FOREIGN.

The Failure of Russia's Mobilization the Cause of Turkey's Pompaney The Situation Materially Unchanged.

LONDON, Dec 6.—A Standard's special from Constantinople, after reviewing the proceedings in Thursday's sitting of the Conference, expresses the opinion that the dangerous part of the crisis is over.

The Paris Monitor which is in close relief with the French foreign office, however, publishes the following paragraph: "We regret to state that the despotism of Turkey was not improved in Thursday's sitting and leaves very little hope of an arrangement by diplomacy. Although the conference meets again on Monday if the situation is not modified it may even now be stated that the task of England is now ended."

MADRID, Jan 6.—The State liege will continue in Basque provinces.

LONDON, Jan 6.—The Times' Paris correspondent quotes a letter written by one of the most eminent members of the conference to show that the complete change in the attitude of the Porte, by which it now proposes terms to Europe, instead of the vice versa, is due to the fact of which the Turks are fully aware, that the Russian mobilization has completely broken down, and that none of the other European powers are prepared to exert anything but moral pressures.

The Peru correspondent of the Times heretofore strongly anti-Turkish and pro-Russian writes under date of Jan. 1st: "I am still of the opinion that the Turks will ultimately give in, but there is no doubt that the great trump card intended to be played as the last resort that of the declaration of war by Russia has suddenly turned out to be no trump at all, for every thing in the attitude of the St Petersburg cabinet and the conduct of Gen. Ignatieff the Russian plenipotentiary here, contributes to confirm the belief that Russia is afraid to go to war. The Russian ambassador in fact, throws out clear hints that the affair could only be settled by joint European execution, thus reverting to the proposal made by the Czar two months ago. The Turks have not failed to perceive the advantage occurring to their cause from this irresolution of Russia and Europe, and are not unlikely to continue unmanageable and stubborn as long as they can flatter themselves that the conference will break up without any other result than leaving them masters of the situation."

NEW YORK.

Death of Two Prominent Persons.

New York, Jan. 6.—Mrs Charlotte DeForest Egbert, sister of the late Commodore Vanderbilt, died at her residence on Staten Island yesterday, of pneumonia, aged 85.

Gen. John J. Abernethy, of the United States army, died on Wednesday last at his residence in Roslyn Land Island, aged 73 years.

VERMONT.

Convention of Democrats in Washington on January 8th.

Montpelier, Jan. 6.—The Democratic State Committee have issued invitations by mail to leading Democrats to meet for consultation on January 8th, in Washington.

Mid-Night Dispatches.

INDIANA.

Bayonets Ordered North from the South—Bulldozing to be Practiced on Democracy All Over the Union.

New York, Jan 6.—An Atlanta, Ga., dispatch says two companies of the 2nd Regiment of the United States troops left last evening for Jeffersonville, Indiana, leaving only a part of one company in charge of the barracks. Two companies of the 16th Regiment now in Alabama, are also said to be ordered to Jeffersonville.

NEW YORK.

A Crew That Subsisted on Flax Seed.

New York, Jan 6.—Bermuda advices report the schooner George, taken from Brunswick, Ga., Nov 12, for New York, drifted in reefs and filled. The Captain and crew were taken off helpless from starvation, having been subsisting 20 days on flax seed tea slush. She was driven off the coast five times. A number of other vessels have reached Bermuda in distress. The funeral of Eph Horn, negro minstrel took place to-day from the little church around the corner, Rev Dr Haughton officiated. A large throng of actors and minstrels were present. The remains were interred in Evergreen Cemetery.

WASHINGTON.

No Smoking in the Treasury—Witnesses Before Senatoral Committee—Unimportant Business.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan 6.—HOUSE.—Most of the day was devoted to business. The District of Columbia, Civil and Diplomatic appropriations bill was up in the Committee on the Whole, but no action was taken on it. A bill removing the political disabilities of Charles C. Scott passed.

A cart-load of old telegrams were shipped hence to day enroute for the paper mill. The Secretary and Treasury forbids smoking during business hours. Before the Committee of Privileges and Elections Mr. Runion, of Martin & Runion testified that his firm had issued checks on the 6th of December for eight thousand dollars, payable to Lodd & Rush, Salem, Oregon. Runion declined to answer for whom he drew the check, regarding his business confidential. Mr. Kerson said as Senator and lawyer he would advise the witness to answer. Witness persisted in refusing to answer and the matter went over. Afterwards Runion testified he had drawn the check for W T Pelton, Secretary of National Democratic Committee. The check appears never to have been used. Col. Holliday of Virginia, was examined; was Centennial Commissioner and Democratic Elector, and did not attend the electoral college on account of his ineligibility, and the vacancy was filled according to law.

FOREIGN.

English Papers and their Surmises on the Turkish War.

LONDON, Jan 6.—The Globe states that Russia has ordered 14 (Krupp) eleven inch guns for Constatrad.

The Pall Mall Gazette in an editorial note says a telegram and news letter about the conference attitude of the Turks and disposition of Russians only deepen the obscurity of the whole question. It seems doubtful whether any time more uncertainty or confusion had prevailed than at this moment. It was clear that the committee of foreign statesmen in Constantinople has itself fallen into much disorder and that if the Turks are only resolute enough at this hour, and are thereafter truly solicitous and speedy in establishing reforms of their own and a new constitution, they may boast of having defeated and silenced all Europe.

NEW JERSEY.

Singular Death From Ether.

