TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

WASHINGTON!

Doctor Grant Writes a Letter—Fish May Yet Go to the Court of St James.—The President and Cabinet Endorse Sherman's Views on the Four Per Cents—A V Dockery Goes to Leeds—No More Vacancies.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Packard has reached Chicago. He is in search of health.

Schurz said to Twitchell that there was no vacancy in the Louisiana pension agency. There is some indignation that a man who had lost both arms, and was feeble in other respects, should not have what he wants; but they say that what can be done, is more potent than "what has been done."

Ex-President Grant has written a letter to George W. Childs, from London. It is an elaboration of the famous letter from Fitzhugh, in Washington, to his friend in Texas.

The President, accompanied by Secretary Evarts, Thompson and Postmaster-General Key, has gone to Annapolis, to be present at the graduating exercises of the U. S. Naval Academy.

A. H. Brown, of this city, gets the Black Hills mail contract.

It was supposed that the appointment of young Fish, to Switzerland, would close the doors of St. James, against Hamilton Fish, but it is explained that the mission to the Swiss Republic, has been reduced to a charge de affaires.

Sherman's views regarding the four per cents, principal and interest, it is said, are endorsed by the President and cabinet.

The Indian bureau has information from the Walle Walla Idaho Agency, of the massacre of twenty settlers by no-treaty Indians in that vicinity. At the last accounts the soldiers in pursuit were twelve hours behind.

The President to-day commissioned A. V. Dockery, consul to Leeds. This appointment fills the last vacancy among the salaried consulates. The only consulates now vacant, are a few in South America, and on the African coast, which are paid by fees amounting usually to not more than two or three hundred dollars per annum. Very few vacancies are likely to occur in the salaried consulates between now and the assembling of Congress, and it is understood to be the intention of the State department, to fill all such vacancies by promotions for merit and experience in the consular service.

DECEITFUL RED MEN.

Indians on the War Path—Twenty Persons Killed—McDowell in Pursuit.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Gen Sheridan has received the following dispatch from San Francisco:

"The following telegram has been received from General Howard, dated Fort Lapwre, June 16: 'The Indians of White Bird's and Joseph's bands murdered about twenty people in a scattered settlement, fifty miles from here, eastward. Captain Perry, with two companies, made a forced march thither. The Indians fled with fresh horses. It is hoped to overtake them while crossing the Salmon river. Please notify Fort Hall, Spaw, Ellis and other eastern posts. Another band fled northward. They may combine near Flat Head Agency, pretending to be peaceful. Fort Boise will head them if possible. Inspector Watkins and I act together. [Signed.] McDOWELL, Major-Gen.'"

General Sheridan does not look for a general rising among these Indians, who have not been considered by the soldiers as fighting Indians. He believes that they will now attempt to make terms, and will not give the military further trouble.

Suspension of the National Bank of the State of Missouri.

St. Louis, June 20.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the National Bank of the State of Missouri to-day, a resolution was adopted requiring an examination into its affairs. The condition of the bank shows that reasonable profits cannot be expected from a continuation of its business, and that the best interests of the shareholders and creditors can be best subserved by placing the bank in the hands of a receiver, to be appointed by the comptroller of the currency, or that the bank be placed in course of liquidation, as required by the national banking act; and in the meantime, that all payments of the bank be suspended, and that the general business of the institution cease.

THE RUSSO-TURKISH WAR.

Reported Russian Defeat.

De Broglie's Proposition to the Senate

Activity of Both Armies in the Danubian Seat of War.

Krupp Gun Purchased by the Russians.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 20.—The Galas says that the partial defeat of the Montenegrins strengthens and justifies the tendency of the Servians to join in the struggle.

LONDON, June 20.—The Daily Telegraph's Vienna letter has the following: Great uneasiness is felt here, relative to the attitude of Servia. Everything is prepared for the occupation of Servia.

The Times says: The contingent sent by Khedive consists of 4,500 infantry, 1,000 cavalry and 500 artillery.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 20.—The Chamber, after organizing a committee to sit during recess and passing resolutions that the government ought only to conclude peace on conditions which would maintain the honor of the empire intact, adjourned.

Reports, official and otherwise, indicate that the Turks are overwhelming the Montenegrins.

Fazi Pasha telegraphs from Lukum Kaleb, June 14, that 13,000 Russians who occupied Mexwid and Tohamtkara have been driven out by Turkish troops, and iron clads. A movement has been undertaken to cut off their retreat.

