SOUTH CAROLINA.

Both Parties Spent the Night in the State House Hall Lighted by Gas for the First Time in Two Years-Ruger has not yet Carried out his Threat-Thought he Would Resign First.

COLUMBIA, Dec 1 .- The cituation is unchanged, both bodies have occupied the House of Representatives since 12 yesterday. Numerous propositions for compromise availed nothing. Now. half past one, the United States troops have not interfered. The Democratic Representatives from Edgefield and Laurens are still in their seats. The Democrats are cheerful and claim that the United States authorities cannot ignore the decisions of the Supreme Court. It is now likely that su fficient number of Republicans will unite with the Democrats, in which event the entire matter will be settled.

Washington, Dec 1-Specials from Columbia up to ten o'clock last night represent the colored element of the combined houses as in a yelling State as night approached. They brought candles in their bottles. The gas company however upon security by the Democrate for the bills turned on the gas, and for the first time in two years the great chandaliers of the House were ablaze.

The very latest advices this morning show little progress toward the salution. What Gen Ruger will do or has been ordered to do is unknown. His soldierly comrades here say, if obedience to orders infringes on his private honor he will surrender his sword.

Gen Ruger Writes a Letter to the War Department.

DISCLAIMS INTERFERENCE WAS BY HIS ORDERS.

A Colored Member Severely Denonnees His Party as Lawless and Revolutionary.

Others Declare Their Intention of Leaving the Organization.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 1. - Everything unchanged. Both parties in the House expecting military interference. None up to six P M. Gen Ruger has done nothing as yet. The matter will hardly change before to-morrow. Democrats are cheerful. Republicans are uneasy.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec 1.

Gen W T Sherwan, or the Secretary of War, Washington, D C:

I have carefully obstained from interference with the organization of the House from the first. On the application of the governor and my own belief for the necessity therefor, for the preserva-tion of the peace. I placed troops in the State House, but not in the rooms of the assembly, or either of the Houses on the day of the meeting. It came about that at the time the soldiers were placed on eithea side of the door of entrance to the hall of Republicans the hall, but who I think had no legal authority for so doing, applied to the officers in command of the troops

The first cargo placed in the corridor for the preservation of peace, for assistance on the ground that he was being pressed upon and could not perform his duty. The soldiers were placed as stated. As soon as I was fully informed of the circumstances I ordered the soldiers withdrawn as I had previously informed down the soldiers with the soldiers with the soldiers with the soldiers with the soldiers and soldiers between the soldiers and soldiers with the soldiers and soldiers and soldiers as a soldier soldier soldier. ed Gov Chamberlain that I should confine my action to the preservation of the peace, and should do nothing with reference to keeping the doors of the rooms of meeting of the Houses or the rooms themselves, unless it became necessary because of breach of the peace, which the civil officers of the FRISH CURRANTS, Houses should be unable to restore.-No act was done by the soldiers except that of presence as stated, but whilst they were so present persons claiming rights of enterance under the certificate of the clerk of the Supreme Court were
