PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Proposition to Change the Law Regarding the Counting of the Presidential Vote—Union Pacific R R Co—Spofford and Kellogg—Blaine Paired.

WASHINGTON, Oct 22.—It is thought that the committees will not be announced until Wednesday.

HOUSE—The Colorado question was resumed after reading the journal.

Among the bills introduced and referred in the Senate during the morning hour, was one by Mr Beck, of Kentucky, to repeal section 3 of the act to provide for the resumption of specie payments, approved July 14th, 1875.

By Mr Hereford, of West Virginia, a bill to repeal the act which provides for the resumption of specie payments.

By Mr Jones, of Nevada, a bill to authorize the coinage of a dollar of 4124 grains of standard silver, and for other purposes.

The peace reported throughout Louisiana does not extend to her politicians here. Their wrangles and tangles are labyrinthical.

Sensors Blaine and Kernan are paired. This indicates that Blaine intends voting on the pending questions with the ultra Republicans.

SENATE—The resolution submitted by Mr Edmunds, on Wednesday last, providing for the appointment of seven Senators whose duty it shall be to take into consideration the state of the law respecting the ascertaining and declaration of the result in the elections of President and Vice President of the United States and that the said committee have power to report by bill or otherwise, was taken up.

Mr Edmunds moved to amend by adding the words: "And that the said committee have power to confer and act with any committee of the House of Representatives, that may be charged with the same subject." The amendment was agreed to and the resolution passed as amended.

Mr Howe, of Wisconsin, introduced a bill to amend certain provisions of the Revised Statutes of the United States relating to the transportation of animals.

Mr Chaffee, of Colorado, submitted a resolution directing the Secretary of the Interior to transmit to the Senate a copy of the last annual report of the government directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company. Agreed to.

A number of bills were introduced and referred to the proper committees and the Senate, at 12:40, adjourned until to-morrow.

The committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate is full except Morton. Spofford was present, also Kellogg, with his counsel, Shellbarger and Wilson. Kellogg submitted written statements in support of his claim. Spofford argued his own case. The hearing will be continued.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

A deputy collector in the Third Georgia district is reported $4,000 short.—Special agents have the matter in charge.

Judge John H Campbell, of New Orleans, will appear for Spofford before the committee on Privileges and Elections.

Blaine is too sick to travel to day.

HOUSE—Colorado occupied the entire day. A select committee on civil service was ordered.

The House has adjourned to Wednesday.

Ingalls' bill pensioning certain soldiers of the Mexican war gives $8 per month to all survivors, including those who served sixty days, and their widows.

There is a furious lobby against the confirmation of J Wiley Wells as Consul General to China. Allegations against him by affidavit and otherwise, especially otherwise, are serious.

Episcopal Convention.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, October 22.—The attendance is light. Many members have gone home. It has been decided to adjourn sine die Wednesday.

The resolution of Dr DeKoven, of Wisconsin, for the use of the Lectionary of the church in England by the church in this country until the next general convention, was discussed by Dr DeKoven, Dr Goodwin, Pennsylvania, Mr Battle, of North Carolina, and Mr Beers, of California, who favored a reference of the matter to the committee on the Prayer Book.

Hon Robt L Winthrop favored the adoption of Dr DeKoven's resolution as there was nothing in the Lectionary of the good old mother church that could be considered objectionable.

Boston, October 22.—Mr Whipple, of Brooklyn, and Mr McCrady, of South Carolina, also favored the resolution. Mr McCrady proposed that the resolution should be so amended as to the time the proposed Lectionary should be used. Any amendment with this view was not entertained, and the eyes and nays were ordered, the delegations being called in their regular order by request of Mr McCrady. The result of the ballot was the adoption of the resolution by an almost unanimous vote.

Boston, October 22.—The result of the vote was as follows: Clerical deputations, dioceses represented, 42, ayes 42; lay deputations, dioceses represented, 23, ayes 80; noes 2. South Carolina and Minnesota voted in the negative.

On motion of Mr Hubbard, of New Hampshire, it was voted that clergymen have power to use the table of lessons reported by the committee in connection with the Lectionary for Lent. This action does not affect the table of lessons heretofore used.

The sitting Bull Commission a Failure.

CHICAGO, Oct 22.—A Times special from the Sitting Bull commission at Fort Walsh, British Northwest Territory, dated Oct 17, says: "The commission met Sitting Bull and has utterly failed to obtain any satisfaction or terms of settlement from him."

THE WAR

The Griviza Redoubt Captured and Lost—Suleiman Pasha Compelled to retire to Rasgrad.

LONDON, October 22.—It is reported that the Roumanians, after having captured the Griviza redoubt and been driven out, which is official, recaptured Griviza, Saturday. The Turks have retired to Rasgrad to secure their communication with Ruscuk. The Russian cavalry have advanced to Kavarana. It is evident that the Turks have commenced a retrograde movement.

A telegram from Shumla, received in Constantinople, says that Suleiman offered battle on several occasions. The Russians, however, declined to accept the challenge, wishing rather to lure the Turks to unfavorable ground.

Suleiman, however, prudently avoided the battle, and in consequence a want of water and the bad condition of the roads, which hinder the transportation of the army of the Danube, on Friday retired upon Rasgrad.

The Daily News states that eighteen thousand men and forty cannons were captured by the Russians in a recent victory over Ghata-Moultar.

The Turkish reports of a part of their army holding out in fortified positions in Aladja Dagh, are unfounded. The Russian loss in carrying Aladja Dagh on the 15th inst., officially reported, is 1,441 killed and wounded. The losses on the other parts of the battle field are not stated.

