WASHINGTON!

The Troops to be Removed from the State House in Columbia.

Packard to be Bull Dozed into Abdication by the Commission.

DEBT STATEMENT.

The South Carolina Case Virtually Settled.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

Hon Stanley Matthews called upon the President at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The President then heard the Rev Dr Martin, President of the Indian Ashbury University.

The co-alition by which Foster, Garfield or Banks will become Speaker is said to be gaining ground.

The Republican reports Gov Hampton as stubborn on this subject. There is nothing this morning to change the programme foreshadowed for South Carolina.

Gov Hampton, Stanley Matthews and Judge Carter had a consultation during the day.

There is nothing new in the Louisiana situation beyond that a re-canvas of the direct vote for Governor will not be among the duties of the Commission, as re-opening the question might taint the general tenure here.

1st. To compromise Packard into abdication. 2d. To convene a legislature which will count him out. 3d. To withdraw any support and let him "peter out."

If the last remedy becomes necessary, a change in the Custom House will proceed the pacification, as it is known that Packard relies on that institution, as at present organized, for the sinews of war.

At a Cabinet meeting this morning, the Secretary of War was directed to prepare an order, transferring the troops from the State House in Columbia, S. C., to their camp.

The National debt decreased $14,107,016.41, of which $9,558,800 consists of cancelled Geneva abroad bonds.

Midnight.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

Af ormal order to Gen Ruler to remove the troops from the State House at Columbia to their camp, is being prepared by the Secretary of War, but will not be sent to Gen Ruler, or made public till to-morrow.

Gov Chamberlain, up to 4 o'clock this evening did not believe the conclusion to remove the troops from the State House had been reached.

When Gov Hampton was informed this afternoon, in advance of official notification, that an order would be issued for the removal of the troops from the State House, he expressed himself much gratified, but said, "It was no more than he expected from the principles announced in the inaugural address," and he was somewhat interested to know whether the order would take immediate effect, as he wished to be present in Columbia when it was executed.

Chamberlain dines with the President to-night and leaves for Columbia on Wednesday morning.

When Gov Hampton was informed this afternoon, in advance of official notification, that an order would be issued for the removal of the troops from the State House, he expressed himself much gratified, but said, "It was no more than he expected from the principles announced in the inaugural address," and he was somewhat interested to know whether the order would take immediate effect, as he wished to be present in Columbia when it was executed.

Columbia. It seems to be understood that, in accordance with Gov Hampton's wishes, the order will not reach Ruler until Wednesday.

War Again Imminent—A batch of Interesting Foreign News.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—In spite of the signing of the protocol the pessimist's views again prevail, and war is considered inevitable.

COLOGNE, April 2.—Count Henry Von Arnim has become blind from erysipelas.

PARIS, April 2.—It is reported that Charcoal, a skilled painter of Alsatian scenes suicided on account of approaching blindness.

LONDON, April 2.—A Daily News dispatch from Rome says: Gen Canetti presented to Cardinal Simconi on Friday, an album containing the signatures of over 80,000 volunteers prepared to shed their blood for the temporal power of the Pope.

A dispatch from Calcutta, says: The latest advices respecting the famine in Madras, the presidency reports an increase of 7,000 employed on the government relief works and £3,000 in number of those maritally relieved.

A special from Vienna to the Telegraph says: The Prince of Montenegro has refused to command the Bosnian insurgents, alleging that his consideration for Austria obligates his doing so.

PENNSYLVANIA.

No Combination Between the B & O, and Penn. Central Railroads.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2, 1877. In regard to the meeting of the Presidents of the Trunk Railroad lines, said to have taken place in New York on Saturday in reference to freight rates, East and West, the following is furnished in this city for publication:

IN order to correct the mischievous efforts of the false statements that have been made made as to the combination of the Erie, New York, Central and Pennsylvania Railroad Companies, in opposition to the Baltimore & Ohio Company, the following despatch from President Scott, is published:

To Jno W Garrett, Pres, Baltimore: I notice in some of the papers, a statement to the effect that the two New York lines, and the Pennsylvania Railroad had entered into a combination on Saturday, offensive and defensive against your road, all of which you have the best of reasons for knowing, is of course without any foundation whatever.

President Garrett states that all the allegations of bad faith between the Baltimore & Ohio Company are equally without foundation, and that this company can clearly demonstrate that its action throughout under the agreement of Dec. has been just and proper.

The Baltimore & Ohio Company has been, and continues to be not only willing, but earnestly desirous to advance rates to a remunerative standard, and to arrange and maintain all tariffs upon perfectly just and equitable principles, such as will, without doubt, meet with general approval.

It is understood that Mr Garrett left for New York this evening.

NEW YORK.

The Writ of Quo Warranto—Mr Hayes' Title to the Presidency to be Tried in the Courts, and not by an 8 to 7 Commission.

New York, April 2.—The Express says: While Judge Carter of the District of Columbia, has said that no proceeding has been instituted in his court to test the title of Mr Hayes to the Presidency upon the authority of a gentleman who has seen papers, it may be stated that they are prepared, and in possession of Hon RT Merrick, a lawyer of Washington, who represented Mr Tilden before the electoral commission.

It is claimed though the electoral commission had not the power under the electoral law to ascertain the facts not presented in the lawful certificates of electors, the court would have power to sift the question by full enquiry into the law and the facts.

OHIO.

The Fire Fiend

CINCINNATI, April 2.—A fire at Eminence, Morgan county, Indiana, on Friday, destroyed 13 houses, and the Masonic Hall. Loss $50,000. Insurance small. The dispatch states that at an early hour this morning, a fire was raging in Monroeville, Ohio, a town near Sandusky, and as a very high wind was prevailing, the whole town would probably be consumed.

AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE.—A very impressive and interesting incident was witnessed at the Edenton Street Methodist Church yesterday morning—the reception into the communion of that church of three young ladies, deaf mutes, from the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind institution of this city.

The names of the young ladies are Martha Henrietta Austin, of Caldwell county, Nancy Ellen Poovey, of Catawba, and Sarah Preddy, of Guilford. To the last named was administered the ordinance of baptism, the others having been baptised in infancy.

The morning sermon, preached by the Presiding Elder, Rev. Dr. Wilson, the young ladies took their positions at the altar, Mr. David Dudley, a teacher in the institution, acting as interpreter. The baptismal service of the church was impressively read by the pastor, Dr. Burkhead, and interpreted to the young ladies by Mr. Dudley, he receiving their responses and communicating them to Dr. Burkhead.

The whole scene was one of impressive solemnity, especially as the young ladies seemed fully to understand and appreciate the position they occupied and the vows they were taking upon themselves.—Ral. News.

"Functuality is the Hinge of Business." In families where Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is kept, there is never a case of absence from school or business on account of Coughs, Colds or Sore Throats.
