The Stock Exchange Somewhat Steadier—The War Cloud Still Threatening.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The cabinet summoned on Tuesday to meet to-day, moved that Parliament be convened, in consequence of the grave aspect of the Eastern question.

The advertiser says: Lord Napier of Magdala, is ordered to hold himself in readiness to take command of the army. Russia has 21 iron clads, carrying two to twenty-six guns each.

The Times says: It is stated that orders have been given by the war office to the commander in chief, to hold three army corps in readiness for immediate despatch to the Mediterranean, also that plans for the defence of Constantinople, prepared by the Royal Engineer have been forwarded to the Admiral commanding the British fleet in Besika Bay.

The Stock Exchange this morning opened freer from the panicky feeling than yesterday, and most stocks were slightly firmer. Consols were held at last night's closing prices; Russians Egyptian were about 1, and Turkish fractionally higher, but Hungarians were one per cent lower. The absence of definite news merely checks the sales. There are no indications of the recovery of confidence.

A Reuter Constantinople dispatch, announces that Gen Ignatieff, the Russian Ambassador to Turkey who had been on a leave of absence, returned to that city last night.

VIENNA, Oct. 19.—The newspapers here publish intelligence from Athens announcing that the Greek Government will submit to the chamber of Deputies' proposals for calling out 60,000 men, and demanding a credit of fifty millions drachms and authority to contract a loan of 10,000,000 drachms.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Indian Troop ship Junna, left Portsmouth yesterday for India, with 934 artillery men, and upwards of seventy officers, surgeons, &c. She will embark another battery of artillery at Plymouth. The departure of troops from Woolwich for Portsmouth, was witnessed by vast crowds, and the excitement displayed, was the greatest since the Crimean war.

The Times announces that the Junna has been directed to Gibraltar and Malta, for orders, in case circumstances should necessitate a change in the destination of the troops.

This morning's Financier says: A war risk of five shillings per cent. was required yesterday by the Lloyds, and various insurance companies on British vessels trading between England, Australia and the East. A business is yet reported in risks on Russian, Austrian and Italian vessels, but the rates on these would of course be higher.

NEW YORK.

Morrissey Withdraws—Fourteen Companies More for South Carolina.

New York, Oct. 19.—Morrissey withdraws the anti-Tammany candidate. He considers the success of the party in November, more important than the interest of office seekers.

Arrived; City of New York and W A Scatten, arrived out; Warrior, Harriot, Emma Fife, Setoca, Emma Cook and Dakota.

Twelve companies of artillery arrived as infantry, and two companies of infantry left several Eastern garrisons yesterday for Columbia, S. C.

MISSOURI.

Molton Steel Explosion—Two Men Fatally Wounded.

St. Louis, Oct. 19.—A quantity of molton steel, exploded at the Vulcan Steel Works. Two men are probably hurt.

The person imprisoned as Frank James, has been released. No proof.

THE PROSTATE STATE.

More Bayonets.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Company F 3rd artillery, stationed at Fort Ontario is ordered to South Carolina. They leave to-night.

Boston, Oct. 19.—Batteries I and L from Boston harbor, and a battery from Portland, 90 men in all leave for Columbia, S. C. to-day.

WASHINGTON.

Death of a Journalist.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—Francis P Blair, journalist and statesman, is dead. Age 87.

FLASHES.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 19.—The schooner Carrie Alice, is burnt to the waters edge at Ocracoke inlet. The cargo is supposed to be lime.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Delaware, Virginia Maryland and District of Columbia day at the Centennial, attracted 144,171 to the exhibition.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.

For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, rapidly falling barometer, nearly stationary temperature, easterly or northerly winds, increasing to brisk high and gales, cloudy weather, and heavy rains will prevail, under the influence of the hurricane.

ILLINOIS.

Meeting of the Electrical Society.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The third annual meeting of the American Electrical Society, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Anson Stager; Vice-Presidents, C H Hackins, of Milwaukee, Geo B Prescott, of New York, Hugo Nelson of Toronto, Elisha Gray, of Chicago, E. H. Booth, of Mansfield, E P Wright, of Cleveland, and J J Dickey, of Omaha; Corresponding Secretary and Librarian, F W Jones, of Chicago; Recording Secretary, O S Jones; Treasurer, E B Chandler of Chicago. Sir Wm Thompson, of Glasgow was made an honorary member. Various papers were read and other business transacted. After which the meeting adjourned.

CD Witherell's planing mill and adjoining property was burned. Loss $84,000.

WASHINGTON.

Colored Masons—Mad Officials—Vote of Ohio Not Yet Certain—Unimportant Items.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—J Barrett Cohen of Charleston, has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court. Cameron has gone to Philadelphia until next Tuesday. The awards of the Southern Claims Commission still await his signature. The Alabama Claims Commission resumed sessions. There is considerable feeling here among colored masons, over the postponement of the recognition of their brethren in that State by the Grand Lodge of Ohio.