RAHWAY, Jan 6.—Last evening Walter Lewis, aged 12 years, was administered ether by Dr Westlake in order to have a tooth extracted and in fifteen minutes he was dead. It is believed death resulted from irregularity of the heart, as the ether administered was not enough to render him entirely unconscious. Westlake is prominent in his profession on Rahway, and has not been arrested.

FLASHES.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan 6.—The House appointed a committee to investigate the Ashtabula bridge disaster.

United States Senators and Negroes Dine—Together in New Orleans on Christmas Day.

[From the New Orleans Republican.]

A Christmas night reception was tendered to the United States Senators now in our city by Mr. and Mrs. J. Henri Bures, at their residence, No 382 Canal street. The gentlemen present were United States Senators Howe, Wadleigh, Oglesby, and McMillian; Governors Kellogg, Packard, Warmoth, and Pinchback; Lieutenant Governor Antoine; State Senators Blunt, Allain, Hamlet, and Harper; Representatives Heath, Jones, Lewis, and Stewart; Gen. George H Sheridan; Col. James Lewis; Messrs. Lines, Reland, Mitchell, Col Christie, A B Sloanaker, J D Kennedy, and O Hogart, attaches of the United States Senatorial Committee.

Kuntz furnished the menu, and Charley Yeager the music. Mrs. Burch received, and the United States Senators were highly pleased with the reception. The ladies present were Mrs. Lieutenant Antoine, Mrs. P B S Pinchback, Mrs. Wright Cunny, of Texas; Mrs. Col James Lewis, Miss Tillie Williams, Mrs. Wm Murrell, Mrs. James Quinn, Mrs. H P Williams, Mrs. H L Borey, Miss Jennie Miller, Mrs. Geo Paris, Mrs. Alex Kenner. The ladies were in brilliant toilets, and the gentlemen in full evening dress.

WHAT HAPPENED AT A HUCKING BEE.

There was a hucking bee down near Mount Pleasant the other night. One of the young ladies present rammed her hands into the husks and hauled out a snake as long as a whip lash and too cold to take much interest in the festivities. She fell over on her back and screamed, and shrieked until she was black in the face, but everybody thought she had only found a red eed, and they laughed at her, while the snake got inside of her ruffle and crawled painfully and rheumatically down her back. She was understood at last, and the snake was dragged out and killed, but she says if she was to live a thousand years she couldn't scream half as much as she wants to.

THE DUTY OF MESSRS. HAYES AND WHEELER.—The withdrawal of Mr. Hayes and Mr. Wheeler from a conflict in which they must perceive that victory would be dishonor is scarcely, perhaps, to be hoped for, but at least it may be said that two public men coming at the same time to a generous and straightforward resolution, have it in their power to break through the cobwebs of technicalities and trickery. Their country, we are sure, would not forget so noble a service. The presidential election, whatever the formal result, showed a popular majority of some 300,000 votes for the democratic ticket, and the withdrawal of the republican candidates would only give effect to the will of the people. It would be for the advantage even of the republican party itself, which, under a new republican administration, would irrevocably go to pieces, but which in opposition may hope speedily to renew its strength. The ratification of republic policy by a democratic government would be no unimportant gain, and it is certain that Mr. Tilden will be as little able or willing to disturb the constitutional amendments as the conservative administration of the last three years was disposed to converse the legislation of Mr. Gladstone's government.—London Times.

HOW THE DEMOCRATS PROPOSE TO GET EVEN WITH SECRETARY CHANDLER.—A special to the Baltimore American says the democrats of the house are already fixing up a programme of what they would like to see done in the event of Mr Tilden's inauguration, and among their plans is to one give prominent place to ex-Gov Austin Blair, of Michigan, as a recognition of the "liberals," or rather renegade republicans who went over to the democracy in the last campaign. As Austin Blair was one of Secretary Chandler's most implacable political foes, they think it would be a measure of poetic justice to let him succeed Chandler as secretary of the interior: They pretend to believe that there are some things in the interior department which ought to be thoroughly investigated and ventilated, and they know of no one who would take more pleasure or show more zeal in such an investigation and ventilation than Chandler's old foe.

JOSH BILLINGS' APHORISMS.—The grate first lit for bread, then butter on the bread, and then sugar on the butter.

Be merciful to all dumb animals; no man can get to Heaven on a sore backed horse.

The grate mistake that most people make is, they think more of their cunning than they do of their honesty.

The grate sekret ov popularity iz to make every one satisfied with himself first, and afterwards satisfied with yu.

The unhappiness of this life seems principally to konsist in getting everything we want and wanting everything we hain't got.

I hain't finally cum to the konklushun that the best epifit enny man can hav, for all praktikal purposes, is a good bank account.

Paupers suffer less than mizers do—the man who don't know where he iz going to git hiz next dinner, suffers less than the one who is anxious to know how much it iz a going to kost him.

The people of West Main street are hereby informed that there was not an ecipse of the sun caused by the fixed order of things yesterday afternoon. A naughty boy ut-tripped an Ohio-land girl, and her foot for an instant obscured the orb of day.—Reynolds Herald.

It is a moderate estimate that the attempt to count in Hayes has already cost the country, in the stoppage of business, in the enforced pauperism of laboring people, and the general decline in values, at least one thousand millions of dollars.—New York Sun.

The population of the globe, according to the German statistics, is 1,429,917,000, an increase of twenty-seven millions over the estimate of 1875.
