The Alabama Offices--Efforts to Secure Government Aid for Pensacola Harbor-lack of Mail Facilities.

INDIAN WAR.

A Terrible Fight Between Gen Gibbon's Command and the Indians.

HELENA, MONTANA, August 11.—
The following was received the morning from Big Hale, Montana, under date of August 9th, addressed to Gov Potts: "Had a hard fight with Nez Perces, killing a number and losing a number of officers and men. We need a doctor and everything. Send us such relief as you can.
(Signed) John Gibbon,

Colonel Commanding. BIG HALE, August 11.

Col. U.S.A.

To Governor Potts: We are here near the mouth of the clothing, medicine and medical attend-ance. Send us assistance at once. JNO GIBBON,

Another dispatch to Governor Potts says: "We had a hard fight and took the village, but were finally driven back with heavy loss. Capt Logan and Lieut Bradly are killed, Gen Gibbon and Lieutenants Coolidge, English and Woodruff are wounded, Lieutenant English seriously and the others slightly. The troops are entrenched and the Indians are leaving."

DEER LODGE, August 11.-9 a. m.,— W H Edwards has just arrived from Big Hale, bringing accounts of a terri-ble battle between General Gibbon's command and the Nez Perces on the Big Hale river on August 9th. Gibbon's command, consisting of one hundred and eighty-two men, seventeen officers, one hundred and thirty-three regulars and thirty-two citizen volunteers crossed over from Ross Hale on Wednesday, starting at 11 o'clock. The same night they moved down all troops with the exception of a few left to

The Turks Appear to be Preparing for Defence Rather Than for Attack.

An Easier Feeling on the Eastern Question in the British House of Commons.

London, August 11.—The dispatches represent the several Russian positions as safe, but they are utterly inefficient for a renewal of the offensive move-ments. There are seventy thousand Turks at the Levatz and Plevna line, to the disposition of the wild Sioux should be tripartite, with a full representation accorded by Sitting Bull.

Senators Jones, of Florida, and Morgan, of Alabama, aided by the writings and explanations of Mr. E. P. Brooks, available for holding the line from the Danube to the Balkans, numbers about sixty thousand. It is necessarily attenuated over a long front so as to leave no gap for the Turks to creep through. The Turks are probably of about the same strength, but if Mehmet Ali choose to take the offensive he may concentrate at Rustchuk, Rasof Mexico, and the development of the grade and Osman Bazar. The Russians great natural resources of the Pensaco- must be ready to force him everywhere consequently they must remain strict-

The State Department has a dispatch from the American minister at Port au Prince, that there are plenipotentiaries between Hayti and Dominico.
The same dispatch reports a suppressed insurrection at Croix des Boquets.

Same complaint. Four out of the five Adjutant Generals in attendance on the Czar are ill. Nearly everybody is more or less sick or squamish. Grand Duke Nicholas himself will take suppressed insurrection at Croix des Boquets.

An occasional correspondent of the Times at Vienna says: "Everything tends to show that Mehmet Ali and Sulieman Pasha are making great ef forts to effect a junction by the Slivno pass, so as to dislodge the Russians from Tirnova. If they succeed in effecting a junction, we may expect shortly to hear of a great battle which will make any political speeches while on their trip to New England. He was asked how about Secretary Sherman's intention to speak in Ohio. "O," said he, "he will only make a financial speech. I would like to go before an with energy and decision are building intelligence and address it on intelligent audience and address it on more defensive works, and it is report-the Indian question—the Sioux, the ed that the Russians have finally decided to stop short in their career with-out operating beyond the Balkans this year. They will probably succeed in clearing this side of the mountains in one campaign, but meanwhile there must be much sickness. Prince Charles has called out twelve thousand Roumanian militia. In the House of Commons last night Mr Charles Monk, Liberal member for Gloucester city, personally pressed the question on the government whether they should consider the temporary occupation of Constantinople by the Russian troops so far inconsistent with British interests as to disturb the relations of amity between England and Russia. Though Sir Stafford Northcote, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, respectively. the Chancellor of the Exchequer, re-fused to answer this hypothecal ques-tion, it had the effect of drawing from the Right Hon Wm Edward Fester, Liberal member for Bradford, a state-ment expressive of the greater confi-ment expressive of the greater confidence which is felt by the opposition of the improbability of England's becoming involved in the war.

Mr Foster said: "Speaking for myself and others, we should not have yielded to the government's desire, if we had any reason to fear that the government was likely, during recess, to drag the country into war, or involve it in any breach of neutrality. We have most carefully considered everything that has been written and said by the government, and looking at their last dispatches we feel convinced that they intend to abide by the policy of a strict neutrality; that being the case, I don't think it necessary to do more than remind them of the heavy responsibility under which they lie."

New Orleans, La., August 11.—Edward Fulten, ex-tax collector of the first district, and Lewis Laun, late of the firm of Carre & Laun, who are in Big Hale, about three miles below where the Bitter Root and Bannock trail crosses. At daylight the fight was opened by the volunteers firing on an Indian going after the horses. The charge was then made on the camp, and some hard fighting took place in the next two hours, during which time large numbers of men and Indians were killed. The soldiers then charged the lodges, but were repulsed. The Indians then attempted to cut the soldiers from a high wooden point, but the latter charged, beating back the Indians' advance from the point which they held, and at once for tified. The fighting continued all day, and was still progressing fitfully when the courier left at 11 o'clock. The fighting was desperate on both sides.

New York, August 11.-A wind storm which struck Coney Island last evening, demolished four hundred and twenty-five bathing houses.

It was reported this morning that the committees appointed by the Western Union and the Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Companies, would meet together next Thursday and discuss the propriety of parting the receipts of the two corporations, the Western Union to have four-fifths of the entire proceeds. President Orton, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, this afternoon stated to a reportpany, this afternoon stated to a report-er of the Evening Post that the report of the proposed meeting and its ob-ject, was true. Of course he could not tell what the result would be, but he commended the step. Mr. Orton said further that he had heard of no scheme to actually consolidate the two companies.
