THE ELECTORAL FRAUD JUDGE BLACK'S LETTER.

In the North American Review for July, Judge Jeremiah S. Black of Pennsylvania, appears as the contributor of an article entitled "The Electoral Conspiracy."

not help to instill him, and Democrats determined to assert their rights.

"According to their own count the result was a majority of 7,000 for the Democrats."

It is shown in the most convincing manner that the action of the board in accepting and rejecting just such ballots as they saw fit was entirely unsupported by legal authority.

"The Democrats consented to this in the belief that no seven Republicans could be taken from the court or from Congress who would swear to decide the truth and then uphold a known fraud."

"The eight Commissioners did not stop there. They went much further. They practically justified and sustained all the infinite rascality of the returning boards."

"Another paradox of the eight is curious enough to be noted. They designated a contested election case, and for that reason they voted not to look at it."

"They were unprincipled adventurers, who sought their fortunes in the South by plundering the disarmed and defenceless people."

"This powerful arrangement of the electoral commission, concludes with the following striking language: 'Let this thing be remembered by our children's children; and if the friends of free government shall ever again have such a contest, let them take care how they leave the decision to a tribunal like that which betrayed the nation by enthroning the Great Fraud of 1876." We regret our inability to give only this imperfect outline of this great production.

"The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is very cranky politically, but on matters of philanthropy its head is as level as you choose." Commenting on this widely published report that Mrs. A.T. Stewart intends shortly building on Long Island a million dollar cathedral.

"His Fraudulency, Mr. Hayes, accompanied by Secretaries Evans and Schurz, Attorney General Devens and Post-Master General Key, have been swinging round the circle up in New England the past week."

"The action of the State Convention in Iowa the past week, in tabling by a two-thirds vote a resolution approving the policy of the administration is regarded here as significant."

"The government officials from taking part in politics, has caused a flutter among these worthies. 'Not being accustomed to any kind of restraint, from helping themselves from the public crib to packing county and even State conventions, the order falls rather hard.'"

"Who a few weeks ago took charge of the Government Printing Office, has disappointed his friends. With a great flourish of trumpets he came out in a really excellent letter, saying that he did not propose to make his office a political slym."

"Of the Western District of North Carolina, has been on trial for the past week on the charge of forgery. Up to this time no conclusion has been arrived at."
