Ray is after the district attorneyship.

It is still said that Isabelle will be retained as pension agent.

Secretary Sherman is said to be preparing a letter in the interest of the four per cents. The intention was to say on the bonds themselves, that they would be paid in gold, but the opinion of the attorney general having been requested, he replied that in the strict wording of the law, the principal is payable in coin of the standard value, at the time the law was passed, must be adhered to.

Nicholas Fish, first secretary of the legation, at Berlin, has been appointed minister to Switzerland. He is a son of ex-Secretary Fish.

The president has issued his proclamation ordering the public sale of lands at Harrison, Ark., Monday, October 1, 1877. Similar proclamations will be issued for the sale of public lands in Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, under a recent law restoring them to market.

NEW YORK.

A Hornet's Nest Aroused.

A Prominent Jewish Banker Refused Entertainment at the Grand Union Hotel.

A Mass Meeting to Consider the Cause.

Judge Hilton's Explanation of the Affair.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Joseph Seligman, banker, and a member of the syndicate to place American securities, for ten years had summered with his family at the Grand Union Hotel. Arriving as usual, Seligman was informed by the manager, that Mr. Hilton was instructed not to entertain Israelites.

Mr. Seligman—"You mean to tell me that you will not entertain Jewish people?"

Manager—"That is our order, sir."

Seligman returned to New York and wrote Hilton a bitter letter. Seligman's friends held a meeting to consider the affair. The chairman said that the Jews of this city and country, could not afford to let this matter rest. A long discussion followed, as to what course should be pursued. The programme is to call a mass meeting of the Jewish residents of the city, at an early day, and also invite a number of leading citizens, clergymen and others, and lay the facts before them, and take such measures as well it is believed, alter the present opinions of the proprietor of the Grand Union Hotel.

Judge Hilton said to a reporter last night, that "Mr. Seligman was not ejected from the Grand Union Hotel. He, in an ostentatious manner, it seems, demanded the best apartments. If Mr. Seligman had come to me personally, I would, perhaps, have seen to his accommodation, but the management of the house, had been placed absolutely in the hands of Messrs. Claire and Wilkinson, because of their special ability to take care of so vast and valuable a property, and they had been instructed to carefully discriminate as to their guests. Mr. Seligman fell under this discrimination."

Judge Hilton does not consider Mr. Joseph Seligman a Hebrew, and says that Mr. Seligman is a Jew in the trade sense of the word, and a class of Jews he represents, while they are not forbidden to come to the Grand Union Hotel, they are not encouraged to come, the proprietors having good discrimination.

The Fight Before Kars.

Newspaper Correspondents Deprived of their Firmans.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 19.—The Chamber of Deputies voted for an internal loan of five million Turkish pounds, and a five per cent tax in the salaries of the officials.

VERSAILLES, June 19.—Jules Ferry, in the Chamber of Deputies, answering the ministry said: "The constitution provides for the trial of the President, if he commits high treason.

LONDON, June 19.—The Times' Berlin correspondent telegraphs that the German press comments upon an inspired letter in Vienna.

A semi-official political correspondence insinuating that Capt Wellesly, the British attache and suite, supply the Turks with military intelligence from the Russian camps, there seems to be no doubt that the Russians fancying themselves betrayed, are remodeling their order of bataille on the Danube.

While the Turkish war office insists upon making a defence of the Balkans the decisive stage of the war, the Turkish headquarters hope to be able to assume an energetic offensive in the event of the Russians succeeding in crossing the Danube.

EDINBURGH, June 19.—The Scotsman's London correspondent writes that the Earl of Derby and Marquis of Salisbury hold very opposite views regarding a Russian occupation of Constantinople. Lord Salisbury believes that Prince Gortchakoff will not advise that the city should be held for a long time. Lord Derby would at once inform Russia, that she will only march there at the risk of meeting British as well as Turkish troops. The writer adds: I am informed that whatever may be the truth about the reported disunion, the Cabinet has taken certain military precautions. A large army corps is ready for immediate service, and transports can be obtained.

