TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General News and Notes.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—District Attorney Lacy, of Louisiana, having been sent for to be consulted in relation to the timber deprivations in that State, will arrive here to-day or to-morrow.

Col Rogers, the President's private secretary, is sick.

Collector Jones, of Chicago, declines the invitation to resign. He refers to the President's letter of acceptance, in which he says that officers should be secured in their tenure as long as their personal character remains unimpaired, and the performance of their duties is satisfactory. Jones concludes by saying that self-respect impels him to decline compliance with the President's request by resigning.

Sitting Bull was on Canadian territory as late as August 14, and showed no preparations for departure. Lawrence leaves on his mission to him to-night, accompanied by Col Corby, secretary to the commission.

The President has pardoned T. C. Roddy, of Fulton county, Ga., for violation of the liquor laws; Samuel G. Vance, of North Carolina, for robbing the mail; Jeremiah Mullins, of Virginia, for violation of the liquor laws.

Two hours cabinet to-day. The only matter considered was the New York custom house. It was concluded to charge all the principal custom house officers, including collector and surveyor and naval officers. The changes, however, are not to be made until Congress meets, when nominations will be made for these places, thus avoiding compulsory resignations or suspensions.

Second Assistant Postmaster-General Brady will act as Postmaster-General during the absence of Key.

The President spends Sunday, the 16th, in Cincinnati, arriving late Saturday night, and leaving early Monday morning.

FRENCH AFFAIRS.

The Charges Against Gambetta—Their Funeral.

LONDON, September 6.—A dispatch from Paris to the Daily says: "There are three counts in the indictment against Gambetta, which charge offenses against the person of the President and against the Republic, including one for a certain passage in his little speech. There are six counts for public insults to the ministers. The government will not permit the trial to be reported."

PARIS, September 6.—Madame Thiers having accepted an official funeral for her husband only on the condition of being herself allowed the privilege of arranging the order of the cortege, the government has decided to annul the decree published yesterday, ordering a State funeral, as it cannot dispense with the execution of existing enactments regulating the order of procession in official ceremonies. The government will, therefore, take no part in the funeral beyond paying the deceased military honor, to which he is entitled, as having been a dignitary of the Legion of Honor and formerly chief of the State.

STRIKERS.

President Sloan Refuses to Negotiate with Strikers.

NEW YORK, September 6.—A delegation of ten striking miners from the collieries of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, situated at Hyde Park, Scranton, Pa., had an interview with President Sloan, of the company, this morning. The delegation stated their grievances, and asked an increase of wages of twenty-five per cent. Sloan replied that he would not negotiate with any of the men who were on a strike. When the work was resumed, the company would be prepared to treat with the men, and when the price of coal would warrant it, they would make an increase of wages; or if the men so desired they would pay them upon the principle of a sliding scale. Mr. Sloan reduced his remarks to writing and gave the delegation a copy. The men will return to Scranton this afternoon and report to a large mass-meeting of strikers.

Telegraphic Briefs.

NEW YORK, September 6.—Stephen Lockwood and wife, an aged couple, were struck by a train while driving over the Lake Shore Railroad, near Painesville, Ohio, yesterday, and instantly killed.

DUNDEE, September 6.—The town council have voted to tender Grant the freedom of the city.

MANCHESTER, September 6.—The Guardian's London correspondent says the Pope has resolved to restore Roman hierarchy in Scotland. Cardinal Manning will shortly go to Rome on a confidential message in that connection.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., September 6.—The Perry cotton mill at New Port, has started again, the repairs having been completed.

CHICAGO, September 6.—The Catholic Church at Rogers' park has been burned. Loss $12,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The first bale of new cotton was received to-day from Raleigh, N. C., graded low middling, and sold at 11 cents.

The Carolina National Bank and the Late Senator Owens.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 6.—Notice was served on the Carolina National Bank of this city to-day to attach funds payable on certificates of deposit issued to J. P. Owens, amounting to over $20,000. Owens is surety on the bond of Niles G. Parker, ex-State treasurer, and largely indebted to the State. Owens is now North, and may attempt to negotiate these papers. This is ex-Senator Owens who died in Baltimore last night.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

Russian Batteries Silenced at Schipka Pass—The Turks Hold the Key of the Bagrad Position.

Gagova Evacuated by the Russians.

The Czar Cannot Make Peace and Return to Moscow Except by Force of Arms.

An Important Engagement Near Ruscuk.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 6.—A dispatch from the regular channel, says: "The Russian batteries at Schipka pass have been silenced, a Turkish shell having exploded the Russian powder magazine."

LONDON, September 6.—The Times' Vienna dispatch says: "The Russians have abandoned the upper Lom line, and have withdrawn their right wing on the side which was at Popskol, to a line where they can keep in contact with the forces guarding the road from Osman Bazar. Mehmet Ali has thus gained an undoubted strategical success by his victory at Karasan. All depends on how he will use it."

The Daily News' correspondent telegraphing from Gagova, September 1st, shows that the Turks as a result of the victory at Karasan, occupied a large mountain, forming the key of the Bagrad positions and commanding almost equally the Lom and the Kara Lom, and the Russian positions at Obaka; and the Gagova correspondent says that acting solely on the defensive, the Czarowitch will have little difficulty in keeping his present line intact with the possible exception of the Gagova position. On the other hand, the Turks are much too strong to lie inactive in the face of the inferior Russian force, and the chances are great that the valley of Kara Lom will soon be the theatre of a decisive battle of large proportions.

