Montenegro Success—The Six Week's Armistice Agreed to by the Porte—Work of the Tornado.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Standard's Ragusa dispatch says: The complete failure of Derwish Pasha's recent attack on the Southern frontier of Montenegro, ends the years campaign, as winter now sets in. Menkhar Pasha will shortly withdraw to Tribinje. Derwish Pasha's army is entirely demoralized.

The Catholic Albanians who joined the Turkish Standard have gone home. The Post's Berlin dispatch says: Rumania has given assurance that her military measures are only her usual autumnal practice. A six week's armistice, with a prolongation if necessary, is now considered assured.

The Times' Belgrade dispatch says: The depression here continues. We cannot help thinking that we are at the beginning of the end.

If Russia leaves Serbia unaided, the Turks will certainly reach Belgrade. They are advancing slowly but inevitably, but unless the armistice is secured, Tchernysseff will fight to the last.

PANAMA, Oct. 27.—Another engagement on Oct. 10th, resulted in the routing of the rebels.

The steamer Bolivar, which reached Barranguilla on Oct. 4th, with passengers was fired into and one killed. The river Magdalena which had been closed by the rebels is now opened.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Vienna correspondence of the Times confirms the capture of Djoni by the Turks. Unless the armistice is concluded, the Servians must move back or from Alcinatz and Delgrade.

A Reuter telegram from Paris says: The Porte has accepted Ignatieff's six week's armistice.

ROME, Oct. 27.—The Russian iron clad fleet will winter in Italian waters, in order to be ready to proceed to the East in case of need.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Times' Berlin special says: Liberal newspapers declare vigorously against the establishment of Russian power in Turkish provinces, and urge the placing of the reforms therein, under British control.

PANAMA, Oct. 19.—In the cyclone over Central America on the 8rd, and 4th of inst, Managu in Colorado was inundated. Four hundred houses were blown down and many people drowned. The damage is estimated at two million. The town of Brewfield on the Mosquito Coast, lost 300 houses. The lake steamers Commodore, and Adams were destroyed at Granada wharf. The loss in the coffee crop is estimated at three million of dollars. About 20 lives were lost. The whole district is inundated.

The Failure of a Fire Company—Appointments, Disbursements, &c.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Silver disbursements $1 million. A hundred thousand 4's were substituted to-day. The sums for which Gen'l O. P. Howard is sued, bear interest from 1865.

Tyner has returned. The Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia is insolvent.

ILLINOIS.

Sullivan's Trial for Murder—Bailed for $3,000

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Sullivan has been bailed at $3,000. The court rigorously defended himself from the accusations of Mr. Reed, and affirmed his belief that the prisoner was rather wronged than wronging, and that there was no murder in the case. Berry, the jurymen who stood out for conviction, states that he was assailed by the jurymen during their deliberations, in the vilest manner, and that threats were made against his life if he persisted, and that he dared not sleep in the jury room. The excitement over the case is on the increase in the city.

NEW YORK.

Grandest Demonstration Ever Known in America—A Sixty Thousand Procession Six Hours Long.

New York, Oct. 26.—Last night's political display was the most imposing ever witnessed in this city. There were fully sixty thousand in line. The Democratic working men, regardless of local differences, were represented by their clubs. The demonstration commenced at half past seven, and at one o'clock this morning Gov. Tilden was still in position, in front of the Everett House, reviewing the procession. There were hundreds of curious devices, representing traditions of the past and present.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

Failure of Life and not Fire-Insurance Company as Reported a few days ago.

Heavy Pools on the Candidates—Tilden Ahead in the United States, and still further in New York.

New York, Oct. 27.—It was the Continental Fire Insurance Company which was placed in the hands of a Receiver, and not the Continental Life Insurance Company as was erroneously supposed in several places throughout the country.

The entire Excise Board has been arrested, charged with granting liquor licenses to eating-houses unlawfully. Large investments were made last night at both Morrissey's and Johnson's. The general results opened even, but at nine o'clock was 200 to 175 in favor of Tilden. The State stands 1,000 to 400 in favor of Tilden.

Facts From Men Who Know.

Glorious News at Democratic Headquarters from all Parts of the Union.

[From the New York Sun.]

The National Democratic Committee received nearly two thousand five hundred letters and dispatches last week. A letter from Oregon says that Tilden and Hendricks Clubs have been organized in two hundred and one towns in that sparsely settled State. The Secretary of the State Democratic Committee of Indiana writes: "We are going to give Tilden and Hendricks fifteen thousand majority in the Presidential election." From California the tidings are very cheerful.

A prominent Democrat in Ohio says: "All the fellows who were on the fence are jumping off upon the Democratic side. The Democrats of Connecticut are very active, and the same may be said of 'Little Rhody.' A gentleman who has travelled considerably in Pennsylvania, and made speeches in many of the towns and villages says the Democrats have a good chance of carrying that State, notwithstanding the frauds in the registry and at the polls which the Republicans will be sure to practice. Hundreds of fence men in Pennsylvania, also are jumping off on the Democratic side. There will be large Democratic gains in Wisconsin and Michigan. So far as New York State is concerned, there is no doubt that she will go Democratic by a very large majority. Among betting men wagers on the result in the Empire State are made three to one in favor of the Democrats. Letters from the South speak with great indignation of the action of the Grant Administration in sending soldiers South to sustain Republicanism there at the point of the bayonet.

Wonderful Death of an Infant.—It is the little infant in death that all heaven seems to surround when it dies. And when dead, it is God's own statutory left just long enough with its beautiful body that never knew a sin, decked in pure white flowers, to tell of the spirit that has fluttered and flown, to be God's page on high, in carrying his missions through heaven. It is an honor to elect a man's child page in the halls of congress, but a greater honor than that is to have him a messenger with the Master. An infant died near Milton the other day that was gifted with speech in the hour of its death. It's mother, a worthy farmer's good wife, had just died and left it a wee-bit, helpless, little babe, dependent on the bottle. Only a few months of age it soon began to weaken and die, and in the fatal hour when friends surrounded it, and the last gasp was watched for, it lifted its little hands and with the last breath, cried "my mother!"

This is no fancy sketch but is the talk of the neighborhood. And after, all, it is so wonderfully strange when you reflect that death of itself is the strangest of all things?—Raleigh Sentinel.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.—Therapid development of the Presbyterian church in this country. The numerical force of the whole body in 1788, when its various organizations assumed their present form and relation, was 16 Presbyteries, 177 ministers, 111 probationers, and 416 congregations, of which 204, or nearly one half, were without pastors, and many of them were only the shadow of a name. Now, the strength of the church, north and south, is 241 presbyteries, 6,494 ministers and licentiate, and 6,796 congregations, with 614,868 congregation.

A St. Louis down-town bar keeper has invented a patent free lunch counter. It is arranged so that when the wandering bummer has eaten six pieces of cheese, three crackers, and two pickles, and he attacks the baked beans, a giant fist descends from the ceiling and "bonnets" him, while a gigantic foot springs from the wall and kicks him into the street.
