WASHINGTON.

Windy Billy Stopped in His Mad Career—A Missing Man. Tur s, UP. 1103

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A postal card has been received from the Louisiana, J. P. Morgridge, the missing man, saying that he is in Philadelphia. Some one who appears to have mis understood or misrepresented the wishes of the Secretary of the Treasury, directed General Smith, the appointment clerk, to make out the papers for General Henderson, as collector of the fifth North Carolina district. They were prepared, but a halt has been called. Nothing seems to stick in the tax State. The President did not reach the White House until the afternoon. No work was done. Schurz has gone to New Jersey for a few days. M. Goeding succeeds Nichols as superintendent of the Insane Asylum.

More Trouble with the Indians—Several of the Whites Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., July 7.—A press dispatch dated Portland, Oregon, gives the following special: "LEWISTOWN, IDAHO, July 7.—Via Walla Walla, July 8. "On the 2nd instant, Col. Whipple's command with volunteers under N. B. Routell, came across Looking Glass on Clear Creek, at 7 o'clock in the morning. The Indians told Col. Whipple that they were prepared to fight, and it is said opened fire, firing the first shot. When the order was given to the soldiers to fire, the Indians soon backed down to a place of shelter. It is not known how many were killed or wounded, as they scattered off in all directions. The command captured the Indian camp, burned all of their provisions and plunder, and took about one thousand Indian horses which they brought here. No citizens or soldiers were killed or wounded." News has been received at the department headquarters here from Gen. Alfred Sulley, commanding at Lewistown, Idaho, that Col. Perry, with thirty men, on his way to the Cottonwood, was attacked by the hostiles. Lieut. Raines, ten soldiers and two citizens, were killed. Col. Whipple joined Col. Perry and drove the Indians off. The fight is still going on. A special receiver from John A. Farrell, of Francisco, who has just returned from Cottrell, dated Pelouse Landing, July 30, via Walla Walla, 6th, says: "Joseph Oppenheimer and myself arrived here this evening. When we crossed the Spokane bridge yesterday, we noticed between 300 and 400 buck Indians who were said to be in council. They were all well armed and equipped. The outlook for this country, is bad. The settlers on Pine Creek and the Pelouse plains, except five men, have left. The country is in the hands of the savages."

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A dispatch from Gen. McDowell enclosed some dispatches from Gen. Howard's command. The situation is represented as most threatening. It seems that there is ample ground for Gen. Howard's application for more troops. Gen. McDowell will send the Second Infantry to Howard direct by rail to San Francisco, thence by vessels to the scene. McDowell has sent troops from Fort Yuma to the scene, and has broken up Camp Independence, sending the company to the same destination.

WELLS AND ANDERSON In a Bad Way—Hayes Will Not Interfere.—The Prosecution Charged Upon the Anti-Nicholls Party.—The Friend of the Administration Indignant.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The President does not see that it will become him to interfere between the laws of Louisiana and the criminals whom the law pursue. Frank Richardson, telegraphing the Baltimore Sun, says that the only sure salvation for Wells and Anderson is for them to jump their bail and let the President to give them some position abroad.

New York, July 7.—The Times' New Orleans special says: "The indictment of the late returning board has been set on foot by the anti-Nicholls party and proceeds on the assumption that Nicholls is in some way bound to protect Wells, Anderson & Co. The idea is, therefore, to push the prosecution vigorously, make the accused as odious as possible, and then in case of an executive pardon, to impeach the Governor." The Tribune's Washington dispatch says: "The indictment of the members of the returning board is looked upon here as an affair of a great deal of political importance. The friends of the administration are highly indignant."

The Hoppergrass in Michigan—Bond Investigation.

DETROIT, July 7.—A dispatch says that swarms of grasshoppers have recently made their appearance in portions of Oakland and Iowa counties, and are ravaging all manner of growing crops. About four thousand acres of growing grain have been ruined. A Washington telegram says that Secretary Schurz has ordered an investigation to be made by one of the government directors of the Union Pacific Railroad, concerning the celebrated lost bonds.

A Dock Breaks and a Ship Falls.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., July 7.—The sectional dock at the Mare Island navy yard broke down to-day while raising the French corvette, Linne. The ship is uninjured, but the repair of the dock will involve a large outlay.

THE RUSSO-TURKISH WAR.

The Turks Threatened, Front and Rear.

An Opinion That the Campaign Will Soon Be Decided.

Turks Concentrating for a Heavy Strike.

Correspondents Ordered Off—Rumor of Armistice in Montenegro.

Military Situation of the Two Armies.

The Position of the Turkish Army in Armenia—What a Russian General says of the Situation.

