All the departments seem in trouble over their expenditures for newspaper advertising.

Garfield is here. The Star says it is now in order for him to give the text of that letter.

The Pension Agency for Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia and Tennessee will be located at Knoxville. It is understood Hayes favors Knoxville and Schurz favors Richmond. A big fight is progressing.

So much of the international postal treaty as affects Cuba, goes into effect on the 15th inst.

Gov McCormick, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has two weeks leave of absence and left for New York today.

O H Dockery of North Carolina, is in consultation with the President over the slate of that State.

NEW YORK.

Gov Hendricks on the "Great Fraud."

A Significant Speech.

New York, June 13.—Mr Hendricks having returned thanks for the honor done him, alluded to the presidential election, and said the result as declared in Louisiana and in Florida, and at Washington, is not, and cannot be made satisfactory to the country, for the obvious reason, that it was not true. Great and sincere people will rest their final judgment only upon truth, and never upon fraud, successful though technicality.

The Democrats will make no factional opposition for what they seek, to embarrass or defeat the administration, but will sustain it in what is right, because it is right, and for the welfare of the country, and not at all because of any fealty to a party that stands defeated and condemned by the people. The people cannot allow a selection of their chief magistrate to become a thing of chance, or of party politics.

The "fraud" first triumphant in American history, must be assigned to its proper place, among the curses against popular government, and made so odious that no party will dare attempt its repetition. He who is elected president, must be inaugurated, and until that is settled and made sure, no Democrat can be seduced from his devotion and allegiance, in any way. Not by the allurements of office, nor even by the strong appeal, in the abandonment by the administration of vicious principles and dangerous policies, and the adoption of better doctrines and just measures. The Democrats will not trust their most cherished principles, to the keeping of a power which is attained by vicious and corrupt means. They will rather continue their faith in the right of majority rule, in accordance with constitutional provisions. All Democrats rejoice with unbounded joy, that free republican government is once more allowed to the States of South Carolina and Louisiana. They rejoice in the good results that must follow. They know that peace and good order will prevail; that capital will be made secure, and labor safe, contented and happy; that corruption will revive, and the cruel burdens of the government, and public corruption, will be lifted from the shoulders of labor, and that productions will increase, and lands advanced in price. But they know that in the language of Gov. Morton, it had become inevitable. Good government in the States, was not a free will offering upon the part of the country. For years, the Democrats had contended in Congress, and before the people, for free republican States throughout the South, and finally it became "inevitable," because the right and truth were too strong to be longer suppressed. In this, the Democrats find a reason to stand more firmly with their party, out of power, with no patronage to dispose of, and no money to distribute, but animated by the spirit of our institutions, and inspired by the sentiment of the right of local self government as inherent.

The Democratic party, during the past ten years, has restored one State after another, until now the tread of soldiers, is heard in no legislative hall, but in every State, people are governed by laws of their own enacting, and by officers of their own choosing. Mr. Hendricks concluded with the declaration, that this occasion had more than a personal significance; it proclaimed that we had no sectional sentiment, no Eastern or Western politics. The East and the West, and the South, were one. A wise and just policy would alike promote the prosperity of each. Frederick Prentice, president of the Producers, Land Petroleum Co., has failed. Liabilities, half a million.

ACROSS THE WATERS.

Prince Gortschakoff's Letter Generally Unsatisfactory.

The United States Cable Company to be Wound Up.

Turks Threatening the Russian's Supply Communications.

Two Towns Re-occupied by the Turks.

LONDON, June 13.—The Times' Vienna Correspondent says: Prince Gortschakoff's letter has been officially communicated to other Cabinets. It seems it has not given such complete satisfaction as was expected. The wording on the points relative to Constantinople and the Dardanelles has not been found quite so clear and precise as to exclude ambiguous rendering and set doubts at rest.

The National Line steamship Spain, from New York for Liverpool passed Crook Haven at 6 A. M. today, having in tow the Indian Line steamship City of Berlin, also from New York for Liverpool. The City of Berlin is disabled.

An extraordinary meeting of the Directors of the U S Cable Company will be held on Tuesday, 26th of June, when resolutions winding up the company will be presented. If the resolutions are adopted, they will be confirmed at a second extraordinary meeting.

