THE RUSSO-TURKISH WAR.

The Imperial Interview—Troops from Russia—Servia to Place 40,000 Men in the Field.

London, August 10.—In relation to the imperial interview at Ischl, a Berlin official paper contradicts the report that a definite political agreement was concluded. They merely admit that the triple alliance was reaffirmed. The Vienna New Press takes a similar view of the meeting.

Howard and Joseph Knocking Chips Off of Each Other's Hats.

Portland, Oregon, August 10.—One of the Ontario hostiles gave himself up at Missoula. The general impression prevails from all that can be learned, that Joseph with a portion of his band of hostiles has gone to the head of Bitter Root Valley with the intention of working their way back to Little Salmon river. General Howard will pursue him to the uttermost.

Hayes denounced by a Wing of His Own Party in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, August 10.—A meeting of the anti-administration Republicans, held in this city last night, adopted resolutions bitterly denouncing President Hayes for his Southern policy, and declaring that the second resolution on the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Cleveland, is inconsistent with its professed declaration of fidelity to the principles of the Republican party; that it is a falsehood, adopted solely for party expediency, a libel upon the Republicans of Ohio, and unworthy of the grand record of the party. The meeting also passed a resolution inviting correspondence from Republicans throughout the State, and advising as to the course to be pursued during the present campaign. An executive committee was appointed to receive the correspondence.
