony. A two days reunion of the army of Tennessee, commenced to-day. About one hundred and fifty members of the association are present.

NEW YORK.

Wall Street Flurried by War Rumors—Gold Rapidly Advancing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Wall Street markets opened in a whirl of excitement, on account of the foreign news. Gold advanced to sterling firm. General stock opened 1/2 to 1 higher. The war like rumors from the East, with the possibility that the European powers may become involved in Turkey's troubles, had a marked effect in the Wall street, and merchandise markets this morning, all having been thrown into the greatest excitement. In the gold room, the scene has been without a parallel for years. Boisterous and excited bankers, offered gold in any amount and at almost any price, and the purchases which opened at 1.10, rapidly carried the price up to 1.18 1/2. Yesterday morning gold opened at 1.09 1/2, so that in two days the price advanced fully 4 per cent.

GEORGIA.

Absentees Cautioned Against Returning to Savannah.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 18.—The following is published this morning:

OFFICE OF THE HEALTH OFFICER, SAVANNAH, GA., Oct. 18, 1876. "Absentees are cautioned and warned against returning to the city until official notice is given, that it will be safe to do so. The decrease in the mortality reports is encouraging, and indicates an early termination of the epidemic, but I desire to say that it is far from safe for absentees to return."

(Signed) J T MCFARLAND, M. D. Health Officer.

"Suicides Peculiar to Paris" is the title of an article in the New York Times, but the cases described are not particularly curious, while hari-kari is by no means peculiar to Paris alone. People of all nations shuffle off their mortal coils occasionally, and none of the romantic cases cited in the article named surpass the one poetically described by our American poet Saxe:

When Seth got home from mackereling he sought his Sara Ann, and found that she, the heartless one, had found another man. And then most awful tight he got, and so he went away, and bound himself to cut live oak all down in Florida. He pined upon the live oak land, he murmured in the shades; his axe grew heavy in his hand, all in the wild-wood glades. Mosquitoes bit him everywhere, no comfort did he get, and how terribly he'd swear whenever he got bit. At last, despairing of relief, and wishing himself dead, he went into the woods a piece and chopped off his own head.

A CLERICAL HIT ON THE HEAD— Ministers will have their little jokes like other people.

"Come over and preach for me to-night," said a Chicago divine to a clerical friend whom he met on the street not many days since.

"I can't to-night," was the reply, "I'm almost down sick with the headache."

"Well," drolly observed the other, "I guess you can do it, for if you preach as you usually do you won't have to use your head any."

Then they both laughed and pinched each other in the ribs, and said it was a good one, just as hearty as though they had been the worst kind of singers all their lives.—Chicago Journal.
