TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

THE GREAT WAR.

Prospects of an Armistice Brightening—Midnight Pasha Goes to London—Newspaper Surmises on the Peace Question—The Danube Bridges Going—The Russians in the Balkan Passes.

LONDON, Dec 31.—A correspondent of the Standard telegraphing from Constantinople, Friday, via Syria, says: "I am assured on good authority that the Prince of Reuss has been commissioned to arrange an armistice."

THE DAILY NEWS' Bucharest correspondent states that intelligence has been received there that the bridge at Petrocheni, the last one which remained across the Danube, has been carried away.

THE LONDON correspondent of the Manchester Guardian telegraphs that journal regarding the government's policy, as follows: "There is no idea of the acquisition of Egypt, which would be an abandonment of the policy opposing the partition of Turkey."

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec 31.—The request the British government for information whether Russia is disposed to enter peace negotiations at the desire of the Porte, has been received.

ROME, Dec 31.—In compliance with a summons by telegraph, Midhat Pasha has started for London. The journey is said to be connected with England's acceptance of the Porte's request for mediation.

NORFOLK, Va, Dec 31.—The telegraphic lines on the North Carolina coast are prostrated. A vessel dragged its anchors and broke the telegraphic cable across Hampton Roads.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

The Silver Wedding of Mr and Mrs Hayes—No Presents, Thank You—The honor of assisting Mrs Hayes at to-morrow's reception devolves upon four ladies from Ohio...

THE BARK LIBERIA is to sail from New York for Liberia Wednesday with 60 negroes, who will settle there under the auspices of the American Colonization Society.

DR. GILES: I have been exceedingly successful in using your Liniment in my practice, particularly in cases of paralysis...

NOTICE! NOTICE!! On February 4th, 1878, the homestead of the late T. H. Brem will be sold at public auction...

NOTICE!—Housekeepers can at once and by plated spoons, knives, forks, coffee mills, scrub brushes, scales and anything you need for the cure of coughs, colds and lung affections.

ANOTHER BIG FAILURE.

John Bonner & Co go Down—The Senior Member of the Firm Flees to Canada.

John Bonner & Co, 32 Broad street, New York, have made an assignment to B W Griswold. It is said that the firm has pursued the same methods as Netter & Co in the hypothecation of securities.

THE FAILURE has involved the suspension of the Bankers and Brokers Association, which was an institution availed of by small operators for clearing stock.