LONDON, July 7.—The Bucharest correspondent of the Times telegraphs: "According to information received from the Dobrukscha, I have no faith in any effectual resistance being made by the Turks on the line of the Trajans wall. When the correspondent summarizes the military situation showing that the Turks are threatened in front of the Russian army at Sistova, and in the rear by the corps advancing through the Dobrukscha. Russian officers of rank at the front believe the campaign will soon be decided. The Turks are concentrating about Shumla, in order to take the Russian weakly to the Balkans on the flank. The Russians will probably not advance until the Turks come out of Shumla, and then face about and give them battle in the open country. It is stated that all representatives of the press have been ordered to leave the Russian headquarters. It is rumored that by the advice of Austria a kind of informal armistice will be established in Montenegro, both sides maintaining the defensive. The Times' Bucharest dispatch says the military situation now appears to be as follows: The Turks have changed front and faced to westward since the Russian entrance into Bulgaria. The Russians are deploying with their left flank resting on the Danube to face the Turkish line from Ruzschuk to Shumla. When this movement is completed a general battle may be expected unless the Turks fall back to the Balkans, or the Russians mask the whole quadrilateral and turn it by passing to the Balkans. The Russian forces coming through the Dobrukscha are approaching the rear of the Turkish Ruzschuk and Shumla line. This column is too strong to be opposed by any force detached from the Turkish main body, while the main body itself cannot turn upon it without exposing its rear to the Russian main force."

[NOTE.—The Times' correspondent seems to entirely ignore the existence of Silistria, Varna and Kustendje. The latest information fixes the garrison at these places respectively at 32,000, 20,000 and 10,000, which, operating on the flanks and rear of the Russian Dobrukscha force, would paralyze its efforts to co-operate with the army in central Bulgaria. Besides the garrisons of these fortified places, Suleiman Pasha's army, which is now stated to be embarking at Antiorari, could be landed at Varna, which would make the number of Turks on the Russian left flank alone over 50,000. The Russian Dobrukscha copy is stated to number only 30,000. ERZERUM, July 7.—The following is the correct position of the forces in Armenia: The Turkish right wing confronts the Russian's left at Utsch-Kelissa. Fatik Pasha has a fresh body of 12,000 Russians opposed to him near Bayazid; another Russian division of 23,000 is marching towards Ardahan. Mukhtar Pasha's advanced guard is within fourteen miles of Karabag. Battles are expected at Utsch-Kelissa and Bayazid. It is also believed that Mukhtar Pasha will be engaged soon. The provisioning of the belligerent armies is now a matter of great difficulty. VIENNA, July 7.—The Presse says: "Prince Gortschakoff, in an interview with a distinguished statesman, stated that only the Servian question induced him to accompany the Czar to the seat of war. He had prevented Servian cooperation although urgently offered. In order to avoid European complications, Russia had acted on two principles—first to avoid all interference with the internal affairs of the same, and to remain and not encourage them to warfare against Turkey, and to decline, as long as the war lasted, any intervention by the powers, who at the conclusion of peace would have an opportunity of protecting all their interests. The Russians were prepared for greater resistance by Turkey than she has hitherto experienced. He concluded as follows: "If we succeed in a decisive battle in Bulgaria, our task will be completed in a short time. If the Turks retire into the Balkans, as I have reason to believe they will, we shall have annoying delays because of their excellent positions for defence. Then will commence our difficulty in provisioning the army."

Bank Robbery.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., July 7.—The Keosauqua National Bank was robbed last night by seven or eight masked burglars. The watchman was bound and gagged. The vault and Marvin's improved safe was blown open, and the contents carried away. The bank loses $15,000. The parties who left packages in the bank for safe keeping have lost to the amount of from $50,000 to $200,000.

Left-Died.

New York, July 7.—Minister Kason sailed for Europe to-day.

Charles L. Richardson, a wealthy retired manufacturer, died on Thursday from an overdose of Mann's elixir of opium.

ALLEGED IMMORALITY AT HARVARD.—The Boston Traveler makes "an Appeal for a change" at Harvard College. It reports that some twenty of the graduating class fail in their degrees, and "more than one young man—we speak advisedly—lost his degree at Harvard this year on account of immorality."

CAUGHT AT LAST.—We can hardly believe it, but the news has been borne to us, and from a good source, too, that General M. W. Gary, who on the occasion of the mock session (the last night) of the Legislature was urged to marry, is about to commit the fatal act at last. Let no man despair at this. We shall immediately make a special arrangement with the express company to convey the "old war horse" a bouquet of orange blossoms on the occasion.—Columbia Register.

Whatever tends to keep the blood pure, surely tends to prolong life. Dr Bull's Blood Mixture by its specific action upon the blood, keeps it always in a condition of purity.