The Herald's cable specials say there is no longer any reason to doubt that the Turks have suffered a severe defeat at Kars. Every effort is being made by the authorities at Constantinople to conceal the truth in reference to the Asiatic campaign. Mukhtar Pasha had established a portion of his forces near the river Phasis, between Kars and Erzerum, with the object of covering his communication with the latter city. This force had taken the precaution to erect earthworks, and considered themselves safe. On Thursday last, the Russians unexpectedly appeared in force, and began a vigorous attack. The Turks repulsed the attacking columns several times, only giving way when driven from their positions by superior numbers. The battle continued till nightfall, the advantage resting with the Russian forces. Several redoubts had been captured and held. At day break the battle was renewed and continued during the day. The Turks were driven from all their positions by the Russian assaults. The heavy losses sustained by the Turks, bear witness to the obstinacy of their defence. The loss of this position is very serious for Mukhtar Pasha's army as the Russian force now directly threatens his communication with Erzerum.

A circular has been issued at Rustchuk, ordering all newspaper correspondents to present their firmans within three days. The cause of this measure is alleged to be the discovery of some Russian spies within the Turkish lines. They were shot.

A correspondent at Batoum telegraphs that the Turks yesterday fired a French vessel which was trying to enter that port. The Consul demanded an explanation and an apology.

RAGUSA, June 19.—Suleiman Pasha has left Nicosia and entered Montenegro, to effect a junction with the Albanian dominion. The Montenegrins have abandoned the Duga Pass.

Lieut Gen Mehemet Ali has resumed the offensive.

The position of the Montenegrins is regarded as critical. Seventy thousand Turks are now operating against them.

BERLIN, June 19.—Trustworthy advices from St Petersburg confirm the reported utter inefficiency of the commissariat, not only in Armenia, but also on the Danube. The czar is exasperated. The scanty provisioning of troops has caused apprehensions.

PATERSON, June 19.—Three hundred hand of Hamil & Booth's silk mills struck to-day for higher wages, and the strikers, male and female, marched through the street to the other mills to induce the operatives to join them.

LONDON, June 19.—The vessel which put into Cadiz leaking, was not bark Jacques Cocur, from New Orleans for Malaga, but the bark Jasefa, from Havana. The former has safely arrived at her destination. The brig Sal Savannah, for Barcelona, ashore at Cape DeGatte, will probably become a total wreck.

MOBILE, June 19.—In the government suit involving the title to the bank building of the Deposits Savings Association, bought by A J Atsah, for internal revenue taxes, the Circuit Court Judges Bradley and Wood on the bench, decided in favor of the government.

WANTED A CORPSE.—Why doesn't somebody furnish the Herald with a corpse? If perseverance deserves success, surely the Herald's reward is overdue. For years it has been struggling to secure a first-class assassination of one or another of its correspondents. Quite recently even its chief was fired at. During our last war its correspondents met with numberless hairbreadth escapes. In Spain, Cuba, Turkey, and far-away Africa its agents have frequently been shot at, cut at, struck at, and yet, as corpses, they have proven far too healthy. Captain Jack and Sitting Bull both came within one of gratifying the ambitious longing of the Herald, but yet the success failed of that perfection necessary to its happiness. The Mormons, too, were appealed to. In despair the Herald has gone forth to make a corpse of itself, and it has found one called the Democratic party. If the Democratic party will consent to be quiet, as a corpse should do, there need be no further noise over it; but if not, somebody must furnish a body, even if it be a mummy, so that the Herald readers may "have a rest."

Clergymen and Public Speakers. There is no doubt that clergymen and orators, while speaking, would derive great benefit from perfuming their handkerchiefs with Dr Price's Flair Rouge, as its fragrance excites the mind to vigorous action and is gratefully refreshing.
