GROCERIES --- WHOLESALE.

From wa tons. Fro a storge.

Of the Ellenton trial, the Charleston News says: "History records no baser instance of the attempted prostitution of the solemn rites of justice to the dia bolical ends of revengeful partisan policicians."

It is not so much, says the Greenville News, the heavier burden of taxa tion imp sed by the fraudulent debt, as it is the infamy of the fraud that the people resist.

The Hampton H-rald says: Col L P. Sadler, who for a year or more had been in a low state of health, breathed his last on Sunday the 2d ins ant, at his residence about five miles west of FRESH MEATS Rock Hill In the social circle he was kind, generous and hono able, enjuy-ing the esteen and confidence of all who knew him.

Columbia Register: It is no dispar agement to the many worthy gentle- TALLOWmen who have been suggested in con- BEESWAXnection with the anticipated vacancy Honey on the beach of the Fifth Circuit to refer to the eminent fitness and rare merit of General J. B Kershaw, who, it is now probable, will receive the Democratic nomination for the position. General Kershaw has an eminently judicial mind, is learned in the law, diligent in the discharge of duty and fearless and incorruptible. With McIver as Associate Justice and Kershaw upon the circuit bench, it will indeed seem that South Carolina has her own again.

Charleston News and Courier: When the entire fundable debt of the State shall have been converted into Consolidation bonds and stocks, the State debt will amount to $5,976,917. This result is obtained by the repudiation, by the Republicans, in 1873 of the $6,000,000 of spurious Conversion bonds, and by the scaling of the remainder of the debt to 50 cents on the dollar. The actual bonded debt of the LARD-State October 31, 1867, principal and interest, was $5,528.576. To this must be added the bonds issued to redeem the bills receivable issued under Governor Orr's administration, making the ante-reconstruction debt $6,007, 576; or $30,659 more than the debt under the Consolidation act.

Qil Yourself a Little.

There is true humor in the following story; Once upon a time there lived an old gentleman in a large house. He had servants and everything he wanted, yet he was not happy, and when things did not go as he wished, he was very cross -At last his servant left Corres-Mocca, 40 Java, 271a29 Rio, 20a231 him. Quite out of temper, he went TEAto a neighbor with a story of distress. "It seems to me," said the neighbor, sagaciously, "twould be well for you to oil yourself a little."

"To oil myself?" "Yes; and I will explain. Some time ago one of the doors in my house FLOUR-creaked. Nobody therefore liked to go in or out by it. One day I oiled its hinges, and it has been constantly used by everybody ever since."

"Then you think I am like the MEAL—per bushel, 7828 creaking door," cried the old gentle GRITS per bbl man. "How do you want me to oil Homney-per bbl

"That's an easy matter," said the neighbor. "Go home and engage a servant, and when he does right, praise him. If, on the contrary he does something amiss, do not be cross; oil your voice and words with the oil

The old gentleman went home, and no harsh or ugly words were ever heard in the house afterwards. Every family should have a bottle of this precious oil, for every family is HAY-Unchopped Timothy, per cwt. liable to have a creaking hinge in the shape of a fretful disposition, a SALTcross temper, a harsh tone, or a faultfinding spirit.

GEO. E. BADGER.—For instance, there looms before us that Titan of intellect, the late Hon. Geo. E Badger, who, take him all, in the Senate, the Cab prints is not unlikely. inet, the Forum, at the Bar, in the (Jobbing Chambers of Jurisprudence, in literary SHEETING AND SHIETINGS or theological disquistion, or in collo-quial brilliancy and force, was, (we say it unheritatingly,) the peer of any man his generation saw. In particular departments other men, of course, have excelled Mr. Badger. Mr. Webster rose, doubtless, to loftier heights of Senatoriald ignity and eloquence; Mr. Clay swayed the multitude with more PRINTSimpassioned utterances; Mr. Calhoun was more more æsthetic and as logical; many learned D. D's knew more of theologic hermeneutics, other lawyers may have made abler arguments JEANS AND COTTONADES at the Bar or before the Bench; Coleridge or Johnson may have been better talkers—but take the combination of all the powers in one man, and Mr. Badger was the equal of any man his day produced or developed, with the pretension to scientific investigations

A distinguished physician of New York says:

"It is astonishing how universally Dr. Tutt's Pills are used. In my daily rounds, I hear of them not only among the poor, but their virtues are heralded from the mansions of the wealthy and refined. Knowing the inventor from his long connection with the medical profession, I have great confidence in their merits, and of late have often prescribed them with the happiest results in cases where I desired to make a decided impression on the liver,"