A special dispatch from Vienna to the Manchester Guardian says: The Turkish detachment which has entered the Russian districts of Achaich, is threatening the Russian's communication with Ardahan. Should the Turkish commander succeed, the task of victualing the Russian armies will be very difficult.

The New Free Press of Vienna has a special dispatch from Erzeroum, which says: On the approach of the three flying columns sent by Mukhtar Pasha against the Russian right wing, the Russians not only evacuated Ahi, but also Pennek, at the foot of the pass over the Kanly range, leading to Ardahan! Both Ahi and Pennek were re-occupied by the Turks, who also went in pursuit of the Russians.

MARYLAND

The Washington Cemetery at Hagerstown, Dedicated—4,000 People Present—Oration by General Fitzhugh Lee.

BALTIMORE, June 13.—The Washington Cemetery at Hagerstown, where the Confederate dead, killed in the battles of Antietam and South Mountain, are interred, was formally dedicated yesterday, with appropriate memorial ceremonies, and graves strewn with flowers. The oration was delivered by General Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia. There were about four thousand persons present. The cemetery was incorporated in 1870, by the legislature of Maryland, with an appropriation of five thousand dollars, which has since been increased to ten thousand. The States of Virginia and West Virginia, have also made appropriations of handsome marble monuments that adorn the grounds on which almost twenty-five hundred Confederate dead are buried.

ALABAMA.

Rains General—Crops, Except Oats, Good—Alabama Pays the Interest on Her Public Debt.

MONTGOMERY, June 13.—Rains are very general in Alabama, and have been of great good to the crops. Oats are comparatively a failure. Wheat is the best crop ever made. Corn and cotton are clean and doing well.

The Governor has forwarded money to the Bank of the State of New York with which to pay the interest due July 1st, on the Alabama State bonds.

NEW YORK.

Genl Shields, Senator Kernan and Gov Wade Hampton to Clasp Hands over the "Bloody Chasm."

AUBURN, June 13.—The 25th anniversary of the Shields Guards of Auburn will be held on the 20th inst. Gen Shields, Gov Wade Hampton, and Hon Francis Kernan will be present.

GEORGIA.

The Convention Question.

AUGUSTA, June 13.—Partial returns from Forty-eight counties give 2,013 majority in favor of convention. The indications are that the question will be decided in the affirmative.

Fast Mail South.

RICHMOND, June 13.—Information has been received here that the Postal Commission have decided to recommend, or have recommended, the Post Master General to concentrate all Southern mails via Richmond, which have heretofore gone via Lynchburg, Va., and Louisville, Ky.

"The Freedom of a City."

"The Freedom of the city," in its English sense, is explained as meaning much more than the "hospitality of a city" frequently extended by mayors of American cities to distinguished guests. Gen. Grant for instance, is to receive "the freedom of the City of London in a gold box." On some convenient occasion he will appear before the city chamberlain to receive it. His name will be enrolled in the book, with the name of the clerk and officers of the city chamber as his "compurgators" who make themselves responsible for his good citizenship. The chamberlain then administers the oath of fidelity, shakes hands with him, and gives him, in a gold box, a parchment slip warranting to him and to his children dwelling within seven miles of the city, "the franchise of a freeman of London." This carries with it certain rights and privileges. For instance, he may, if he chooses, carry on any retail trade without being taxed. If he elects to live in the city, he will be free from all tolls and customs, and if his children should be left orphans they will have the right to become the wards of the city. It will thus be seen that, although Gen. Grant will not probably avail himself of any of these franchises, the freedom of the city of London means something tangible and substantial. Among those who have received a similar compliment are Gen. Blucher, Monsieur Thiers, and the Emperors of France, Russia, Persia and Turkey.

He who is puffed up with the first glaze of prosperity will bend beneath the first blast of adversity.

For a good breakfast or tea, you often have to make rolls, biscuits and such delicacies, in about ten minutes. It is easy and certain with Dooley's Yeast Powder, the best of them all. Troubled housewife, here is one cause of your annoyances swept away like magic. Full weight and the best material are the watchword of the manufacturers.
