THE MORMON CHIEF UNABSY.

Brigham Young has been worshipped like a God by his deluded followers and has been permitted to pursue his incestuous idolatry with perfect freedom, by the authorities of the United States. But it is now pretty evident that his day is about run and that trouble will overtake him at the close of his long life of imposition and shame. Verily in his case, is the scriptural prophecy about the end of the vicked from Salt Lake show that great uneasiness prevails in the breast of the Mormon Chief, lest he suffer for complicity in the horrid Mountain Meadow massacre, that was enacted a few years ago. The saints saw that some of their number had to be sacrificed to atone for this inhuman butchery, and they gave up Lee as a sacrifice thinking probably his execution would appease the public mind. But not so; it was a haster grievous crime and grievously must it be atoned for, and justice demands that all the actors in the awful crime, must expiste it with their own blood. The eyidence seems to be daily accumulating that Brigham Young was one of the leading spirits in the movement, and measures are being taken to ferin New York, is endeavoring to show that ret out his guilt, that he too must pay he is insane because he was once an alder the terrible penalty. Popping the Question.

One of the Daubury young men who has occasionally escorted a young lady home on Sunday evenings, and went in fer lunch, after performing both services last Sunday night, suddenly said

"Do you talk in your sleep?"
"Why-no," she answered, in sur-"Do you walk in your sleep?" he next inquired.

He moved his chair an inch cleser, and with increased interest asked:

"Do you snore?"
"No," she hastily replied, looking At this reply his eyes fairly sparkled.

His lips eagerly parted, and as he gave his chair another hitch, he briskly inquired:

Now is the time of year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, &c. Every family should have a bottle of Boschee's German Syrap. Don't atlow for one moment that cough to take quired:

"Do you throw the combings from our hair in the wash basin?" "What's that?" she asked with He repeated the question, although with increased nervousness. "No, I don't," she answered, in some

Again his chair went forward, while his agitation grew so great that he could scarcely maintain his place upon it as he further asked :

"Do you clean out the comb when you are through?"
'Of course I do," she said, staring at him with all her might. In an instant he was on his knees before her, his eyes ablaze with flame, and his hands outstretched.

'Oh, my dear Miss, I love you," he passionately cried. "I give my whole heart to you. Love me, and I will be your slave. Love me as I love you,
