THE EASTERN WAR.

The Porte accepts the Protectoral.
The Czar Proud of his People.
Roumania will Defend her Hearths.
Lord Derby on the Russian Circular.
Turkey Denies Persecuting Christians.

of 1876. The Figaro says in the course of his address, that Count Von Moltke drew a masterly parallel between the French and German armies, and incidentally remarked that the Persians will need all their resources to overcome the Turks. Though unquestionably the foregoing is having an effect on the Paris Bourse, it seems ridiculous, and the Figaro, a notorious, unscrupulous sensation monger. It may pass away, but there is danger that any bad news now, would develop it. The Times, in a leading article, says: "We think Russia's assumption of the concurrence of Europe in her action, made a formal protest imperative. Earl Derby's dispatch makes this protest with effect and dignity. Our hands, at all events, are free."
CONSTANTINOPLE, May 7.—The blockade of the Black Sea, at ports, will be maintained by twenty Turkish vessels.
NOTE.—[This looks like a blockade in gross, not in detail. That is the planing of a squadron at the entrance of the Bosphorus, to shut off communication between Russian ports and the Mediterranean.]
PARIS, May 7.—The official journal publishes a neutrality decree and an official notification of the blockade of the Black Sea.
ERZEROU, May 7.—The Russian right wing is marching through Goules and Tchildir, evidently with the purpose, unless prevented by the Turks, of turning the second Turkish line of defence at Soghautle. The Russian centre, in the plain of Kars, seem to be awaiting the result of this movement, and of the movements of the left wing, which is trying to force its way from Bayazed by way of Surekay.
MANCHESTER, May 7.—The Guardian's London dispatch states that the channel fleet has received orders to repair to the Mediterranean.
The news of the defeat of the Russians at Batram, with the capture of three guns is confirmed. Everything, however, tends to show that the Russians are very strong in Asia, and it is likely they will advance quietly. The Russians seem to be waiting for reinforcements. Fresh troops and Krupp gun are landing daily and going forward from Trebizonde.
Advices have reached St Petersburg of the bombardment of Kars, which was commenced yesterday. An assault is expected to day. Grand Duke Nicholas is expected to reach Bucharest by the 10th.
Becket was shelled by the Turks yesterday evening. Bashi Bazarouks plundered the neighboring villages at the same time, and returned with the spoils across the Danube.

War Items.
The Porte accepts the German protectoral of Russian subjects.
The Czar addressing the Estates at Moscow, concluded: "To-day, I am happy to be able to thank my people for their patriotism, which has been proved by deeds. Their readiness to undergo sacrifices exceeds our expectations. May God assist us to fulfill our task, and bless our troops who are about to engage in combat for their faith, Emperor and fatherland."
12,000 Russians while attempting to force Agnent Pass, east of Kars were repulsed.
The Russian assaults on Kars were repulsed with heavy loss.
Abdula, the famous Kurd Chief, is about starting for the Russian frontier with 10,000 Kurds.
Muhktar Pasha telegraphs that in consequence of Thursday's repulse, the Russians are compelled to move back their camp.
The Roumanian Senate, answering the address of the Prince, declares that the Senate will never counsel any hazardous or dangerous policy, still less any attack on Turkey, which would be an unpardonable act of thoughtlessness and concludes: "Nevertheless we will defend our hearths if attacked."
Derby's answer to the Russian circular concludes: "It is impossible to foresee the consequences of such an act. Her Majesty's government would willingly have refrained from any observations in regard to it, but as Prince Gortschakoff seems to assure in his declaration addressed to all the governments of Europe, that Russia is acting in the interests of Great Britain, and of the other powers, they feel bound in a manner equally formal and public, that the decision of the Russian government is not one which can have their concurrence or approval.
The rumors that Kars is captured and Erzeroum is in danger, need confirmation.
Advices show the Russians approaching the Danube slowly but formidably.
Despatches received in New York from Constantinople, authorizes the Turkish Legion to declare that the news of the persecution having been lately practiced upon certain Christian villages on the right bank of the Danube is without foundation in so far as regards bad treatment, to which the Israelites are said to have been subjected in Giurgevo. The Turkish legion is authorized to state that there are no Turkish inhabitants or troops occupying that town, which is situated on the left bank of the Danube, and which is under the government of Bucharest, consequently the Ottoman administration declines all responsibility for any event which may have taken place in Giurgevo. The Israelites having equal rights in Turkey with all other Ottoman subjects, of whatever religion, the Sublime Porte is determined that they shall be respected, and as a new proof of his high impartiality, His Majesty the Sultan has been pleased to nominate A Davidch, an Effendi Israelite, Senator of the Empire.
LONDON, May 7.—Business on the Stock Exchange is flat; consols opened at 79 and were subsequently better.
Lord Derby's reply to Prince Gortschakoff's circular had a bad effect. The Paris Bourse is also flat and rentes are quoted at about 108 francs partly on account of the British news and partly in consequence of a sensational article in the Figaro yesterday purporting to be a confidential address of Count Von Moltke to the German Staff, explaining the necessity for his recent speech in the Reichstag, saying it was intended as a cold shower bath for France. France is peaceful now because she knows that she is not able to fight Germany, but if she had a fair chance her bitter hatred against Germany would inevitably break forth. Such a chance would be an alliance which she now has a prospect of effecting with Austria. The latter has never forgotten Sadowa, and Russia is not now as in 1870, able to enforce her neutrality. Count Von Moltke said it might be necessary for Germany in the event of such an alliance, to act with like swiftness as in former campaigns. The officers would shortly receive detailed instructions for measures to be taken with a view to the complications which the Count hoped might not arise, but which he held it his duty to forestall against. Until such instructions were received the staff could continue to be guided by the instructions

WASHINGTON!

The Pope's Temporal Power.
Spain and France Opposed to its Restoration.
GEORGE H. BUTLER REMOVED.
Stephens Gains his Case
Consolidation of Pension Agencies.

WASHINGTON, May 7.
Advices from Paris and Madrid indicate the unpopularity of any attempt to restore the Pope's temporal power, but a fixed determination to secure for him complete and real independence.
Col Geo H. Butler, nephew to Ben, recently appointed of the Post Office Department for the Black Hills, has been removed.

WASHINGTON, May 7.
Hon Alexander H. Stephens gains his case in the United States Supreme Court. The case was that of Stuart & Co. et al appellants, vs Root & Co. et al appellees, argued on the 30th ult., by Alexander H. Stephens and C. Plumer. The case was decided in their favor to-day, on the ground that Judge Hood erred in not scaling the debt according to the value of Confederate currency at the date of contracting the same. The Department of Justice to-day ceased to issue funds to the United States Marshals to carry on the courts, for lack of the appropriation.
The million five twenties act, March 30th, 1865, dated November 1st, interest ceases August 5th.
The mission to St James is at the disposal of ex-Secretary Fish.
Blaine is here.
The ironclad Dictator arrived safely at League Island from Port Royal today.
The Pension Agencies in the South are all discontinued, except at Richmond, Louisville and New Orleans, with which the rest are consolidated, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Florida are attached to the District of New Orleans.
