NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

The following is the list of advertisements which appear for the first time this morning:
Pioneers, attend the Second Quarterly Meeting of your Company, on next Tuesday evening, 14th—C. C. Moore, Secretary.

LOCAL RIPPLES

Who's to be President of these United States?
About now is the time to nominate your man for Speaker of the House.
The Baptist State Convention holds its annual session this week in Raleigh.

Whenever a telegram in relation to the election begins—"the indications are," &c., your anxious inquirer after news puts on a heavy disgust and leaves, and he is not to be blamed for it either.
With the closing of the Centennial Exhibition, ends the inquiry—"going to the Centennial?"

Removals.
Mr. R. B. Alexander has removed from his old stand on College street into the store house opposite the Charlotte hotel on Tryon street, where he will keep constantly on hand a fresh and full supply of fancy groceries.

At Pineville.
We have received an interesting communication in regard to the recent jollification meeting and torch-light procession at Pineville, which we are compelled to exclude on account of its length. The letter says that the little town was illuminated; that a number of good speeches were made and they all had had a jolly time generally. Just give Pineville one more chance and she would double her majority for Vance.

Miss Armfield's Death.
We learn that Miss Armfield who was accidentally shot by her brother in Statesville Friday afternoon, an account of which sad occurrence was given in Sunday morning's issue, died on Saturday morning about 4 o'clock. She was buried in the town on Sunday, her funeral being attended by a large concourse of people. The circumstances connected with this most unfortunate occurrence, makes it one of the saddest and most heart-rending that ever happened in the State or elsewhere: A young and lovely girl, the pride of fond and doting parents, is cut down in the bloom of a beautiful womanhood, with its high hopes and bright promises; a life-long burden of sorrow is thrown upon the shoulders of one scarcely able to bear it—a sorrow which will tinge every enjoyment with regret, and darken every memory of boyhood's days. Truly, it is one of the saddest of all the sad accidents which could befall suffering humanity.

Thought His Time had Come.
Kilpatrick says that he came the North Carolina to ascertain really what the vote of the State was. Be that as it may; after remaining several days in Raleigh, he found it out and left. Whether satisfied or not, he did not state. On leaving North Carolina, he took Ike Young, the defeated Radical candidate for Congress from the Raleigh district with him, and the two stopped over awhile in Petersburg. As soon, however, as the boys ascertained the arrival of the two Radical worthies, they gave them a serenade with tin horns. It was then that Kilpatrick pictured all the visions of the bloody shirer had so furiously waved, as dread realities. He thought his time had surely come, and that the Rebels had him. The poor devil was scared so badly, the Petersburg papers say, that he actually called upon the Mayor, of the city for protection—when not one of the boys would have touched him even to save his life.

Snow.
We are informed that several men in Long Creek township, in this county, are willing to testify that they witnessed a fall of snow on Friday morning, which continued for nearly thirty minutes. It is also reported to have been seen elsewhere, but in no place did it continue so long, or were the flakes so large. There is no other way of accounting for this, except by the fact that there was a falling off from the Merrimon vote in the township—a thing which has been as rare in this year's voting as snows before the middle of November.

The Y. M. C. Association Meeting.
Two services were held yesterday under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association; at four o'clock there was a Bible reading at the Second Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Chichester, and at eight the same gentleman preached at the Baptist church to a good congregation. Mr. Chichester is a most active and earnest worker, and it is hoped and expected that much good will result from the several meetings, which it is designed to hold throughout the week. The Bible reading takes place to-morrow at the Methodist church, and the preaching and conference at the Second Presbyterian.

Carrying the Vote to Columbia.
A number of gentlemen from Greenville, Pickens and Spartanburg, including Judge Thos. H. Cooke, and Messrs. F. Stobo Farrow and D. F. Dradly, of the press of that State, arrived in the city Sunday night on a special train en route for Columbia. They had the returns from these counties, which they were carrying to Columbia to be counted by the returning board on the next day. The whole party seemed to be in a jolly humor, and very confident of the success of the Democratic party of the State. They expressed a determination to see a fair count if it was possible for them to do so. The returning board are, however, all Republican, appointees of Chamberlain, and most of them were among the candidates for office in the election, the returns of which will be placed in their hands. They anticipated an exciting day, but no trouble in Columbia yesterday, though it was intimated that Chamberlain might do almost anything so long as he was backed by Grant and the United States bayonets.

