with the addition of an alarm bell .-Richmond Dispatch. MR STEPHENS AND THE LADIES -Several of the ladics who have been at the National Hotel through the Winter, have been faithful nurses to Mr Stephens. He has been most appreciative of their tender care, and one JEANS day said to one of them whom he was thanking for her attention: "You are the only one of my nurses here who has never kissed me." The lady (who is a grandmother) immediately stooped and kissed him on the forehead. When he expressed his pleasure, she said to him: "Mr Stephens, I wonder that Dams you, who appreciate women so highly, have never married." "Ah, yes," he answered, "but there's story about that." This he did not tell, but intimated he had a love affair in his youth which had caused him to remain un- Tickingmarried .- New York Graphic.

A natural bridge, far more wonderful than that in Virginia, has recently been discovered in Elliott county, Kentucky. It is of solid stone, and forms a magnificent arch 162 feet long and 15 feet wide at the top, the river, the Little Ghaney, rolling over 100 feet below. Fifty yards above the brige is a waterfall 60 feet high, and the view from the bridge is said to be extremely beauti-

MESSES. MAX WELL & SYMONS, of Charlotte, N. C., and native North Carolinians, will bring before the people of North Carolina in a few days, a splendid Line Engraving, 18x22, (size of print, not of paper of our noble and beloved Governor. It is in a style of art unsurpassed. It is not a cheap Lithograph, such as we see used for theatre and circus celebrities, but is a magnificent work of art-a genuine Line Engraving. It is a remarkable likeness, an artistic portrait, and portrays to perfection the cordial, friendly, but decisive features of Inspectors—L W Sanders, Wm Sloan, John this great man of the people-a man who pessessing the tenderest sympathies, is the friend of every man, and a giant intellect is the leader and controller of a great commonwealth. It should be in the home of every Carolinian, and the price ($2) at which it is offered places it within the reach of all. It would be cheap-at $5.
