TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

WASHINGTON.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS. Postoffice Affairs—Harlan not yet confirmed—The Army Appropriation—Conkling Against Hayes.

General News and Gossip. WASHINGTON, Nov 9.—A delegation from the government printing office had an interview with the Printing committee of the House with a view of having their wages restored to the old rates.

The Letter Carriers' Convention had an informal hearing from the House committee on Postoffices and Post Roads. The delegates were advised to go home by prominent members of the committee and to rely upon a favorable consideration of the army bill.

Harrison was elected chaplain by a resolution. Mr Ellis succeeded to day in having Secretary McCreary order Major Benyand, of the Corps of Engineers, to remove the raft in Red river, above Shreveport, and to keep the river open.

Secretary Thompson will to-day order, at the solicitation of Congressman Ellis, a government vessel to be placed at the disposal of the city of New Orleans for the improvement of the harbor there.

Rev Mr Harrison, chaplain of the House, will, in addition to his duties there, preach at Vernon Chapel, Methodist Church, South.

NIGHT DISPATCHES. Confirmations—John Welsh, Minister to England, Lock, postmaster at Eufaula, and Noble, postmaster at Ansonia, Ala.

The Senate committee on the Judiciary had no quorum this morning.—The delay is not considered favorable to the committee's endorsement of Harlan, as Justice of the Supreme Court. It is stated in this connection that the Senate, in executive session, has, in every instance, adopted the reports of the committee without division.

In the case of Welsh there were no negative votes. HOUSE—The army appropriation bill again occupied the House to day, and had not made much progress at the adjournment.

The discussion took about the same range as yesterday—the need of a strong army to guard the Indian and Texas frontiers and to suppress labor disturbances. Most of those who referred to the latter topic deprecated the use of the military for such a purpose.

Resgan, of Texas, particularly, took that ground, holding that the true way to have peace and prosperity in the country was to repeal the resumption act, remonetize silver and reduce the burdens of taxation.

In regard to the Texas difficulties it was stated by several members, in debate, that the proper course to adopt was for the United States government to put down the marauders by having them pursued and punished, even on Mexican soil.

Phillips, of Kansas, described the frontier Mexicans as a despicable race—half Spanish and half Indian, with all of the vices, and none of the virtues, of either stock.

All propositions looking to a reduction of the army were voted down by a small majority, the Republicans voting solidly against them, backed by the Texas members, Lutterell, of California, and Williams, of Michigan. The force beyond which the army is not to be recruited was fixed, as in the existing law, at 25,000 men.

The Herald prints a report of an interview with Senator Conkling. He said: "From the time Hayes came into office and appointed a Democratic cabinet, the principal labor of Eyras and the rest has been to withdraw the Republican support from me."

The interview makes three columns. Senator Mitchell introduced a bill granting nine years' extension of the time for the completion of the Northern Central Railroad.

The Vice President named on committees to fill the vacancies caused by Morton's decease: Kirkwood, on Foreign Relations, Ingalls, on Privileges and Elections, and Saunders on Railroads. On motion of Mitchell, who has been acting chairman, Mr Wadleigh was made chairman of the Senate committee on Privileges and Elections, Mr Mitchell taking the second place.

The House committee on Postoffices and Post Roads to-day agreed to recommend the passage of the bill introduced by Mr Morey, of Mississippi, providing for the appropriation of a sufficient sum to pay all ante bellum Southern mail contractors, or their heirs or legal representatives, or the balances due for the transportation of the mails up to 31st of May, 1861.

Telegraphic Briefs. The extensive carriage works of Charles S Coffey, at Camden, N. J., were totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $105,000. Insurance, $82,000.

Right Honorable Thomas S Owden, Alderman for Bishopsgate, who was elected Lord Mayor of London last September, was inaugurated yesterday with the usual ceremonies.

In view of the entire exemption from sickness and the cool weather, the quarantine at Pensacola, Fla, has been abolished for this season. Oldship, Obandler, Fordham & Jennings, of San Francisco, have failed for $90,000. They offer forty cents on the dollar.

FRANCE

The Right Will Support MacMahon in his Conservative Policy.