A Russian official dispatch detailing Friday's attack upon the second Griviza, redoubt, says: "At the first attack the Roumanians were repulsed before they gained the redoubt. At the second attack, the three foremost battalions leaped into the trenches, and vainly endeavored to carry the redoubt. They remained one hour in the trenches, which gave rise to a premature report of its capture. The Roumanians, however, with the loss of two officers and two hundred men killed, and twenty officers and seven hundred and seven men wounded."

Fight With Robbers—Desperate Encounter.

CINCINNATI, O., October 22.—A special dispatch states that a desperate encounter took place Saturday evening, at Big Clifty, Ky., near Louisville, between two highwaymen and Joseph Hausen, a travelling salesman. Hausen started to walk from West Clifty to Big Clifty to catch the train and was met upon the bridge which spans a chasm one hundred and forty-six feet in depth, by two desperate characters who demanded money. Hausen drew a revolver and shot one, when the other rushed upon him and attempted to throw him over the bridge. Hausen drew a butcher knife from a package of samples, stabbed the robber and succeeded in throwing him down the chasm and then escaped to Big Clifty. The robbers were arrested but not recognized by the people of the place. The one thrown overboard was placed from instant death by falling in the river, but both men will probably die.

A Destructive Fire.

MADISON, N. J., October 22.—A fire last evening destroyed the business portion of this village. Four stores, one dwelling and the railroad depot were utterly destroyed. The alarm was sent to Morristown and the fire department of that city responded and checked the fire. There is no fire department here.

NEW YORK, October 22.—Another dispatch says: "An exploring party have been at work endeavoring to locate those in the mine, but have little hope of rescuing any alive, and express the opinion that every one in the pit is dead. One survivor says the bottom of the pit is full of dead bodies."

A Terrible Explosion.

A special dispatch from Glasgow to the Pall Mall Gazette, says: "An explosion occurred in colliery at High Blantire, near this city. Four hundred men were in the mine at the time. A large number of lives were lost."

The campaign just closed in Ohio had its humorous incidents, as all political contests have, not the least amusing of which was one in which George A. Sheridan, of Louisiana, was the cause. Judge West, the Republican candidate for Governor, is not always equal to the occasion. He is physically weak, and has nights when he cannot speak without something stimulating, and nights when he cannot speak at all. Gen. Sheridan, of New Orleans, was imported to supply the deficiency, and hence the incident related by the Cincinnati Commercial.

It was one of Judge West's bad nights. He was not feeling strong, and as Sheridan was a rattling speaker, it was the determination to give the night to him. The chairman of the meeting, therefore, according to understanding, opened by stating that Judge West was "feeble" and could occupy but a few minutes. The judge opened at five minutes before 8, and became so absorbed at the iniquities of the Democratic party and the beauties of the Republicans, that he knew nothing of the flight of time, and closed with a dazzling peroration at nine minutes after eleven o'clock, occupying only three hours and sixteen minutes. Sheridan came forward and said that he was "somewhat feeble" himself, but he did not think they required to hear from more than one sickly man in one evening. The audience roared themselves out of the hall.

COLORED JUDGMENT ON TRAMPS.—The colored men in Hanover county, Va., have invented a remedy of their own for the tramp nuisance. One of their color, a big, strong fellow, having trapped into "the Slashes," historic as the birthplace of Henry Clay, "the recently enfranchised," instead of giving him crust and kind counsel, laid him over a barrel and belabored him with a stout staff, after which he was told to "git up and go long back whar he come from," a piece of advice he proceeded to follow to the best of his ability.

Life is short at most and our duty is to prolong it. Use, therefore, Dr Bull's Cough Syrup for coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, etc. Price only 25 cents. Sold everywhere.

THE ARREARS BILL.—It is proposed to circulate petitions in the interest of the bill for arrears of pensions substantially as follows:

To the Forty Fifth Congress:

The pensioners during the last Congress having presented petitions, signed by over fifty thousand (50,000) citizens, in favor of the arrears of pension bill, and having conclusively shown that it is undeniably a justifiable measure, and in view of the very extensive indorsement of the Ohio, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, and other State Legislatures, and the entire unanimity of the press in its favor; and in consideration of the passage of the bill by the main and of Representatives, and the fact that it has no open manifestation of opposition from any source; we therefore regard it absolutely a duty of the Forty-Fifth Congress to take prompt recognition of this measure, which affects a poor and disabled class of our fellow-citizens, and recommend it to your earliest consideration, trusting that matters of minor importance will not be allowed to take precedence.

WHERE A GOVERNOR GETS HIS WIVES.—Claiborne F. Jackson, a native of Kentucky, was once Governor of the State of Missouri. He joined the Southern Confederacy, and died during his term at a farm-house opposite the city of Little Rock, among strangers, with no kind hand of affection near to soothe his pain and rob his death-bed of half its anguish. The most remarkable fact connected with the history of his life is perhaps the statement that he married five sisters in one of the most respectable, wealthy and distinguished families in the State, that as soon as one wife would die he would go and marry her sister in reasonable time. Of course, some of them were widows when he married them. In connection with the marriages there was a standing joke told at the expense of the Governor, which was that when he went to ask the old gentleman's consent to marry the last one, the venerable father is reported to have said: "Yes Clab, you can have her. You have got them all. For goodness sake don't ask me for the old woman."—Tribune (Mo.) Democrat.

An Appropriate Odor.

In Dr Price's American perfumes, each particular character can find an appropriate odor. For the clergyman and orator, his refreshing and fragrant "Floral Riches"; for the brilliant and witty, his charming "Evening Violet"; for the sedate and robust, his persistent "Thibet Musk"; for the lady of fashion, his captivating "Hazard"; for the young gentleman, his delicate "Arista Boquet"; for the young lady, his sweet "Pet Rose". We know our friends by their words, we do not recognize them by their scent and particular odor?