A Substantial Congratulation—Our Baltimore Boys.
Amongst the numerous telegrams and letters of congratulation which Gov. Vance is now daily receiving, was one from "the North Carolina boys" in Baltimore. After telling how much they were all tickled at the idea of his being Governor, this important little postscript was added: "Please send us your measure in full, as we desire to present you with the suit of clothes to be worn on the occasion of your inauguration." The Governor says it's very insulting, and he's going to resent it too, and that immediately—by sending his measure.

Distinguished Men Pass Thro' the City Their Views of the Situation.
Gov Randolph of N. C. W. Jersey, Montgomery Blair and Manton Marble, late the distinguished editor of the New York World, passed through the city last night from the North. The party are en route for Columbia and Tallahassee. From all that could be ascertained, Mr. Marble will probably stop over at Columbia, and the others will go on, though they are all somewhat reticent as to their plans.

When the train arrived at Salisbury a large crowd had collected to see and hear something from the distinguished gentlemen, having been informed of their coming by a telegram. They were serenaded, and Gov Randolph and Mr Blair in response to calls made short speeches. We learn from a gentleman present that both expressed the greatest confidence in Mr Tilden's election, and declared their full determination to do everything in their power to insure a fair count. Gov Randolph was particularly emphatic, and stated that the people at the North could not be made to endure anything which had the appearance of fraud.

The same gentleman who is well known and thoroughly reliable informs us that he had a long conversation with Mr Marble who is just from Governor Tilden's presence, and he expressed the greatest confidence in his election. He stated that Gov Tilden had received up to yesterday morning authentic reports from every county in Louisiana except two, and that his majority was then over 6,000. Mr Marble also gave it as his opinion from information in his possession that Oregon was also Democratic. When the train arrived here, all three of the gentlemen had retired to their berths in the sleeping car and no opportunity of interviewing them or obtaining any further information was given.

Sunday's Services.
The morning services in the various churches in the city, were conducted by the pastors of each, except at the 2d Presbyterian, where the Rev. Mr. Chichester, of Winstboro, S. C., officiated. After an earnest and able sermon from him, Rev. W. S. Plummer, D. D., of Columbia, arose and made a few exceedingly appropriate and touching remarks to the congregation. He reminded them of how God had prospered and increased the church since he first had the privilege of speaking to them. Then, they were but a handful of people who collected in the Court House for worship; now, the congregation was large and influential, and assembled in a new and elegant church. He then alluded to the removal of some, whose means and influence had contributed so largely to the building up of the church, and paid a beautiful tribute to their memories. His venerable appearance and earnest manner makes him one of the most impressive and powerful preachers in the Southern country.

This being the beginning of the week of Prayer observed by the Young Men's Christian Association throughout the United States and Canada, a union meeting of all the congregations, except the Episcopal, was held at the Tryon Street Methodist church. The spacious building was filled to its utmost capacity, many being unable to obtain seats. The services were of a very interesting character and were conducted principally by Rev. Dr. Plummer, who again made a most impressive talk. After prayer and singing, the assembly were appropriately addressed by Rev. Mr. Chichester and Rev. P. J. Carraway, after which the President of the Association of this place made a few remarks touching the work and needs of the Association, and the meeting closed with prayer.

ADDITIONAL RETURNS FROM THE STATE.
Below we give the results from additional counties as furnished us from special correspondents, and also as taken from our various exchanges in the State. So far only five counties West of the Yadkin have gone Republican, viz, Yadkin, Wilkes, Henderson, Mitchell and Madison, and all these with decreased Republican votes.

CATAWBA.
The official vote shows a Democratic majority of 1,421 for the whole State ticket; 1,423 for Tilden; 1591 for Congress; and for the Ratification 1,431. This is splendid majority when it is remembered that the total vote of the county is but about 2,900.

MICHELLE.
Mitchell gives 105 Republican majority—Democratic gain of 323.