LONDON, November 9.—A Reuter Paris dispatch says: "Delegates of all the groups on the Right waited upon the marshal to-night to assure him that he might count upon a majority in the Senate for an energetic defence of the country and society."

Marshal MacMahon replied: "Your declaration only proves I was right to rely upon the support of the Senate for a conservative policy, which is, as you know, the only policy I am able to follow."

The Times Paris correspondent telegraphs the following: "Some assert that the cabinet, obtained an adjournment of the Senate in order to wait until the Chamber of Deputies had declared valid the election of a sufficient number of members to enable it to proceed to business. Others say the cabinet have accepted the adjournment because it hopes the Chamber of Deputies will meanwhile display such violence as to demonstrate the impossibility of conducting the government with it."

The correspondent adds: "It is feared the Chamber will neither be willing nor able to restrain itself. The debate yesterday was a warm one. A plenary meeting of the Left last night appointed a committee of 13 members with full powers to act for the party. The committee's deliberations were secret. The committee was appointed in spite of the known opposition of M Grey and others, who feared it might become violent, and by awakening the memories of the convention, furnish the reactionists with dangerous arguments."

A special dispatch from Paris to the Daily Mail Gazette says: "President MacMahon was received at the Elysee by General Venoy and Senators D Angine, Clement, Dimontgolfeir, Delsal and Braine, who, it is believed, will form a part of a new cabinet of resistance."

THE WAR.

Plevna in a Critical Condition—Moukhtar Pasha Still in Hope.

LONDON, November 9.—Specials report that Plevna cannot hold out many days. Osman Pasha's men are deserting in large numbers on account of privations and hardships. The Russians have a field telegraph line completely around Plevna so they can concentrate immediately on any point attacked.

A special dispatch from Pera to the Daily Telegraph says: "Moukhtar Pasha telegraphs under date of November 6th, that he still hopes to be able to hold Erzeroum. He has plenty of artillery and munitions and larger reinforcements are on their way to him."

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 9.—The following telegram is received from Moukhtar Pasha, dated Erzeroum, November 9th, 10:00: At 4 o'clock this morning the Russians attacked our fortified positions at Azizie. Our troops fighting with great valor, repulsed them and pursued them four or five miles from Erzeroum. The Russians were totally defeated. Our trenches are filled with their dead."

Earlier advices received here (Constantinople) show that before this success, the situation at Erzeroum was very critical. The inhabitants demanded that the authorities should capitulate, the expected reinforcements not having arrived, as communication with Trebizond was difficult.

Terrible Storm.

CHICAGO, November 9.—Last night there was a storm on the lake, the worst experienced this season. The boat houses belonging to clubs here, which have withstood previous storms, were beaten to pieces by the waves. The Illinois Central Railroad track was torn up for some distance along the lake. Most of the sailing vessels were in the harbor, having been driven in by previous accidents.

All should recollect that with the loss of health, loss of enjoyment and happiness soon follows. A cough or cold quickly undermines the health, and should be checked by the prompt use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Gouraud's Olymplan Cream.

This standard preparation has from the time of its general introduction received the unequalled commendation of the beauty and the fashion of the land. Its intrinsic excellence and its secure adaptation to the toilet has secured it an instant preference over every article with which it has competed, a pre-eminence due to no extraneous cause, but to the fact that it has ever given it a trial without becoming its lasting patron, or has failed to confirm every virtue the proprietors claim in its behalf.

It is long possession of public favor has led to the introduction of many worthless imitations against which the public are warned. No preparation is so genuine as that entitled "Olymplan Cream," and bearing upon a blue label the device of a lion rampant with battle axe, which is the trade mark of the sole proprietor.

Now and Then.

It is only now and then that such men as Hon Alex H Stephens, Ex-Gov Smith and Ex-Gov Brown, of Ga., endorse a medicine for the throat and lungs, and when they do it is pretty good evidence that the remedy must be good for the cure of coughs, colds and lung affections. They recommend the GLOBE FLOWER CIGAR SYRUP, and their testimonials are to be seen round the ten cent sample bottles of the Globe Flower Syrup, for sale by all druggists in Charlotte. A sample bottle relieves the worst cough and will cure sore throat. Regular size bottles, fifty doses, $1.
