WASHINGTON.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

A Sensation over Hooker's and Ellis' Speeches—The Republican Senate Caucus and the President-Conkling and the "Herald" Interview.

Voorhees Sworn in—Senate Confirmations—Passage of the Army Bill in the House—Its Provisions.

General News and Gossip.

WASHINGTON, Nov 12.—The speeches of Goodland and Ellis on Gen Hooker's amendment have produced quite a sensation. The President sent for Congressman Ellis Saturday evening.

A special to the Baltimore Gazette regarding the Republican caucus, of Saturday, makes Senator Conkling utter strong denunciations of the administration, and adds that he was seconded by Senator Edmunds.

The only resolution adopted, according to this report, was:

Resolved, That in all cases where appointments of Democrats have been made in the South, on the recommendation of Democrats, the same be not sustained by the members of this body where any objection exists on the part of Southern Republicans.

Hamlin introduced a resolution that this body, in caucus, agree to vote for seating Mr Kellogg, when Christianity jumped up and left the caucus.

Hamlin, on finding that the resolution would cause a split in the caucus, withdrew it.

The committee on Privileges and Elections appointed a sub-committee, consisting of two, to wait on the contestants and see how they would agree regarding the range of testimony.

It is authoritatively denied that the Louisiana Senatorial contest was considered in the Republican caucus of Saturday.

HOUSE.—The army bill was resumed.

SENATE.—Mr Conkling, of New York, arose to a personal explanation, and referred to the publication, Friday last, in the New York Herald, purporting, in some general sense, to come from him.

It did not profess to be a report, literally, of anything said by him, but professed to be a narrative of private conversations, and disclaimed accuracy.

As generally read it seemed to have been accepted as something which had become to be known as an interview. He desired to state that for some months he had not held an interview for publication with any one, save in one instance, and then in regard to the usefulness and services here of the dead Senator from Indiana.

In all other instances he declined to be interviewed. The Herald's statement contained some remarks which he had made in casual conversation at the time. It contains other remarks which he never made at any time. It ascribes to him forms of expression quite indefinite, to say the least.

Words like these, in the presence of the gratifying and great achievement of the Republicans of New York, he was in no mood to utter.

Hon D W Voorhees was sworn in as Senator from Indiana, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon O P Morton.

Mr Booth, of California, was appointed chairman of the committee on Patents in place of Mr Wadleigh, of New Hampshire, recently appointed chairman of the committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr Davis, of Illinois, was excused from further service on the committee on Pensions, and Mr Saunders, of Nebraska, was excused from further service on the committee on Transportation Rates to the Seaboard.

A number of bills were introduced and referred to appropriate committees. Among them were the following: By Mr Windon, of Minnesota, to establish a department of commerce; by Mr Matthews, of Ohio, for the enforcement of judgments and decrees in the States other than those where rendered or made.

Mr Maxey, of Texas, submitted a resolution instructing the committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the expediency of constructing defensive works on the Rio Grande frontier. Laid over for the present.

Senator McCreery expresses himself, in the lobby of the Senate, as being favorably disposed to the confirmation of Harlan for the Supreme Court Bench.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Comptroller of the Currency has declared a dividend of 15 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Crescent City National Bank, of New Orleans, making in all dividends of seventy-five per cent.

The President has pardoned Thos H Benyon, convicted of making false entries in the books of a national bank.

The House committee on Foreign Affairs are preparing a bill for the distribution of the instalment paid by Mexico on the awards.

Voorhees' desk is covered with flowers.

Gen Legrande, superintendent of the San Francisco mint, has resigned.

Major Ray Peyton succeeds Judge Spencer, deceased, in the Post-office Department as special examiner of stars and steamboat mail routes.

Confirmations of Defrees, Public Printer; Marable, Assistant Attorney General; Stevens, of Maine, Minister to Sweden and Norway; Brayton, Collector of Internal Revenue for South Carolina; Kenneth Rayner, Solicitor of the Treasury; Morphis, Marshal of the Northern District of Mississippi; Hunt, Marshal of the Southern District of Mississippi; Crittenden, for Kentucky; Patterson, District Attorney for Southern Florida; Badger, District Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina; Warden, Middle District of Tennessee; Hooper, Postmaster at Opelika, Ala.

Senator Booth was appointed chairman of the committee on Patents.

The following bills were introduced: By Jones, of Florida, a bill to revive and extend the provisions of an act approved June 8th, 1872, granting the right of way through the public lands to the Pensacola and Louisville Railroad Company of Alabama. Referred to the committee on Public Lands.

By Mr Conover, to provide for a survey of an inland water route and canal from the Mississippi river to the Atlantic Ocean. Referred to the committee on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard.

The House passed the army bill today without division. The amendment allowing 4 cavalry regiments to be recruited to 100 men for each company company, and to be stationed in Texas, was agreed to.

An amendment, limiting staff officers to the rank and pay of their regular army grade, was rejected.

