

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.—For the South Atlantic States, increasing north-easterly winds, cloudy weather, and rain areas with stationary pressure and temperature.

John N Staples—Commissioner. Charlotte Institute for Young Ladies, Drayton & Co.—New Firm. Do you owe Wittkowsky & Rintels. Mrs R McNeil—Millinery Goods. C W White—Wanted. Wilson & Burwell—Druggists. Callender's Minstrels to-night.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Again, yesterday, there were unmistakable signs of business activity on the streets.

The minstrel band as it moved through the streets yesterday, drew almost as well as a circus procession.

Several tracts of land were sold at auction yesterday, but being executors' or trustees' sales, brought comparatively low prices.

Great interest was manifested in the revival in progress at Calvary Mission church last night. Rev Mr Pigott preached and about twenty persons appeared at the altar as penitents.

The spiral spring has gone, and showing finger-nails to throw the treat off on the man with the dirtiest, has lost its popularity, but matching for cigars with the numbers on papers, is still all the rage, and every new-comer is robbed without mercy.

County Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners held its regular monthly meeting at the court house yesterday. Very little business of public interest was transacted, the time of the meeting being chiefly occupied with discussions and approvals of bills for county expenses.

Sale of the Fair Grounds.

The fair grounds of the Carolina Park Association were sold in front of the court house yesterday, as advertised, and were bought in by Mr R M Miller for the company, at the sum of $1,600. This includes about forty acres of ground and all the buildings.

Fell from a Train.

Yesterday morning a negro man, an employe of the Air-Line Railroad, in attempting to get from the top of a car on to the platform lost his hold and fell while the train was running at the rate of about twenty-five miles an hour.

Struck With a Slung-Shot.

Sometime during Sunday night, David Fulwiler, a white man, who was drinking heavily, was led off to a secluded spot near the fair grounds by two colored men and struck on the head with a slung-shot.

A Young Charlotte Abroad.

The following notice of a Charlotte youth is from the Orangeburg (S. C.) News and Times of a recent date: "Prof J A Duls, who has been teaching in town for the past fifteen days, closed his first session on last Friday night, and on that night he awarded three premiums, two to Mr A H Lewin and one to Mr B Walker.

The Churches Sunday.

Sunday was a beautiful autumn day, and the attendance at the city churches was unusually large.

Rev Prof Latimer preached two excellent sermons at the Second Presbyterian church, both of which were listened to by large congregations with evident pleasure.

Rev Dr Pharr filled Rev Mr Bohamer's pulpit, and had good congregations.

Rev Lucien Holmes, of Thompson Hall Academy, preached in the morning at the Episcopal church.

At the Lutheran church, Rev Mr Wingard preached in the morning as usual, and at night delivered the third of his series of lectures on infidelity, taking for his subject this time, materialism, which was handled in a very instructive and interesting manner.

The revival meetings at Calvary Mission church were continued Sunday, and will be kept up throughout the week.

The services at the other churches were of the usual character, the pulpits being filled by the regular pastors

Going to Raleigh.

The Southern Home announces that Capt R A Shotwell, formerly associate editor of that paper under Gen Hill's management, has accepted the position of managing editor of the Farmer and Mechanic, a journal which is to be issued in Raleigh about the middle of the month, under the auspices of the department of agriculture of this State.

About to Strike.

An order having been issued by the Superintendent of the Charlotte & Atlanta Air-Line Railroad for a reduction of wages of the section hands employed on the road, from ninety cents a day to seventy-five, to take effect October first, some of them have refused to go to work, and are making an effort to get up a strike.

Going to the Fair.

The question whether or not the military companies of this city and county will attend the State Fair, was settled yesterday by a letter from the Adjutant-General of this State to Maj J G Harris, of the second battalion, which states that free transportation will be furnished all four of the companies.

The Georgia Minstrels Last Night.

Callender's Georgia Minstrels performed at the opera house last night. An excellent crowd was in attendance, and the merit was very great, amounting sometimes to boisterousness. It was evident that the audience was well pleased with the entertainment.

A Curious Still.

Seeing in our paper a week or ten days ago, something about a very singular still in Lincoln county, a friend is moved to tell us of one near Troutman's depot, on the Statesville Railroad, which is made altogether of wood, even to the worm. There is neither copper, brass or iron about it, and it is said that the bandy which is turned out from it is the very best that has ever been made.

Personal.

Dr F M Ross, one of the old citizens of Charlotte, but now a resident of Yorkville, S. C., is in the city on a visit to the family of his son-in-law, James Harty, Esq.

Mr John Bragg, of Raleigh, where he was at one time city editor of the Sentinel, is now connected with the Western Union Telegraph office in this city.

We are glad to meet again our friend Capt James King, of the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, who has just returned from a tour of England, Scotland and France.

Capt Chas Price, of Salisbury, has been in the city for the past two days. Starkey F Gardner, Esq., of the Granite County Echo, was in the city yesterday, and favored us with a call last night.

Dr Wm Strudwick, of Wadesboro, was registered last night at the Central Hotel.

September Marriages.

Below is published the names of persons to whom marriage licenses have been issued by the register of deeds during last month. As compared with the same month last year, the list shows a very decided falling off in the matrimonial business.

WHITES. Franklin Cox, Jr., Alice C Williams. William Terrell, Alice E Peoples. Rev W M Hunter, Monaca Nisbet. James S Lafferty, Hattie E Kerns. Thomas Walker, Mary Sanders.

COLORED.

Released from Jail.

We have more than once referred to the case of the man R P Clements, who was jailed here about a month ago for stealing morphine and other articles while on a protracted debauch. There is no doubt about the fact, as already stated, that the man is of good family and has been a gentleman.

The New Freight Line to the North.

The new freight line to the North via the Carolina Central Railroad to Hamlet, thence via the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line, and Raleigh & Gaston Railroads to Norfolk, thence by steamer to Northern ports, may now be said to be open.

Fell in a Fainting Fit.

Last evening about 7:30 o'clock, Mrs Thos M Harkey, accompanied by another party, was on her way to Calvary Mission Church, to attend the revival exercises, and when opposite the pump in front of Thos J Black's saloon, on Trade street, was taken deathly sick and began to stagger.

Would Never Use Them.

If persons were aware of the injurious character of most baking powders, they would never use them. Ignorant persons know nothing about the chemical combinations necessary. The only good Baking Powder, prepared by a physician with special regard to its healthfulness, is Dr Price's Cream Baking Powder.
