

Friday November 10, 1876. CHAS. R. JONES, F. BREVARD McDOWELL, Editors & Proprietors.

"Free from the dotting scripples that fetter our free-born reason." INFLEXIBLE RULES. We cannot notice anonymous communications...

The election news is glorious. Just look at our telegraphic news. "Thrice armed is he whose cause is just."

We are coming uncle Samuel. Fifty thousand majority and ten electoral votes from old North Carolina.

"What's the News," has been asked 1,000,000,000,000,000, times, more or less, in this city since Tuesday night.

Samuel J. Tilden will be the next President of these United States, and will be handed down to coming generations as the second "father of his country."

It is said that Mr. Joe Gillispie, Dr. Kerr and the Rev. R. J. Creswell, late radical candidates for legislative honors in old Mecklenburg, have gone into their holes...

God, bless South Carolina, God, bless all her people, but especially shower blessings upon those brave and patriotic hearts who dared to stand up for their rights...

The absence of matter in the OBSERVER this morning is in a measure due to the fact that both editors and printers have been incessantly at work since Tuesday morning...

LOOKS WELL.—A private letter to the editor of the Troy (N. Y.) Times from a gentleman prominently engaged in the work of the canvass...

So it does, friend. New York rolls up nearly forty thousand majority for the democratic party and old Uncle Sam...

NO FEMALE PRACTICE IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.—A decision of some interest was rendered by the Supreme Court at Washington last Monday...

THE TRIUMPH IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The State election returns are coming in slowly, but at this writing there is no doubt of the election of Gov. Vance...

We endorse and heartily cheer in the following which we take from the Raleigh News of the 8th inst., in reference to Gen. W. R. Cox...

Every since the war, the land has resounded with complaints of labor; with more justice it should be labors of brains—brains to plan, brains to calculate, brains to execute...

No one will deny that the organization of the party was never more thoroughly perfected; and no North Carolina canvass was ever more skillfully conducted...

A Setter Goes Fishing, Loses his Master, and Takes the Train for Home. Mr. John D. Johnson, the lawyer, went down to Mudock lake a week ago for the purpose of enjoying a few days in angling for black bass...

A School-Room Horror.

White Being Punished by His Teacher a Child Drops Dead in a Milwaukee School. A little boy in the Fourth Ward school, Milwaukee, fell dead, after a convulsion, on Wednesday...

Build Up a Homestead.

The feeling that you are settled and fixed will induce you to work to improve your farms, to plant orchards, to set out shade trees, to enclose pastures, to build comfortable outhouses...

A COLONY OF MADMEN.

The town of Ghel, situated in the Province of Antwerp, has been for six centuries an abode of madmen, and tradition even takes the story back eleven centuries...

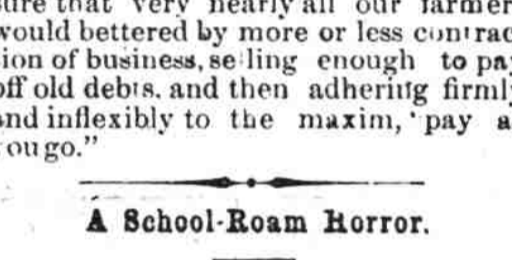

Could talking or writing have availed anything, enough has been said and written long ago to have depopulated the towns...

Another proposition, palpable to every reflecting man, is that every one's operations should be brought sharply within the limit of his means...
