TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The Administration Wasn't Sure It was Right and Didn't Go Ahead in the Hyman Appointment .- The Trial of Franks is for Etfect--Dismissal of a Several Millio s Suit.

Other Washington Notes and

Washington, July 2.—The failure finally to appoint Hyman, the colored ex-member of Congress, as Collector of Internal Resenue of the second North Carolina dissict, is looked upon as a serious indication that the administra-tion is defective in the important respect of being sure you are right and going ahead. It is represented that the halting policy in this case has fractured the new party in North Car-

Deputy Marshal Franks will be re manded to North Carolina for trial. Commissioner Plant considers that having the primary hearing in this case in Washington, was for political purposes. The amount involved is not five hundred dallars, and the expense and notorety deated by the un usual mode of procedure, is comparatively enormous. The object seems to have been to damage Marshal Douglass and his friends, say it has failed. This case compounds the Hyman

Lawlessness in Kentucky.

Louisville, July 2.-A dispatch from Mount Vernon says: "At mid-night Saturday, nearly a hundred men attacked the house of Jos. Bithuman, a noted desperatio. Bithuman would not surrender and firing upon the attacking part with a shot gun, killed Charles Burtan. Though some trusted to me, and which I will diskilled Charles Burton. Though some fifty shots were fired at Bithuman, he escaped. The same party entered the Mount Vernon jail, and took there from Jas. Smith, Andrew Cummings Kirk and Joe Gibbs, all charged with robbery. Removing these four a min robbery. Removing these four a min they hung all of them.
