1877. ECLECTIC MAGAZINE

Foreign Literature!

THIRTY-THIRD YEAR.

THE ECLECTIC reprints from all the for Quarterlies, Reviews, Magazines and Journals, their choicest contents, including Essays, Scientific Papers, Biographical sketches, Reminiscences of Travel and Adventure. Tales, Stories, and Poems. The field of selection is very large, and it is believed that the Eccueric presents a greater variety and higher standard of literature than any periodical can hope to do that depends exclusively upon home talent.

A knowledge of the current literature of other countries is indispensable to all who would keep pace with the progress of the human mind; and the ECLECTIC offers the best, and, indeed, the only, opportunity for obtaining this knowledge within a reasonable compass, and at a modorate price.

Among the writers represented in recent numbers of the ECLECTIC are: The Rt Hon W E Gladstone, James Anthony Froude. Matthew Arnold, Charles Kingsley, Robert Buchanan, Geo McDonald, John Ruskin, Alfred Tennyson, Thomas Hughes, William Black, Mrs Oliphant, Thos Hardy, William Max Mulier, J Norman Lockyer, Herbert Spencer, and others equally eminent. Bemagazine, there are four original Editorial Departments: Literary Notices. Foreign Literary Notes, Science and Art, and Varie-
