CAPITAL NOTES.

Morton's Condition—New York Custom House Agency—Ex-South Carolina Republicans Becoming Alarmed—A Texas Congressman Smilth the Battle from Afar.

WASHINGTON, September 11.—There are private advices that Morton is not so well.

Cornell seems to owe his continuance in office to a desire on the part of the administration to hear the merchants of New York as to his successor. It is not proposed to extend this system to Southern custom houses.

On dit that Governor Packard will be in attendance at the extra session of Congress.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun says: "The revelations of ex-Treasurer Parker, of South Carolina, have added very much to the depression of the refugees from justice now here. It is learned that if Governor Hampton makes a requisition for them, it will be honored. It is said that Patterson will claim that as a Senator he is not liable to arrest, but it is questionable whether this plea will hold."

The Star publishes this: "Congressman Schliecher, of Texas, is here, watching the Mexican movement. He told President Hayes before he left on his Western trip that he had better hurry back, as there might be a Mexican invasion of Texas before he returned. Schliecher does not deny that the outlook is warlike."

Col. Edward Bangs, of the Postoffice Department, and second assistant Postmaster General Hays, have received dispatches that Morton has rallied from his relapse. The Postoffice Department is running Morton's illness. They deprecate the visit of Hayes on Thursday last as an interference not likely to advance the interests of the postal service or the Senator's health. Dr. Bliss is confidentially quoted as saying that Hays had better keep away from Morton.

It is reported that John L. Stevens, of Maine, has been appointed minister to Sweden.

LIBERTY OF SPEECH.

A French Journalist and a French Statesman are Imprisoned for Making and Publishing Respectively a Speech.

PARIS, September 11.—M. Gambetta and M. Murat, publisher of the Republique Francaise, were to have appeared this morning before the tenth chamber of the correction police to answer respectively for delivering and publishing the former's Lille speech. Neither, however, responded when the case was called. M. Gambetta, in consequence of the illness of his counsel, lodged a petition for the adjournment of the trial for one week, which was refused. Entry of default was thereupon made against Messieurs Gambetta and Murat, and M. Gambetta was condemned in default to three months' imprisonment and a fine of 2,000 francs. The public were excluded from the place of justice where the tribunal was sitting.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Conner's Vote Small, and His Majority Smaller Than Last Year.

PORTLAND, ME., September 11.—One hundred and forty-four towns give Conner, Republican, 29,409; Williams, Democrat, 22,301; Munson, greenback, 2,868; Talbot, Democrat, 147; scattering, 18. Last year these towns gave Conner, 42,963; Talbot, 32,901; scattering, 2,790. The towns to hear from gave last year Conner, 32,904; Talbot, 27,522; scattering, 254. If these towns come in like others, allowing for the fact that the greenback ticket is limited to localities, the aggregate vote will be about 98,500, of which Conner should have 53,000; Williams, 42,000; Munson, 3,500. Conner's majority will run up to 7,500 against 14,911 last year.

Probable Wreck on the North Carolina Coast.

WASHINGTON, September 11.—The signal service observer at Kitty Hawk, N. C., reports: "A fore and aft schooner water-logged and the men in the rigging, about twelve miles at sea, in a northeast direction from this station. Old sailors here pronounce her perfectly helpless. Our signals remain unnoticed. She was observed early yesterday morning, but was supposed to be anchored. They report her sinking slowly. The station keeper with the crew are going to her relief."

MORMON AFFAIRS.

John Taylor Still Holds on as President of the Apostles.

SALT LAKE CITY, September 11.—John Taylor, president of the twelve Mormon apostles, and acting-president of the Mormon Church, will retain that position until a new president is elected. He was shot at Nauveo at the time that Joseph Smith was killed, and is a bitter Mormon.

John Brown's Hangman Kills a Man.

NEW YORK, September 11.—Capt John A. Davis, the executioner of John Brown, hit Cop Johnston with a stone during a fight at Orkney Spring, Va., Friday. Johnston died Sunday from his injuries.

Yellow Fever in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, September 11.—There was one death from yellow fever last night at Fernandina, and three new cases to-day. Nurses and a doctor are en route from Savannah. The weather is reported unfavorable.

Augustine Daly.

NEW YORK, September 11.—Augustine Daly retires from the management of the Fifth Avenue Theatre Saturday. The rumor that Daly is bankrupt is false.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

What Gives the Plevna Fight its Significance.

Servia to be Attacked if She Shows Fight.

A Graphic Account of the Operations Before Plevna.

LONDON, September 11.—The correspondent of the Times at Vienna, sends the following: "We what occurs in front so much as what occurs in the rear of Plevna, which will give to the fight there its significance. The movements of two Roumanian divisions from the North and of the column of Lovats from the South leave no doubt that the Russians, whatever may be the success of such plans, are preparing a Sedan for Osman Pasha, and he will probably have to rely to his own resources to extricate himself. The operations of Mehmet Ali and Suliman Pasha are probably too far off to be of use to him."

The Times Paris correspondent says that the Turkish forces on the frontier are ordered to enter Servia immediately, if she takes part in the war.

The Daily Telegraph's Vienna dispatch, Monday night, repeats the rumor that Osman Pasha was retreating from Plevna. There is, however, absolutely no trustworthy information on this point from either side.