In the course of the discussion Hewitt, of New York, charged the Secretary of War, Gen Sherman, and the Adjutant General, with a want of frankness and of concealment of the facts regarding the enlistment.

The members on the Republican side replied to the charge and defended the high reputations of these officers. After wards a large number of bills were introduced and referred.

The committee on Public Buildings and Grounds elected Edward Mercer, of Atlanta, Ga and McKeogh, of Memphis, Tenn, restaurateurs of the House of Representatives. Col Mercer had charge of the Southern restaurant at the Centennial. There were eleven ballots.

THE POPE.

Latest Information Very Unfavorable.

NEW YORK, November 12.—A special to the Herald from Rome, says the gravest fears are entertained for the life of the Pope. A short time ago his physician feeling anxious about the Pontiff's condition, summoned some of the most eminent men of the medical profession in Italy, among others Vanzetti, professor of surgery at Padua for consultation. After the most careful examination, the consulting physicians have given up all hope of his recovery. His condition now is such that he may die at any moment, and if he rallies recovery will be only temporary. His lower limbs are paralyzed and he cannot lie very long.

PARIS, November 12.—It is reported here this afternoon that the Pope is dead. The report obtains credence in consequence of the unsatisfactory character of the latest reports of his condition.

LONDON, November 12.—A dispatch says: "Dispatches received from Rome to-day state that the Holy Father passed a very restless night, and the gravest fears are entertained for his life. From his fitful slumbers during the night, he a ways awakened in the full possession of his faculties and was conscious of all going on around him. Despite his feeble condition, he insists on receiving most of those who call upon him and to many he gives instructions of a personal or Christian nature. Many of the most eminent physicians of Italy have been summoned to his bedside, and give it as their opinion that he cannot recover, although they admit he may linger for many days, if not for a week or more. So soon as the death of the Pontiff is announced, the cardinals will assemble in conclave, and it is thought that this conclave will last not longer than one day, and that an Italian will be chosen as the successor of Pius Nono. The Italian government has already taken precaution to station a strong guard around all the approaches to the Vatican to prevent any pillaging that might follow on the death of the Pope being made public. It is further announced that the temporary interment of the Pope will take place in St Peter's until his final resting place shall have been selected.

FRANCE

The Relations of the Right to the Chamber of Deputies.

LONDON, November 12.—A Reuter from Paris says: "It is stated that when the minister of finance introduces the budget, a deputy of the Right will propose that the four principal direct taxes be voted immediately, independently of the budget. The Republicans are not expected to entertain this proposition. Other information is to the effect that a belief prevails that a refusal of the Chamber of Deputies to vote these four taxes will be followed by a request for a vote of dissolution in the Senate, and if that request is granted, the President intends to dissolve the Chamber and submit the question of his resignation to the country by a sort of Plebiscite. The MacMahonites claim that the Senate will vote for dissolution by 15 or 20 majority, but this is not generally believed. All late ministerial organs in the Orleansist or constitutional interest now demand a Republican ministry, including the Montieur Soleil, Siecle, and Constitutionnel. No Republicans attended President MacMahon's reception on Saturday."

Proprietors of New York Hotels to be Arrested.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The counsel for the Order of the League to-day made application for warrants for the arrest for violation of the Excise Law, of the proprietors of the Fifth Avenue, St James, Gilesey, Astor, Prescott, Hoffman, Grand Central, Coleman, Union Square and Winchester Hotels, the hotel Brunswick Cafe, Internationale, Atlantic Garden and some others. Justice Flammer signed the warrants but they will not be served before to-morrow morning.

Arrest of a Fenian.

NEW YORK, November 12.—A man named Sullivan, arrested at Cork, will be prosecuted as a Fenian for sending threatening letters to parties, who fused to join him in the movement to turn off gas and disperse the company during the dinner given by the mayor of Cork to the Duke of Connaught.

THE RUSSIANS AROUND PLEVNA.

LONDON, November 12.—The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Duny Dubriek, November 6th, says: "In consequence of the evacuation of this place by the Turks, the Russians have not contracted the circle investment to 30 miles. The Russians have 120,000 men, sufficient to fill two continuous lines of trenches around the whole position. Five or six thousand cattle are visible in Osman Pasha's position and other indications show it probable that he can hold out thirty or forty days longer."

LONDON, November 12.—A Russian official dispatch dated Bogent, November 11, says: "The Turks last night attempted to surprise Gen Skobloff's positions. The Russians were warned, however, and allowed the Turks to approach within one hundred paces, when they received them with heavy fire. The Turks retreated to an entrenched position and maintained a vigorous fire until 2 o'clock this morning."

Stanley's Movements.

LONDON, November 12.—Henry M Stanley, African explorer, and one hundred and twenty of his followers, have been brought to Cape of Good Hope in her majesty's storeship "Industry," which will also take them to Zanzibar.