VERSAILLES, June 20.—Duke De Broglie informed the Senatorial committee on the dissolution proposal, that at the election, the government would designate a candidate they favored, thus making use of a right which up to the present has been recognized by all governments. The Duke also stated that if the Senate voted for dissolution the government would decree it immediately. The Senate is summoned to meet again Wednesday. The debate on the dissolution will commence at once. Night sittings will be held if necessary.

LONDON, June 20.—A Times dispatch from Ostrak says: The opinion in the Montenegrin army is very strong against Vukavics, the leader to whom the defence of the Daga Pass was intrusted. He is charged with utter incapacity. Some battalions received no orders whatever, and after the retreat from Kristies, all cohesion of the army seemed lost.

From the Danubian seat of war, various correspondents report considerable activity on the part of the Russians, in the section of country bounded on the East and West, by the rivers Vide and Aluia, respectively. They are concentrating at Sumnitsa, but the river immediately opposite that place has greatly overflowed its banks. Prevalent opinion still seems to point to Nicapolis as the crossing place. The Turks on the other side of the river are also moving troops actively.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 20.—The Gazette states that the Russian government has purchased the monster Krupp gun made for the Philadelphia Exposition. The destination of the weapon is unknown. There is talk of placing it upon some vessel at Nikolaiiff, and using it against the Turkish iron clads in the Black Sea.

Salt and Pepper in a Silk Factory—A Big Strike—Six Hundred Hands Out of Employment.

PATERSON, N. J., June 20.—There is great excitement among silk factory hands. 500 or 600 are now out. The Hamill mill has shut down and several mills are without hands. At a meeting of strikers in the Military Hall to-day, Gustave Kinrich favored returning to work. The women attacked him and tore his coat. One woman threw salt and pepper in his eyes. He drew an empty revolver, but was chased out of the hall and pursued a half mile, hundreds of persons joining in the chase. It has been reported that he had shot a woman, he was captured and taken before Justice Hudson and discharged. He made a complaint against the woman who assaulted him with salt and pepper. She was arrested and held to bail in five hundred dollars. The operatives are determined to stand firm; so are employers.

The police were called upon to protect the hands at work. The feeling runs high. The general sentiment seems to be that the strike is ill advised. Nine tenths of the hands are still at work.

Tramps Killed by Falling Walls.

NORRISTOWN, PA., June 20.—Five tramps were sleeping in an old lime kiln, when the walls fell, killing four. The fifth will die. The survivor, who is from Massachusetts, thinks his companions, whose names he does not know, were from New York and Massachusetts.

NORTH CAROLINIANS IN WASHINGTON.

Opposition to Hyman's Appointment—Major Smith Sounds a Trumpet Against It—John Bailey Doesn't Like Guinea.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The Republicans of North Carolina, are not harmonious. Major William A. Smith, ex-member of Congress, protests against the appointment of Hyman as collector of the Second North Carolina district. Secretary Sherman does not favor Hyman, but his bond is good, and the President seems to desire that Hyman should qualify. Hyman is an ex-member of Congress. The commissioner of internal revenue, desires the retention of Powers in North Carolina.

John L. Bailey, of North Carolina, declines the consulship to St. Paul DeLorendo, Lower Guinea.

The Louisiana State Auditor Jailed for Refusing to Give Information.

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—Ex-State Auditor Johnson was sentenced to a fine of fifty dollars, and imprisoned in the parish prison for ten days, for refusing to produce certain books, and to answer certain questions as to their contents, propounded by the grand jury. Johnson says that some of the missing documents were destroyed, and others were taken away when they were expected an attack by the white league in January last. In a petition to the court, Johnson says that he could not answer the questions for fear of criminalizing himself.

Honors to Hampton at the North.

AUBURN, N. Y., June 20.—Gov. Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, arrived this morning, and was escorted to the Rens homestead.

What Beecher Wants.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Beecher desires the retention of Mr. Freeman as the Brooklyn collector. Mr. Freeman supported Beecher in his Tilton scrape.

Hon. D. D. Pratt, of Indiana, died suddenly last Sunday.

A lovely landscape, all dotted over with unsightly boulders, is not more unpleasant to the sight than a human face, disfigured with Blisters and Pimples. These are the evidences of impurity of the blood. Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture will remove all such disfigurements promptly.
