Thursday, June 7, 1877. CHAS. R. JONES, Editor & Proprietor.

Free from the dotting scruples that enter our free-born reason.

INFLEXIBLE RULES.

We cannot receive anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address...

OBSERVATIONS.

Modern marriages, says a contemporary, begin with a court and end with a court.

We don't care a straw what Shakespeare says, "a rose by any other name" would not smell as sweet.

George Francis Train says that Boston is "crowded with the midnight livery of unutterable gloom."

Stealing is not a crime in New Orleans. It has been decided that ice is water, and water is a free gift of Nature.

The cucumber season has set in, and a man is awakened up at two o'clock in the morning, after dreaming that an elephant is sitting on his equator...

Col W C P Breckinridge, the son of the late ex-Vice President John C Breckinridge, of Kentucky, will deliver an address on June 24...

A grove of great trees of the Yosemite has just been explored. It is of an altitude similar to that of the other groves, 6,000 feet.

Addressing a large temperance meeting, Mr. Walters, proprietor of the London Times urged men to drink the lighter malt liquors instead of more intoxicating fluids.

Clerk Adam's roll for the next House of Representatives has been completed, and it shows a majority of eleven for the Democrats.

Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, of Centennial fame, has been knighted by the King of Holland, and will be known as Sir Joseph Hawley.

It is said that the amount of money annually expended in telegraphing over the cables is estimated to be something over $111,000,000.

Hayes takes the proper view of things when he says that the collection of revenues should be based on a purely business basis without partisan in control...

The drought in Texas and California has been more destructive than in other States from which we have accounts. The streams and pools have in many places dried up...

Gen Phil Sheridan says that he is willing to forgive the rebels conditionally. He still remembers how much property he destroyed, and how many thousand rebel houses he reduced to ashes...

In a recent editorial on the exposure in the revenue department, we alluded to Mr Dick, brother of Judge Dick, as being one of the parties arrested by the Heister. We were led into the error by the press dispatches.

TOOMBS AND HAYES.—How extremes do sometimes meet! Bob Toombs who is now at Hot Springs, Arkansas recently made a speech at that place, in which he spoke in the warmest terms of approval of Hayes and his policy.

The examination of candidates for Attorneys license was the only business transacted. The class numbers twenty-six young men representing every section of the State.

This world is not to be won to Christ by hoarding, racing, theater-going, novel-reading, tobacco-smoking and chewing Christians! Loud Applause! Do not clap your hands and stamp your feet, but stand up against these things.

Ben Butler is mad, and it would be proper to label him like the English school teacher did little David Copperfield, with the warning words of, "do not touch him, for he will bite."

The Association of Medical Superintendents of the insane institutions of the United States and the Canadian convened at St. Louis, Mo., May 30th.

Dr. Eugene Grissom, of North Carolina, delivered a very interesting address on the subject of "Mechanical Protection for the Violent Insane."

The address seemed to have been called out by the meeting of the American insane hospitals in the London Lancet from the pen of John Charles Bucknill, M. D., F. R. S., and a Commissioner of Lunacy in England.

Dr. Bucknill visited America about two years ago for his health, and every where in this country, to use his own language, was courteously received by members of the specialty.

Dr. Grissom's address was a most interesting one, and from what he there hastily gleaned, he proceeded, on his return to England, upon a wholesale slaughter of American institutions.

I had rather be called grandpa by a half dozen bright, impetuous young ones, than have them all to light onto me at once, like a swarm of bees, than to be the only autokrat of all the Russias.

Never horror anything that you are to buy. Borrowing will demoralize a man almost as fast as stealing. A man is never thoroughly played out until he gets so low down that nobody will abuse him.

No man can be very cunning only at the expense of his honesty. The man who don't care whether he wins or not when he flips cards, or bips anything else is a weak poltroon.

Ignorance is bliss, until you cum to look back upon it, and see what a great deal it has made of you. Writings and drink are the greatest up rakers, making it look as if your stummskum than they do of any other part of their property.

Life is made up of sunshine and shaddo, about five shaddos to one sunshine. The reason there are so many failures in this world is because most of us are quaking and aching to make ten strikes with pony balls.

I have figured a good deal onto it, and haint made up my mind yet which a woman is the most powerful in her will or her wants. Ignorance and cunning is always a weak together; so is humility and wisdom.

After a man gets to be thirty-eight years old he can't form any nu habits. The best he can do is to steer his bad ones. Truth is the only thing that don't lose in translation. Truth is the same in Hotentott as it is in his Dutch or Anglo Saxony.

There is no such thing as a free lunch, and yet I had rather be a monkey than an elephant. The man who can't keep a sekret haint got much grip of karaktar. Sekrets and soap bubbles are liable to bust at any time.

To give strength to a man, to receive weakness is a hin. Law is an excellent thing, but it never made a man pious or temperate. When a man haint got anything actually to do, I like to see him lazy about it; akkive lazyness is one of the worst diseases that any man ken hav.

When a man becums mad with the world and sez he is agoin to go into solitide, I like to see that the world don't try to hold him, but lets him want. Extreme gravity is more bekuming to a phool than it is to a wise man. He that would put munny in his fob, must either do the work or boss the job.