The Daily News correspondent, resuming his narrative of the operations before Plevna which he had previously carried down to Friday, under date of Saturday, Sept 8th, 5 p. m., says: "When the cannonade recommenced this morning, it was not easy at first to recognize that the Russians had gained any advantage the day before. The parapet of the Grivica redoubt had been a good deal jagged by Russian shells, but under cover of night all of its defects had been made good, and it looked as trim as if never a shot had been fired at it; but the Russians had during the night gained a large slice of ground in the direction of Grivica, and a battery of siege guns had been built on an elevation within easy range of the redoubt. At sunrise that battery came into action, in the rear of the advanced battery, and sent its fire sweeping down into the redoubt, which could not reply to the siege battery, the range being too long; so it pounded away at the field batteries on the ridge. But the practice was not good and few casualties occurred. The Russian siege battery made admirable practice at the Grivica redoubt, which is the key to the position, and instead of spreading their fire, the Russians should have concentrated upon it the whole weight of the bombardment. As it is, they may bombard it for a week and after all not succeed in taking it. The assault was intended to begin yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, but owing to delays the troops were not in position by the appointed time."

"Everywhere now the infantry is in position, waiting for the word. Towards noon the Russian infantry pushed forward in skirmishing order, driving back the outlying Turks. The artillery followed and came into action at 1 o'clock. The Turkish return fire, chiefly directed at the Russian first line of artillery, is very heavy, but little harm is being done. Further on the left to the crest of the range beyond Radisova, which was one array of field batteries, the firing was very heavy, the Turkish shells doing great damage among their gunners and falling behind among the infantry on the reverse slope and in Radisova. "At 3 o'clock the Russians advanced towards the Turkish positions and continued to fire rather slackly. The fire must have reached into Plevna. "There are no indications of assault to-day. I believe it will be commenced to-morrow. The Russian cannon is drawing close around the Turkish positions, but the Turkish will not be with the cannon, but with the prowess of the men. The losses were much heavier to-day than yesterday."

THE COTTON CROP.

Reports from Other Sections—Discouraging Prospects.

MEMPHIS, TENN., September 11.—The August cotton report of the Memphis Cotton Exchange is derived from one hundred and sixty-three responses, at an average date of September 1st: Five from West Tennessee; fifty-eight from North Mississippi; forty-six from Arkansas, and nine from North Alabama. It will be observed, aside from the appearance of caterpillars, that the very favorable weather which has prevailed for the past month has materially improved the condition of the cotton crop. However, it can scarcely be doubted by any one conversant with its very late and growing condition, that serious damage must occur from frost, unless previously cut off by caterpillars. Of the damage already done by the latter, it is impossible at this early date to form an opinion, as fully two-thirds of the responses had been mailed before their appearance. To say the least, the present evidences would seem to indicate a very great damage to the crop by them.

Efforts to Set Aside the Consolidation of the Telegraph Companies.

NEW YORK, September 11.—The Evening Post has the following: "Proceedings have been begun in the Supreme Court of Kings county, by summons and complaint, to set aside the recent arrangement for a consolidation of the interests of the Western Union and Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Companies. The proceedings were begun by Jesse Johnson, who alleges that he holds twenty shares of the Atlantic and Pacific stock. The complaint charges that the arrangement between the two companies was illegal. Mr. Orton says that a dissolution of the arrangement would be prejudicial to the Atlantic and Pacific Company, but would not injure the Western Union, which now held enough stock of the former company to prevent them from any damaging competition in the future."

A Desperate Burglar.

St. LOUIS, September 11.—A burglar was brought to bay in a corn field. He instantly killed two and fatally wounded one of the pursuers. He is still at large. They will lynch him if they catch him.

The Pope Not so Well.

Defalcation in Pitt.

SUPPRESSION OF HAZING AT WEST POINT.

Washington, September 7.—General Schofield, commanding at the West Point Military Academy, has issued orders calling the special attention of cadets to the academic regulations in relation to the treatment of new cadets. He says it was believed that "the unmanly practices" denounced by these regulations "had ceased to disgrace the corps of cadets, but some recent occurrences show that the real character of such practices is not yet fully appreciated by all; hence it has become necessary to characterize them in plain terms. For the comparatively intelligent and strong to take unfair advantage of the inexperienced, to harass and annoy them, is an act unworthy a civilized man, and, much more, unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. It is the mode in which savages treat those who fall into their power. On the other hand, to secure justice and protection to the defenseless is the office of the gentle and brave. The honor of the corps of cadets, as well as that of the officers of the academy, requires that the practice of unkind treatment of new cadets shall be wholly eradicated. Cadet officers, upon whom so much of the discipline and high character of the corps depend, are expected to do their whole duty in this respect. Hereafter cadets guilty of violation of paragraph 121, and cadet officers who fail to do their whole duty in protecting new cadets from ill-treatment, will be punished to the full extent of the regulations."

Injunction!

I have to notify the trade and public generally that on the 8th of May last I obtained an injunction from Judge J. F. Daly, of the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, against a person styling herself "Madame Gouraud," restraining her from "selling, transferring, interfering with, or in any manner disposing of the goods, chattels, Proprietary Articles, and trade marks of the late Dr. Felix Gouraud." This enjoins the sale of the Oriental Cream, Italian Medicinal Soap, and all other of the proprietary articles of my deceased father. I have therefore to warn the trade against purchasing from the said "Madame Gouraud" any of the said preparations or from dealing in the same during the continuance of the said injunction. Meanwhile my "Olympeux Cream" is free from legal entanglement, and my right to its manufacture and sale unquestioned. The public will find in it a toilet article superior to its late competitor and its price reduced to one dollar. Trial bottle 25 cents. Unequaled as a beautifier of the complexion.