The official majority for Barnes in Ohio is reported from Cincinnati 6,092. The press agent at Columbus however reports four counties not heard from.

FOREIGN.

The Designs of the Great Powers not Understood.

VIENNA, Oct. 19.—Tagelblott says Serbia and Montenegro have resolved to accept no armistice.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—It is impossible to draw conclusions the mass of conflicting telegrams about the intentions of Russia and the position of other powers. The correspondents who are usually best informed are at fault now, and any assertion of pretended facts which may find their way to the United States should be regarded with great caution. Every capital in Europe is telegraphing to every other capital the inquiry, "Is it peace or war?" and nobody who will, is able to answer the question.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

More Whites Murdered in Cold Blood by Chamberlain's Armed Black Assassins.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 19.—Six whites returning home from a Democratic mass meeting in Edgefield county, near dark last evening, were fired into by colored men in ambush. One was killed instantly, another severely wounded. Maj Kline and other United States officers at request of whites went to the spot. While they were viewing the body the white men sent for a coroner who was also shot from ambush. His leg was shattered and horse wounded. The meeting had been quiet and orderly.

KEY WEST.

Disaster on the Water.

KEY WEST, Oct. 19.—A hurricane since last night. The crew of steam tug Gadsfrey Kubu, Philadelphia to Galveston, before reported as here, refused to leave the vessel last night.—It is feared all are drowned. It was too hazy this morning to see the vessel; the wind was terrific.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Indictment for Murder.

SALEM, Oct. 19.—The grand jury found a true bill against Weeden, Sam Callyer, John Clark, Richard Goodwin and Fiddler Neer. Men concerned in killing Walker in a prize ring.

It is a good deal more comfortable weather for any young couple who want to sit in the same rocking-chair, at the same time, than it was last August.—Rome Sentinel.

A young lady in Boston refused to attend church because her new hat had not been sent home. "I hate the devil and all his works," she said; "but I hate an old-fashioned bonnet more."

BOSS TWEED'S ADVENTURES.—It is stated that Hunt, Tweed's companion sailed with the latter on the Franklin for New York. Both will be surrendered on arrival of the vessel at quarantine.—Tweed's escape from Cuba was under the most painful circumstances to him. The United States consul at Havana, on discovering his presence in that city, reported the fact by telegraph to Secretary Fish at Washington. The Secretary directed the consul to at once secure Tweed. The latter obtained information of these orders, and escaped to Santiago de Cuba, but the pursuit here becoming very warm, he was forced to go aboard the Carmen, a vessel about to sail for Spain. It has been supposed heretofore that Tweed sailed as a passenger, but information at Vigo states that he went aboard the ship as landsman, and was compelled to serve as a deck hand, and barefooted and barearmed, forced, with squiggle and swab, to wash down the decks. In this disguise he was discovered and taken into custody in Vigo Bay. This harsh experience, it is added, did not seem to have in any way discouraged Tweed or impaired his health. When he was placed on board the Franklin he was given the most commodious and elegant quarters on board the ship.

BRIDES AT THE CENTENNIAL SHOW.—Of all the people who live at the centennial hotels, I think the newly married couples—Philadelphia is full of them, by the way—are the only ones who are thoroughly contented and happy. It makes no difference to them whether the potatoes are watery, the meats dry, or the soup thin; and they don't care a pin whether people talk to them or not. They live in a little world of their own, and have nothing but for each other. They all try to act as though being married was an old story to them, and still for the life of them they can't help taking each other's hand every five minutes. The brides nearly all wear new watch chains.—N. Y. Times.

Mr Joaquin Miller tells a curious California story, which recalls that of the cattle in Harte's "Gabriel Conroy." He describes an emigrant train passing over the prairie and inspecting a herd of buffalo at full speed and moved by one of the apparently insane impulses which sometimes seize these animals. In an instant the immense herd had passed—there was no wagon, there were no men, oxen, horses left; even their bodies were obliterated. The one survivor was a woman, who was carried out of the horrible struggle on the back of one of the herd—how, she never knew; her first consciousness was that she stood safely upon a little hillock and the whirlwind had gone by.

AN EXAMPLE FOR ELECTION JUDGES.—The Indianapolis Sentinel states that the Hon. Jas. B Ryan, the democratic judge in the fourth ward of that city, at the recent election, stood two nights and three days without a moment's sleep or rest, nursing the ballot-box that no fraud should be perpetrated if he could prevent it. Mr Ryan, who is past middle age, had been canvassing the State for weeks, had hardly slept one whole night during that time, and only arrived at home early on the morning of the election.

Twenty-nine thousand dollars have been received from a Virginia City, (Nev.) gambling saloon in one year in the way of license. The money is collected monthly, and gambling is not restricted at all.