A subsequent telegram shows that the Russians have evacuated Gagova, and retired to Polomarka. The Times' Bucharest correspondent says that the Turks and Egyptians pursued them thither.

The Times' Bucharest dispatch of September 6th, says: "The autumnal rains have begun. It has been raining here continually since last night." The Times' leader urges very strongly that England should offer mediation with the concurrence of other neutral powers. The offers of mediation could be based on the recommendations made by the Constantinople conference in this connection.

The Daily News' Bucharest correspondent says: "Peace is impossible until the Turks are completely crushed. The war has become a dynastic one for Romanoffs as much as the Franco-Prussian war was for the Napoleons. If the Czar entered Moscow after concluding an unsatisfactory peace, it would have to be at the point of a bayonet. This should be as well known abroad as it is in Russia."

The Russian success at Lovatz places Osman Pasha in the awkward position of having a hostile force on both flanks. Either a defeat at Plevna, or an attempt at withdrawal, might result in the destruction of his army, unless the Russians are compelled to weaken their forces on that side in order to meet Mehmet Ali's advance from Ruscuk. The latter seems to place the Czarowitch's army in a position very similar to Osman Pasha's, if the Turkish accounts may be trusted, and they seem to be confirmed in these particulars, by Russian admission."

The Turkish force has crossed the Lom, and reached the neighborhood of Oberteni, while another force has crossed the Kara Lom at Polomarka. These corps are understood to be operating against Biela, but they jeopardize the whole Russian campaign east of Zanta as well as communications with Pionora.

BUCHAREST, September 6.—An important engagement was fought near Ruscuk yesterday morning. Soon afterwards the Russians commenced a bombardment of that city from Slabassia, which was replied to by the Turks. The cannonade lasted all yesterday and continues to-day.

The Turks from Widdin attempted last night to reach Szybeni, near Kalafat, in boats, but were driven back by a Roumanian battery, which was quickly brought up. The garrison of Widdin has been raised to the strength of eight thousand men in consequence of the threatening attitude of Servia.

TWEED DISGORING.

He Tells of Rings Within Rings, But He Was in Them All—More Yet to Come.

NEW YORK, September 6.—The aldermanic committee on the investigation of ring frauds met to-day. Wm M Tweed was present with counsel, and gave his story of the various offices he held under the city. He testified to the ring that was formed in the board of supervisors for passing excessive bills in 1860. The ring consisted of Roach, Briggs and himself. In 1863, Henry Smith was added to it; in 1865 John Fox, and in 1866, James Hayes Wynne; in '69 Isaac J Oliver and Andrew J Blakely were added, but the last two did not know all that was going on, but got their rake. In 1870 the board of supervisors was abolished.

The Tweed ring had nothing to do with the supervisor's ring. The former was under Hoffman's administration as mayor, and was composed of witness, John T Hoffman, Comptroller Brennan, and Street Commissioner Cornell. They met only for social and political purposes. Some of these men went out of office and this ring then became composed of A Oakey Hall, Comptroller Connolly, Street Commissioner McLean and himself.

The committee adjourned to Wednesday next.

Health of the Pope.

LONDON, September 6.—A Times special from Rome says that the health of the Pope is improving.

Death of Crazy Horse—New Method of Dealing with the Red Men.

CAMP ROBINSON, September 6.—Crazy Horse died at midnight from the effects of injuries received while attempting to escape from the guard-house here last night. His people took charge of his body. All quiet this morning.

CHICAGO, September 6.—Orders have been issued for the apprehension of some of the principal agitators among the Indians in the disturbed region of the West, with a view of placing them in confinement in Florida, a practice which has proved effective in quelling disorders among the Indians in the Indian Territory and elsewhere.

Army officers here do not anticipate any serious commotion on account of the death of Crazy Horse.

THE FRAUD.

Bradley Tries to Defend His Conduct on the Commission by a Simple Denial.

NEWARK, September 6.—Judge Bradley, in his letter to the editor of the Newark Advertiser, denies in toto the charges against him in connection with the electoral commission. He says he did not read or express an opinion to Judge Field, as is charged. He denies that there were calls at his house, and declares he decided the electoral vote honestly and free from political or other extraneous considerations.

Election Returns—Yachts Returning.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., September 6.—The returns are slow. Thus far they indicate Republican gains in the interior, but they may be modified by later advices. It is believed Bryant, a Democrat, defeats Ashbury, a tax-payer for mayor in this city.

Sandy Hook Idler, which, with others contested the race for the Bennett prize cup to Cape May and return, rounded Light Ship at 9:42 a. m. None of the other yachts are yet in sight.

Crazy Horse's Band Disembodied.

CHEYENNE, September 6.—The band of Crazy Horse is disembodied. Crazy Horse is in confinement. Crook telegraphs that this is an end of all troubles, as far as all the Sioux are concerned, outside of Sitting Bull.

The California Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The present indications favor the belief that the Democrats will have a majority in the legislature, but the result is still in doubt. The counting is very slow, especially in this city.

Owens is Gone.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—Ex-Senator Owen Owens, of Laurens county, S. C., died at the Howard House, Baltimore. A large sum of money was found among his personal effects.

Whatever tends to keep the blood pure surely tends to prolong life. Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture by its specific action upon the blood keeps it always in a condition of purity.
