Proceedings of the A. M. E Zion Conference.

The Conference resumed its session esterday morning at 11 o'clock.

A B Smyer having been appointed to conduct the thanksgi, ing services, announced an appropriate hymn which was sung, and also read the one hundred and seventh Psalm.

Rev J W L Council addressed the Throne of Grace.

The elder announced for his text the 12th, 13th and 14th verses of the one hundred and sixth Psalm. The subject was handled with considerable ability. At the conclusion of the sermon, he laid the condition of the church at Monroe before the Conference, and appealed to the members for as large a contribution as possible to assist that congregetion in completing their house of worship. A liberal collection was taken up. The names of the brethren contributing to that church will appear in the next issue of the Star of Zion.

JA Tyler, the editor of the Star, laid before the Conference the condition and prospects of the paper. He re ported the Star free of debt from its very commencement up to the present. At the present rate of expenses he felt sure this episcopal district was fully able to own the paper, office and press, and publish the paper.
