The New Orleans Collectorship.

Gray Charges Against an American.

Unexpended.

Judge King appointed Collector at the Port of New Orleans.

The Cabinet wrestled all day yesterday with the Louisiana Collectorship. The price nearly went to Gov. Anderson, the President and Secretary Sherman, both desiring his appointment. His name was withdrawn at his own request.

Gen. Buggy has the heaviest mercantile recommendations, but the Cabinet will probably wait before the Senate in a matter of a week before the Senate in a matter of a week before the Senate in a matter of a week before the Senate.

The Danube Closed to Navigation.

England Preparing for the Inevitable.

There is great excitement among the British and American publicists as to the result of the Danube being closed to navigation by the Russian fleet.

McMillan has the highest political recommendations, but the gossip about his own anxiety to get into the Nichols Legislature, is against him.

No conclusion reached.

Judge King, one of the Kellogg-Packard Supreme Court Judges, is in the field this morning.