CLEVELAND—OFFICIAL.
Electoral—Democratic 1,769; Republican 483. Democratic majority 1,286. Vance 1,755; Settle 526; Vance majority 1,229. Gain for Vance over Merrimon 656; loss of Settle on Caldwell's vote 21; loss of Democratic electoral over Merrimon 670; Republican electoral loss 64.

DAVIDSON—OFFICIAL.
The official vote of Davidson county: Tilden's majority 9; Settle's 124; Smith 32; Seales' 110; Ratification 36. All county Democratic men elected.

ALEXANDER.
Postmaster McIntosh, of Taylorsville furnishes the Sentinel this report of the official vote of Alexander county: Tilden 830; Hayes 384; Vance 809; Settle 352; Vance's majority 457; Robbins 808; Dula 334. Democratic majority 474. Stevenson, Conservative, 720; Carson, Independent, 457. Majority 263; Ratification about 500 majority in Alexander.

CALDWELL.
Caldwell county, the Messenger says will give about 900 majority for Vance, and even more for Tilden.
P. G. Moore writes the Sentinel: "We may give 1,000 for the entire ticket. A gain of about 500 over the Merrimon and Caldwell vote."

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS

Florida Unquestionably Democratic.
The President of the "News Club," late yesterday evening telegraphed to J. P. Jones, Mayor of Pensacola, Fla., as to how that State voted in the recent election, and about eight o'clock p. m. received the following response:
PENSACOLA, FLA., Nov. 13.
"Florida is unquestionably Democratic by at least one thousand majority." (Signed) J. P. Jones.

South Carolina Safe.
In answer to a telegram for information in regard to the action of the returning board in South Carolina yesterday, the following was received about 10 p. m.:
"The matter before the board is still undetermined. We are watching them."

Another telegram was received from Washington to the effect that the New York Herald posted a bulletin late in the evening giving dispatches from Columbia, saying that Marshal Wallace of South Carolina conceded that State to Tilden by one thousand majority, at least.

Oregon Heard From.
It was reported on the train from Richmond last night that Gov Randolph of New Jersey, who was on the train, received a telegraphic dispatch between Danville and Salisbury that Oregon had certainly gone Democratic—that the electoral votes of that State would certainly be counted for Tilden and Hendricks.

COMMUNICATIONS.
The Speakership of the Next House.
LEXINGTON, N. C., Nov. 11, 1876.
MESSRS EDITORS:—

Dear Sirs—In view of the fact that our Legislature meets at an early day, and in order to carry into effect at once all the pledges made by the Democratic party to a successful and lasting constituency, we hope everything will be done that can be to aid our members elect to make good their pledges, and carry on to a successful termination, the work of reconciliation, re-entrenchment and reform, so successfully begun. In order to do this we must have our ablest and best men to lead the way, and carry into practical effect the many theoretical promises made. With only this object in view permit me through your able paper, to submit to the consideration of the members elect, the name of Marshall H. Pinnix, of Lexington, N. C., for speaker of the House of Representatives of the next General Assembly of North Carolina. Mr. Pinnix, by his course in the last Legislature, and his past services he has rendered to his party in this last campaign, has made his name familiar with all our people. This, with his fine physique and noble bearing and his known and established ability as a public speaker, makes him in every respect, we think, well fitted for the position. He has been an earnest and fearless hard worker for years in the interest of the Conservative Democratic party, and has done as much, if not more (not to detract from others) than any other man in this portion of the State, or out of it, for its steady and firm hold here in Central North Carolina, and to plant firmly in its stead the great tree of Democracy under which we all hope to live and prosper in the future. I write this with the view of facilitating the great work before our next Legislature and with the belief that the party will put the right man (Marshall H. Pinnix) in the right place.

Among the names mentioned for Speaker of the House, none seems to meet with such universal approval as that of the rising young lawyer from Davie—Charles Price. Having the unbounded confidence of the people of Davie and Bowles, they honored him with a seat in the Senate two years ago. Since that time, he has ably represented the county of Davie in the Constitutional Convention, and has just been elected to the House of Commons. His sterling qualities, his decided political convictions, his unflinching and faithful services to the Democratic party, are highly appreciated by the people of the State, and should entitle him, in the opinion of the people, to the position for which he is eminently qualified—the Speakership of the House.
