Probable Report of the Louisiana Senate Committee-Another of Chandler's Florida Telegrams -Gov Dix on the Electorial Bill - Lamar Speaking in Favor

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26. The foreshadowing of the Louisiana Senate Committee's report is that the majority will claim intimidation enough to justify the action of the Revote, but the board's action as illegal regarding State officers and the Legislature. The report will hold that the Leg slature should have been organized by members shown elected by the face of the returns. The report may also suggest that Kellogg hold over till the Legislature is organized on this basis, or recommend provisional military government. The minority rewill show that intimidation did exist is more than offset by the fraud and irregularities of the Returning Board. It is intimated that the Republican members regard Packard's government unfavorably, and will report specially.

CH Bush, of Florida, telegrapher, testified that Stearns telegraphed Secretary Chandler: "Bismark should be at or near Tallahassee immediately." bill now goes to the President. Ad-Chandler replied: "I have seen the journed. President and the Secretary of War, and troops will be sent." Knew nothing very definite, and declined to answer whether he had communicated this before.

Morton has a letter from ex-Gov Dix, endorsing his action, saying: "Hereafter the Republican party knew where to look for its leaders, who do not quail in time of trail."

Hayes on the Electoral Bill.

COLUMBUS, Jan 26.-In referring to the passage of the bill for counting the electoral vote, Governor Hayes said to a friend several days ago, who makes it public this morning: "I want it distinctly understood that I do not desire to influence the action of Congress one way or the other in the matter of the electoral bill or any other matter relating to the Presidential election. The whole thing is in the hands of Congress, and I shall be content with its action."

What is Man!

Charlotte, N. C.

If his chief good and market of his time Be but to sleep and feed? A beast no more

Tis true, man was not only made To eat and drink, and slumber gluttony and ease to pass His priceless days without Lumber,

Man has a higher, nobler aim Than "Inner-man's" gratification nd "folding the arms in sleep" alone-These things have their limitation.

One strives to reach the coveted goal In the toilsome road of love-Others to gain fame's topmost peak, Put forth their atmost power.

In the paths of artifice and trade, With vivid expectation, Others explore the deepest seas And make vast excavations.

But when the toils of day are o'er, Fatigue our energy quelling-Hew sweet and timely is quiet repose All cares from our minds dispelling.

And when the body craves for food, How opportune, how propitious have on hand a goodly stock Of nutriment dainty, delicious.
